SPRING AND SUMMER — 1961

These are the Eagle's tailfeathers—the leftover events of 1961, without which the annual would be incomplete. The very word spring denotes life beginning anew, and that's just how it was when warm weather hit RHS. Many of the year's most important events took place during this time, and they are relived on the following pages.

Even the lunchroom ladies participated in the Western Day festivities, such as this lively game of canasta.

True western spirit prevailed in the cafeteria, as the staff prepared a special treat of sand and buffalo chips.

WESTERN DAY BEGINS FLURRY OF SPRING ACTIVITY

First on the Spring agenda was the second annual Western Day, sponsored by the Student Council and tolerated by the faculty. It consisted of a day of just plain fun, climaxed by a western dance in the gym. There were quick-draw contests, stage-coach races and lynchings (all in the spirit of fun, of course) as 1,000 RHS'ers brought a somewhat bitter taste of the old west to Richardson.

Gentl'man Tim

Terry Leever, Bill Mullenweg and Leon Fairchild were banished to a nearby Indian reservation after their unsuccessful attempt to convert the homemaking room into a dance hall and saloon.

Is Leon Fairchild trying to learn the right technique from Leslie Lancaster and Pam Ellis?

SAYONARA . . .

Well, where did you expect to find Wayne and Mary Beth? Waiting for refreshments to be served, of course!

Sayonara to the Seniors was the theme of the Jr.-Sr. Prom festivities May 19.

Pink lotus blossoms and a gilded Buddha adorned the ballroom of the Humphrey Lee Student Center. Pale blue programs containing senior class officers, colors, and motto were received by all who entered the ballroom via the Japanese bridge.

Refreshments were served during the dance which lasted from 9:00 to 12:00.

"You say you're supposed to be home when?" Veit Heidbrink asks his date Nancy Smith.

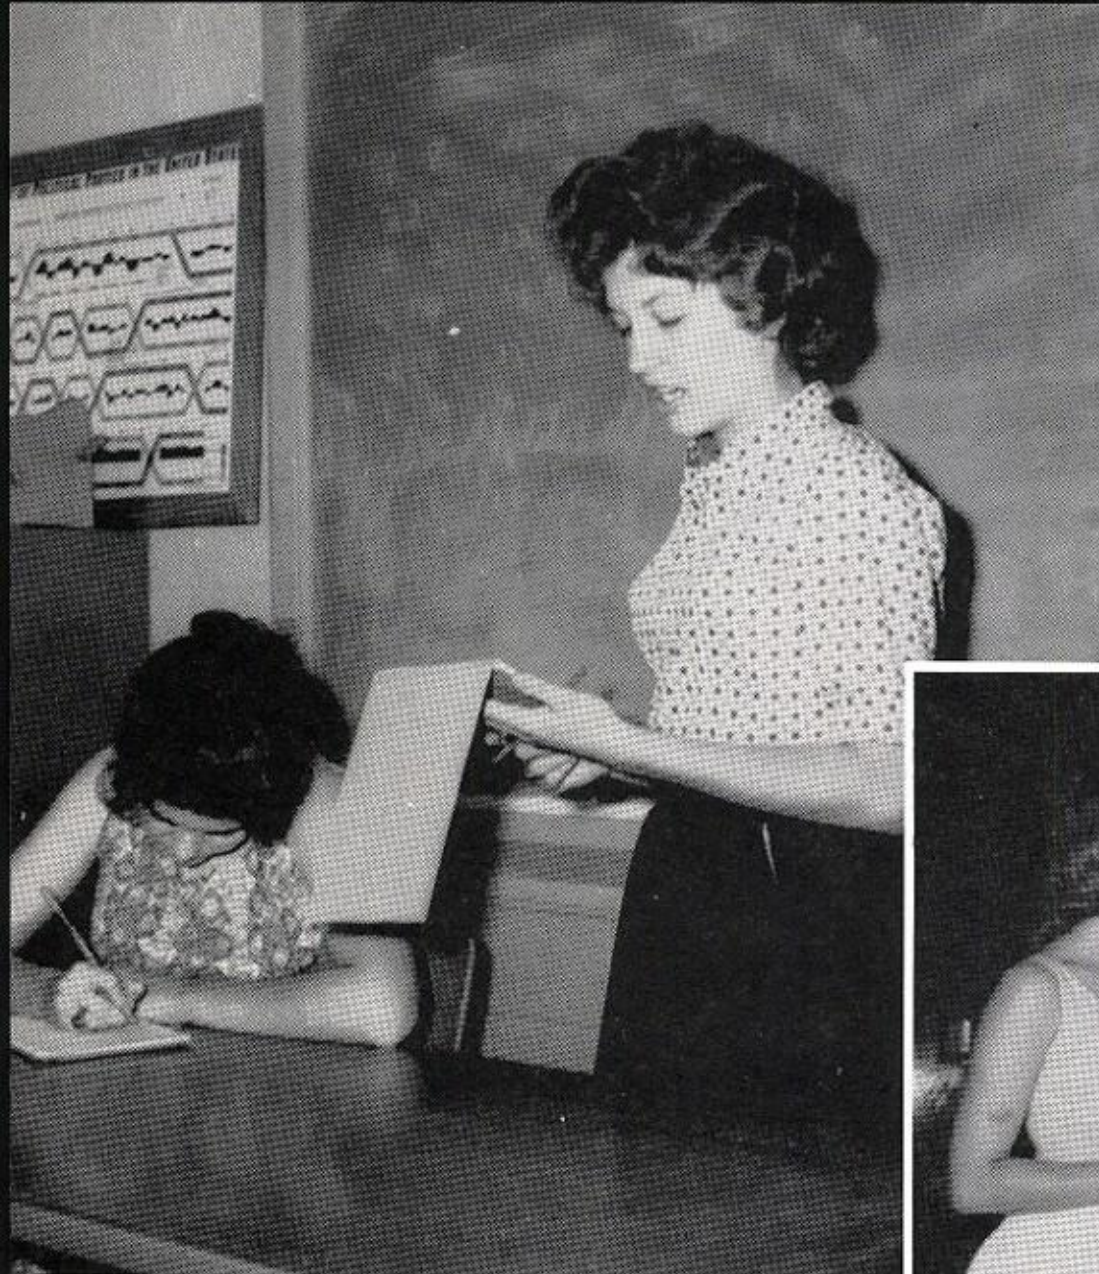

THEME OF JR.-SR. PROM

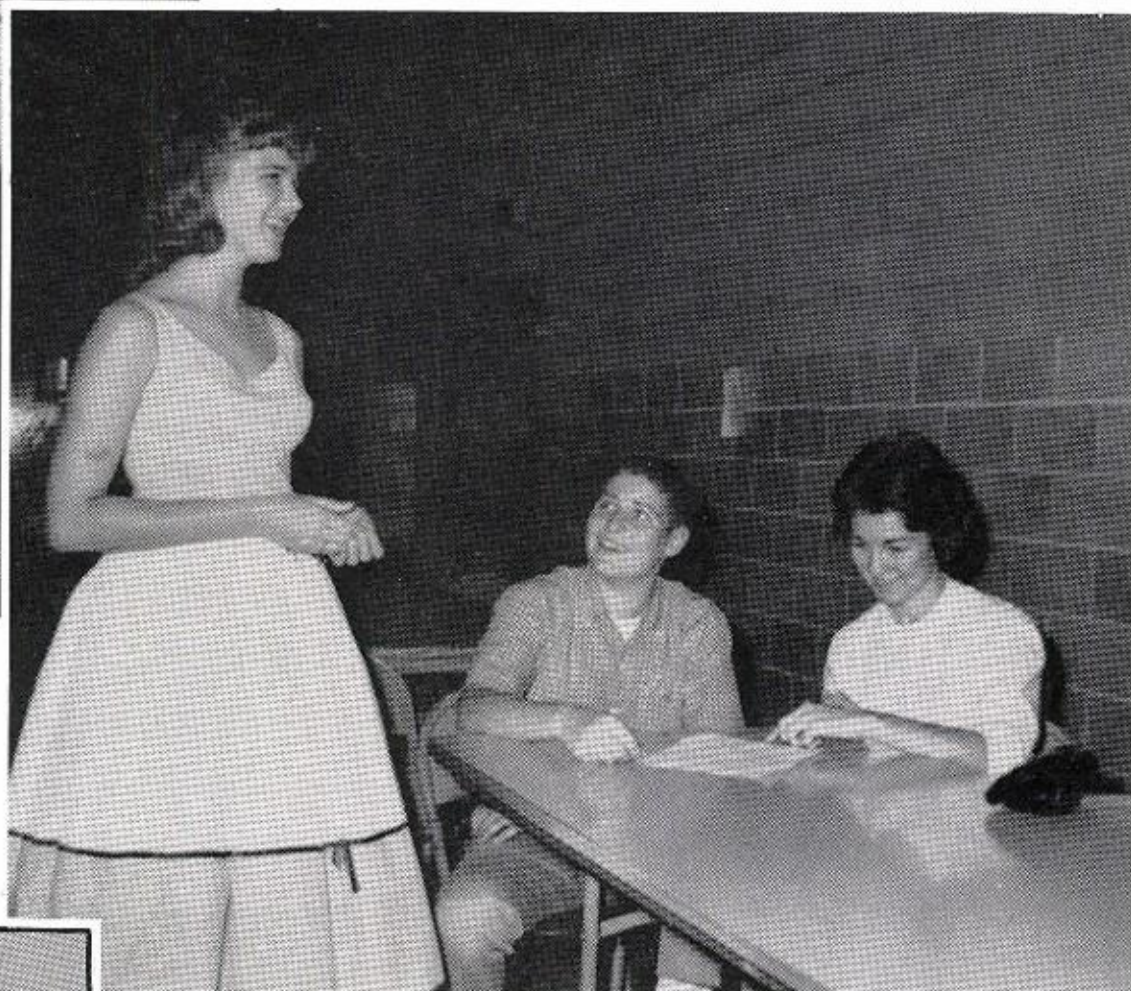

They could have danced till a quarter of three and so could the chaperones!

HARD WORK

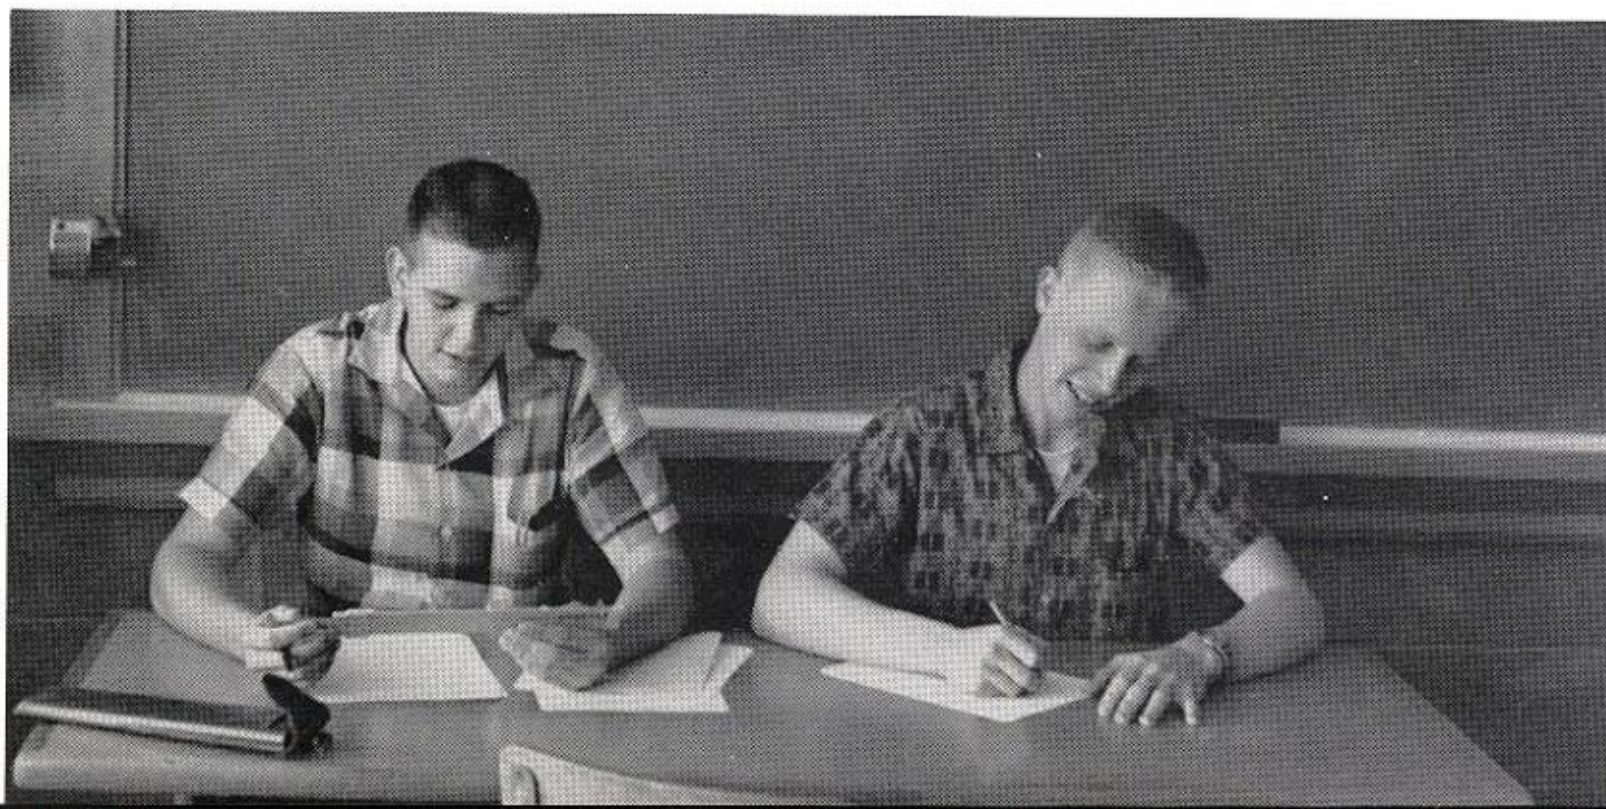

R.H.S. students excel in literary competition. They proved this by winning many first awards in Interscholastic League events. The District 5-AAA meet was held at Brewer High School, Fort Worth. Winners there went on to Regional at S.M.U. Several traveled to Austin for the state meet.

In shorthand competition, Janice Gray placed second, Pam Morgan, third. Here Janice dictates to Pam who is practicing on speed and accuracy.

Karen Campbell tries out her speech on two willing listeners, Theron Robinson and Vicki Johnson. Karen won second in declamation at district, while Theron placed first in boys' original oration and Vicki first in girls' oration.

Slide rule expert, Herb Hoff, who won third place at district, concentrates on a tricky problem. Meanwhile, Bob Huston smiles over an impossible equation. Bob placed second in number sense.

BRINGS A FIRST PLACE TO R.H.S.

Carol Burke, foreground, demonstrates the typing ability that helped her win first in district competition. On the left is Pat Moore, who placed second. Barbara Gillis, third place winner, rounded out the R.H.S. sweep in the typing division.

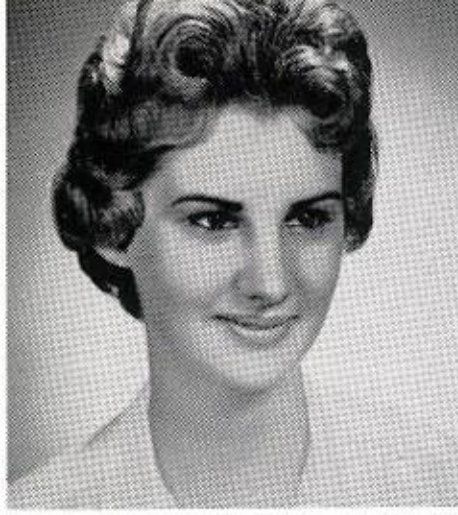

Don McKinney and Jerry Gray enjoy a quick moment in the sun. The two seniors made up the first-place-winning science team.

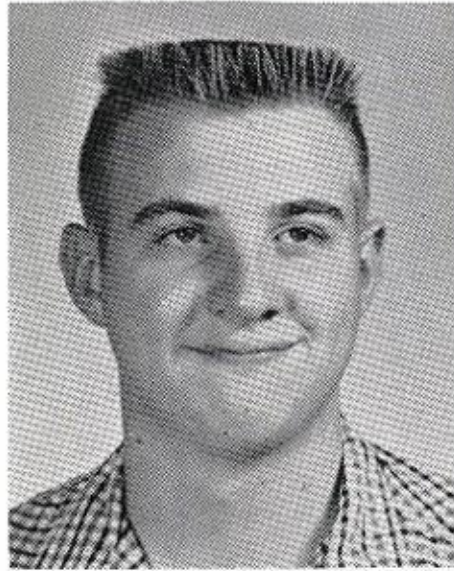

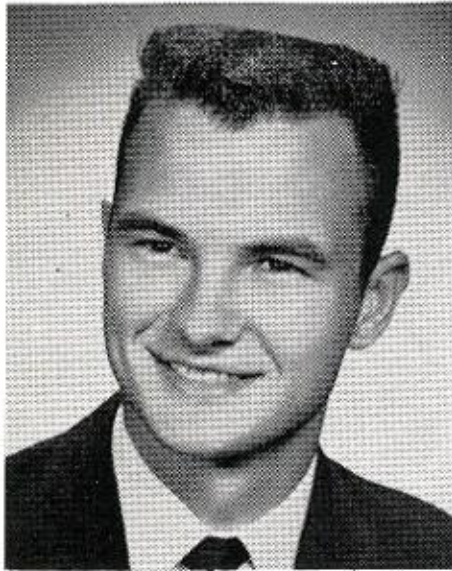

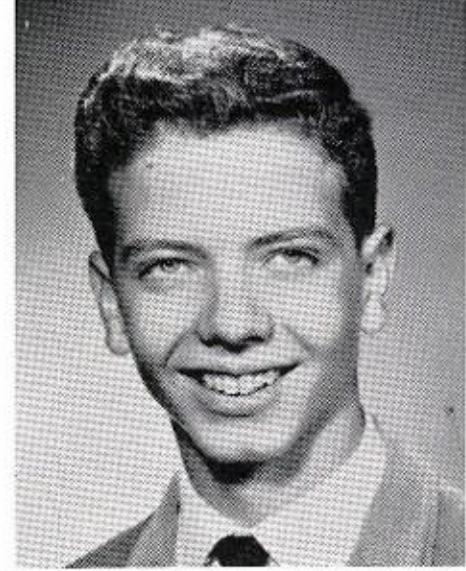

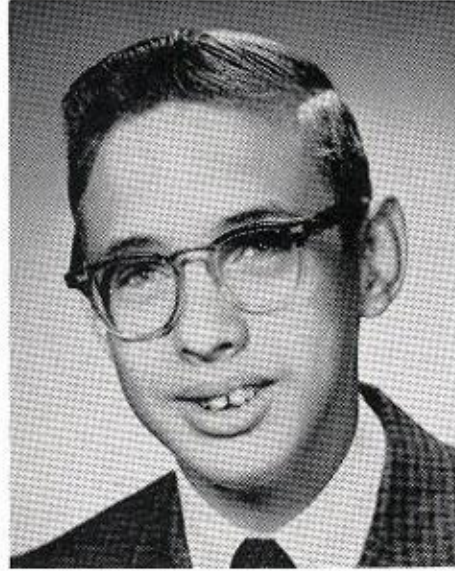

Two first-rate spellers, Jack Carrington and Julie Ferrell, bone-up on difficult words before the district meet. True to form, they placed first.

EAGLE-ITES MERIT

At right is Judy Odom, second place winner in ready writing at the district event.

Don Adams composed one-half of the first place debate team. Bill Buxton, far right, was the other winning team member. The two boys went on to the state competition.

First-place extemporaneous speaker in the boys' division, John Roosa helps Paula Strange, winner in the girls' event, find material in preparation for the state meet.

HIGH AWARDS

Dorothy Spitzfaden, here writing a story for further competition, was awarded second place in the national Scholastic Magazine writing contest. The short story, "The Bitter Cause" won her a twenty dollar prize plus several scholarship offers.

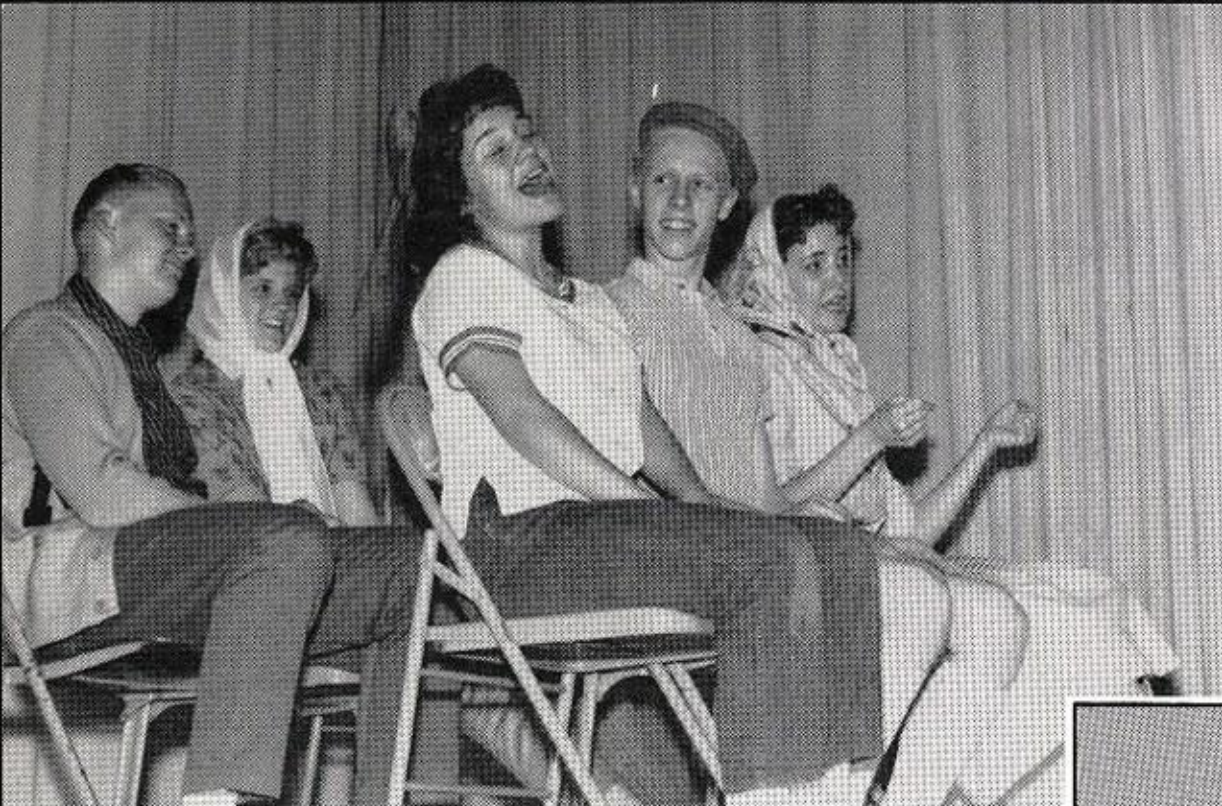

Jeanne Swahn has brought home many honors to R.H.S. She won recognition on Journalism Day at North Texas State, and placed first in district ready writing. Jeanne was our only state winner in the journalism division at Austin.

A superlative senior, Joellen Altman, captured first place in the district declamation contest and went on to represent R.H.S. in the regional and state meets.

At left, Judy Handley reads over the composition which won her a first award in special literary events at T.W.U., Denton.

Six people begin a trip for a happy picnic.

On this picnic Gwen and Sam have several fights.

Ginger carefully takes care of Robert, but Sam isn't happy about Gwen's concern in the problem.

"ANTIC SPRING" SCORES SECOND IN INTERSCHOLASTIC LEAGUE

As the picnic ends Blossom elaborates on the fun, but Sam, Ginger, Robert, Gwen, and Elbert show disagreement with a loud "No."

"Antic Spring" was the Inter-Scholastic League play presented this year. The first comedy presented in several years was viewed by the students before the six member cast traveled to Fort Worth for judging. Here the play took a second award with Diane Marsalis receiving a place on the all-star cast. Adding to the honors, Bob Huston was named Best Actor.

Six people who gaily plan a picnic find their plans ruined by rain, ants and a lovers' quarrel. Teresa Floyd as Gwen and Roger Rice as Sam, two love-sick teenagers, break and make-up several times before the play finds its end. Mary Alice Evans as Ginger declares Bob Huston as Robert must be a genius. Diane Marsalis as Blossom takes much pleasure in chasing Mike Gibson as Elbert. All six characters, added up to fun and excitement for this year's play.

VOLLEYBALL TEAM WINS SECOND IN DISTRICT PLAY

After practicing through many early morning hours, the girls' volleyball team, pictured above, journeyed to Bell-Hurst High School to try for the district 5-AAA championship. There they battled to a tough second place.

One of the players, senior Linda Morris, was chosen to be on the all-district volleyball team. She is one of the reasons for R.H.S.'s high standing at the tournament.

The Extradites, Stan Ewing, Mark Ellsberry, Wayne Ocnashek and Guy Echols, skip band for a jam session.

THIRTY-NINE AWARDED FIRST DIVISIONS

To improve their playing ability, many members of the Golden Eagle Band enter Interscholastic League Solo and Ensemble Contest at Denton. These students master a solo with hopes of receiving a first division. If a member plays a first class solo and is awarded a first division, he is given a jacket by the Band Parents Club and a medal. In addition to solos, students play in ensembles to learn to play together effectively, and to listen to the other members of the group.

After the I.L. contest, members play the same solo or ensemble at S.M.U. at the Dallas Festival Contest. The same rules apply there as in Denton. A medal is given to a member if he plays a first division on a first class solo. These contests give the band members the experience of playing before a judge and perfecting a solo.

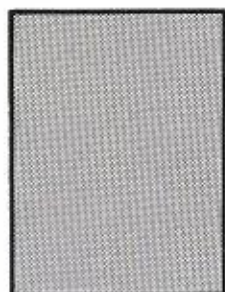

If the mallets ever get untangled, John Schoonbeck, Bobby Floyd and Susan Fickertt will play their ensemble.

Barbara Palmer,
Jack Carrington
and Carla Gates
rehearse their ensemble for contest.

IN I. L. SOLO, ENSEMBLE CONTESTS

Billy House, Kenneth Wincorn, Bobby Floyd and Judith Roberts listen to the criticism of their playing.

Talented Claudette Stephens, Carla Gates, Beverly Prewitt, Beverly Waggoner and Mary Johnson end another perfect routine.

After tryouts, the Golden Eagle Majorettes attended Kilgore Majorette School to learn new routines. In August, they led the Golden Eagle Band in the Fair Parade. Next on the agenda was football season, when these girls displayed their many talents. To each show, they added their charm and personality. After football season, the girls entered Twirling Contest at T.C.U. Here the contestants make up a twirling routine which is judged according to variety, difficulty, appearance, speed and originality. During concert season, the majorettes join their talents with the band. These exceptional girls have indeed been one of the rememberable highlights of the year.

PREPARATION FOR CONTESTS IMPROVES SKILL

Because the band hall is too noisy, Hal Williams, Arthur Boyer, Martin Lumpkin and Carol Burke resort to playing on the front steps.

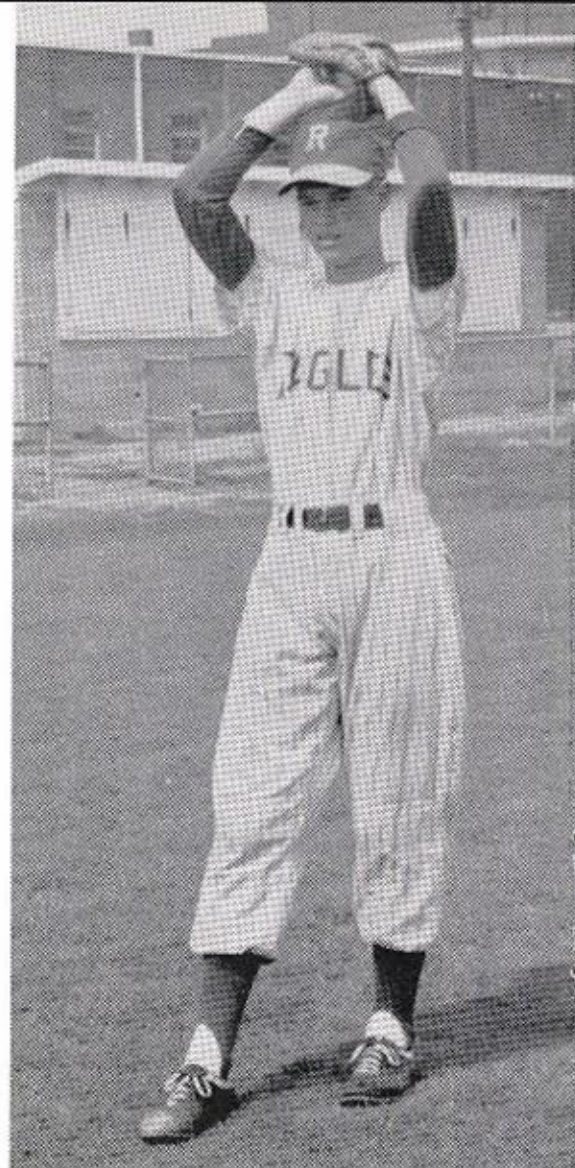

Bobby Rice, Ben Judd, and Larry Carson discuss the rudiments of their ensemble.

Richardson's 1961 Golden Trackers proved themselves worthy of class 5-AAA competition as they captured the district championship and several pre-district meets. Coach Harris led his team to new school records and a high standing that will remain in the eyes of all opponents.

Don Walley, John Buchanan, Bill Mullenweg and Ben Love have been this year's standouts. Representing the Eagles at the state meet was Don Walley in the 440 yard run. Although Don placed fifth with a 50.1 lap, he has captured first in many other meets during the season. Bill Mullenweg now holds the school record in the broad jump with a splendid leap of 21' 9 $\frac{1}{4}$ ". He also ran a leg in the 440 yard relay. In the hurdles, Ben Love proved himself beyond a doubt with a 20.1 seconds in the low hurdles and 15.3 seconds in the highs. John Buchanan kept the Eagles rolling with a swift 10.1 hundred yard dash and a 22 flat 220 yard dash. These four qualified for the Regional Meet at S.M.U., but only Walley qualified to go on to the state meet.

DISTRICT 5-AAA

Coach Harris concentrates on the meet, while managers Robbie Andres, Chuck Philips, Bob Montgomery, Bobbie Andres, and David Waters, seem to be sure of another victory.

440 MAN REACHES STATE

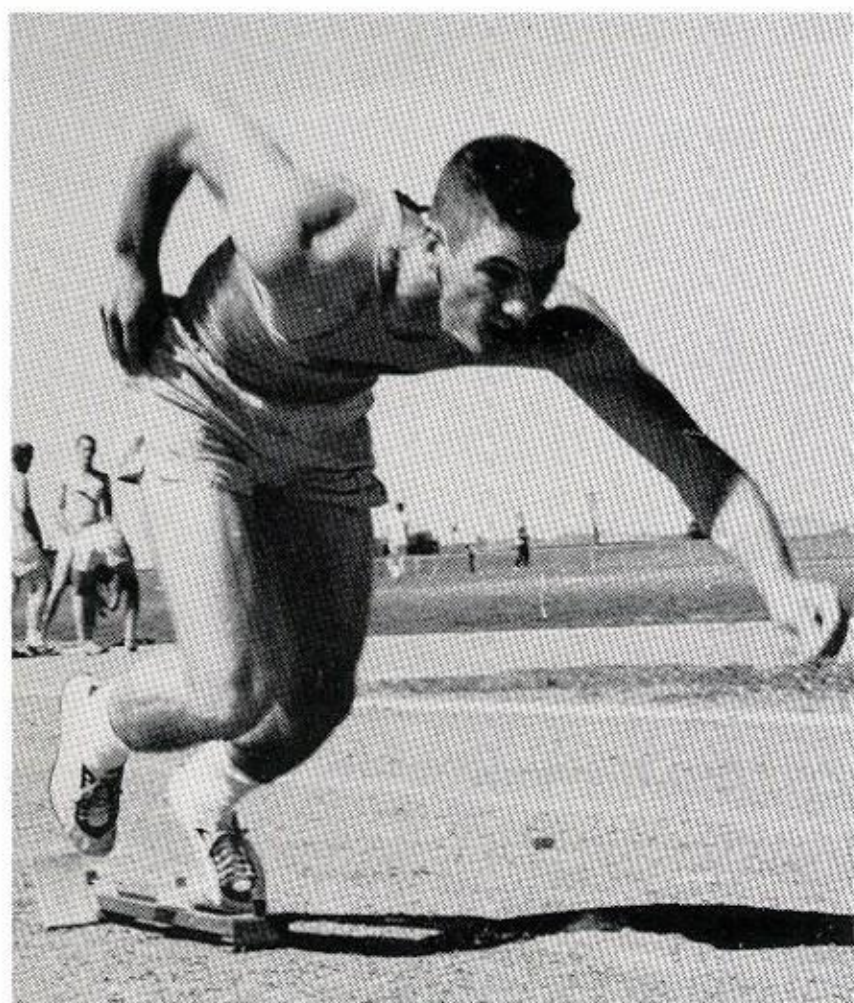

The mile relay team of Tronrud, Mullenweg, Walley, and Dill set a new record of 3:27.6.

Don Walley was the only state qualifier in the first year of 5-AAA where he ran a 50.1, 440 yard run, his best of the year.

CHEM-PHY LAUNCHES ROCKET AT

At 3:00 A.M. on May 27, the Chem-Phy Club assembled at Ken Mitchell's house for last-minute instructions, and then left for Fort Sill, Oklahoma, the future firing ground for their rocket. They were met at the base by a caravan of army trucks which were to take them to the firing site. Hours of checking and testing were followed by more hours of mixing the fuel and arming the rocket.

All safety precautions were taken, and safety equipment was provided by the Army. Then, "all unprotected personnel" retired to the concrete blockhouses to watch the last preparations.

Soon the countdown began to crackle over the PA system as 23 young rocketeers waited anxiously.

Herb Hoff was chosen for the ticklish job of carrying the armed rocket from the mixers to the launching site.

Tommy Ewbank, Ken Mitchell, Herb Hoff and Bob Floyd donned asbestos suits during the mixing of the fuel and arming of the rocket in machines made especially for that purpose.

FORT SILL

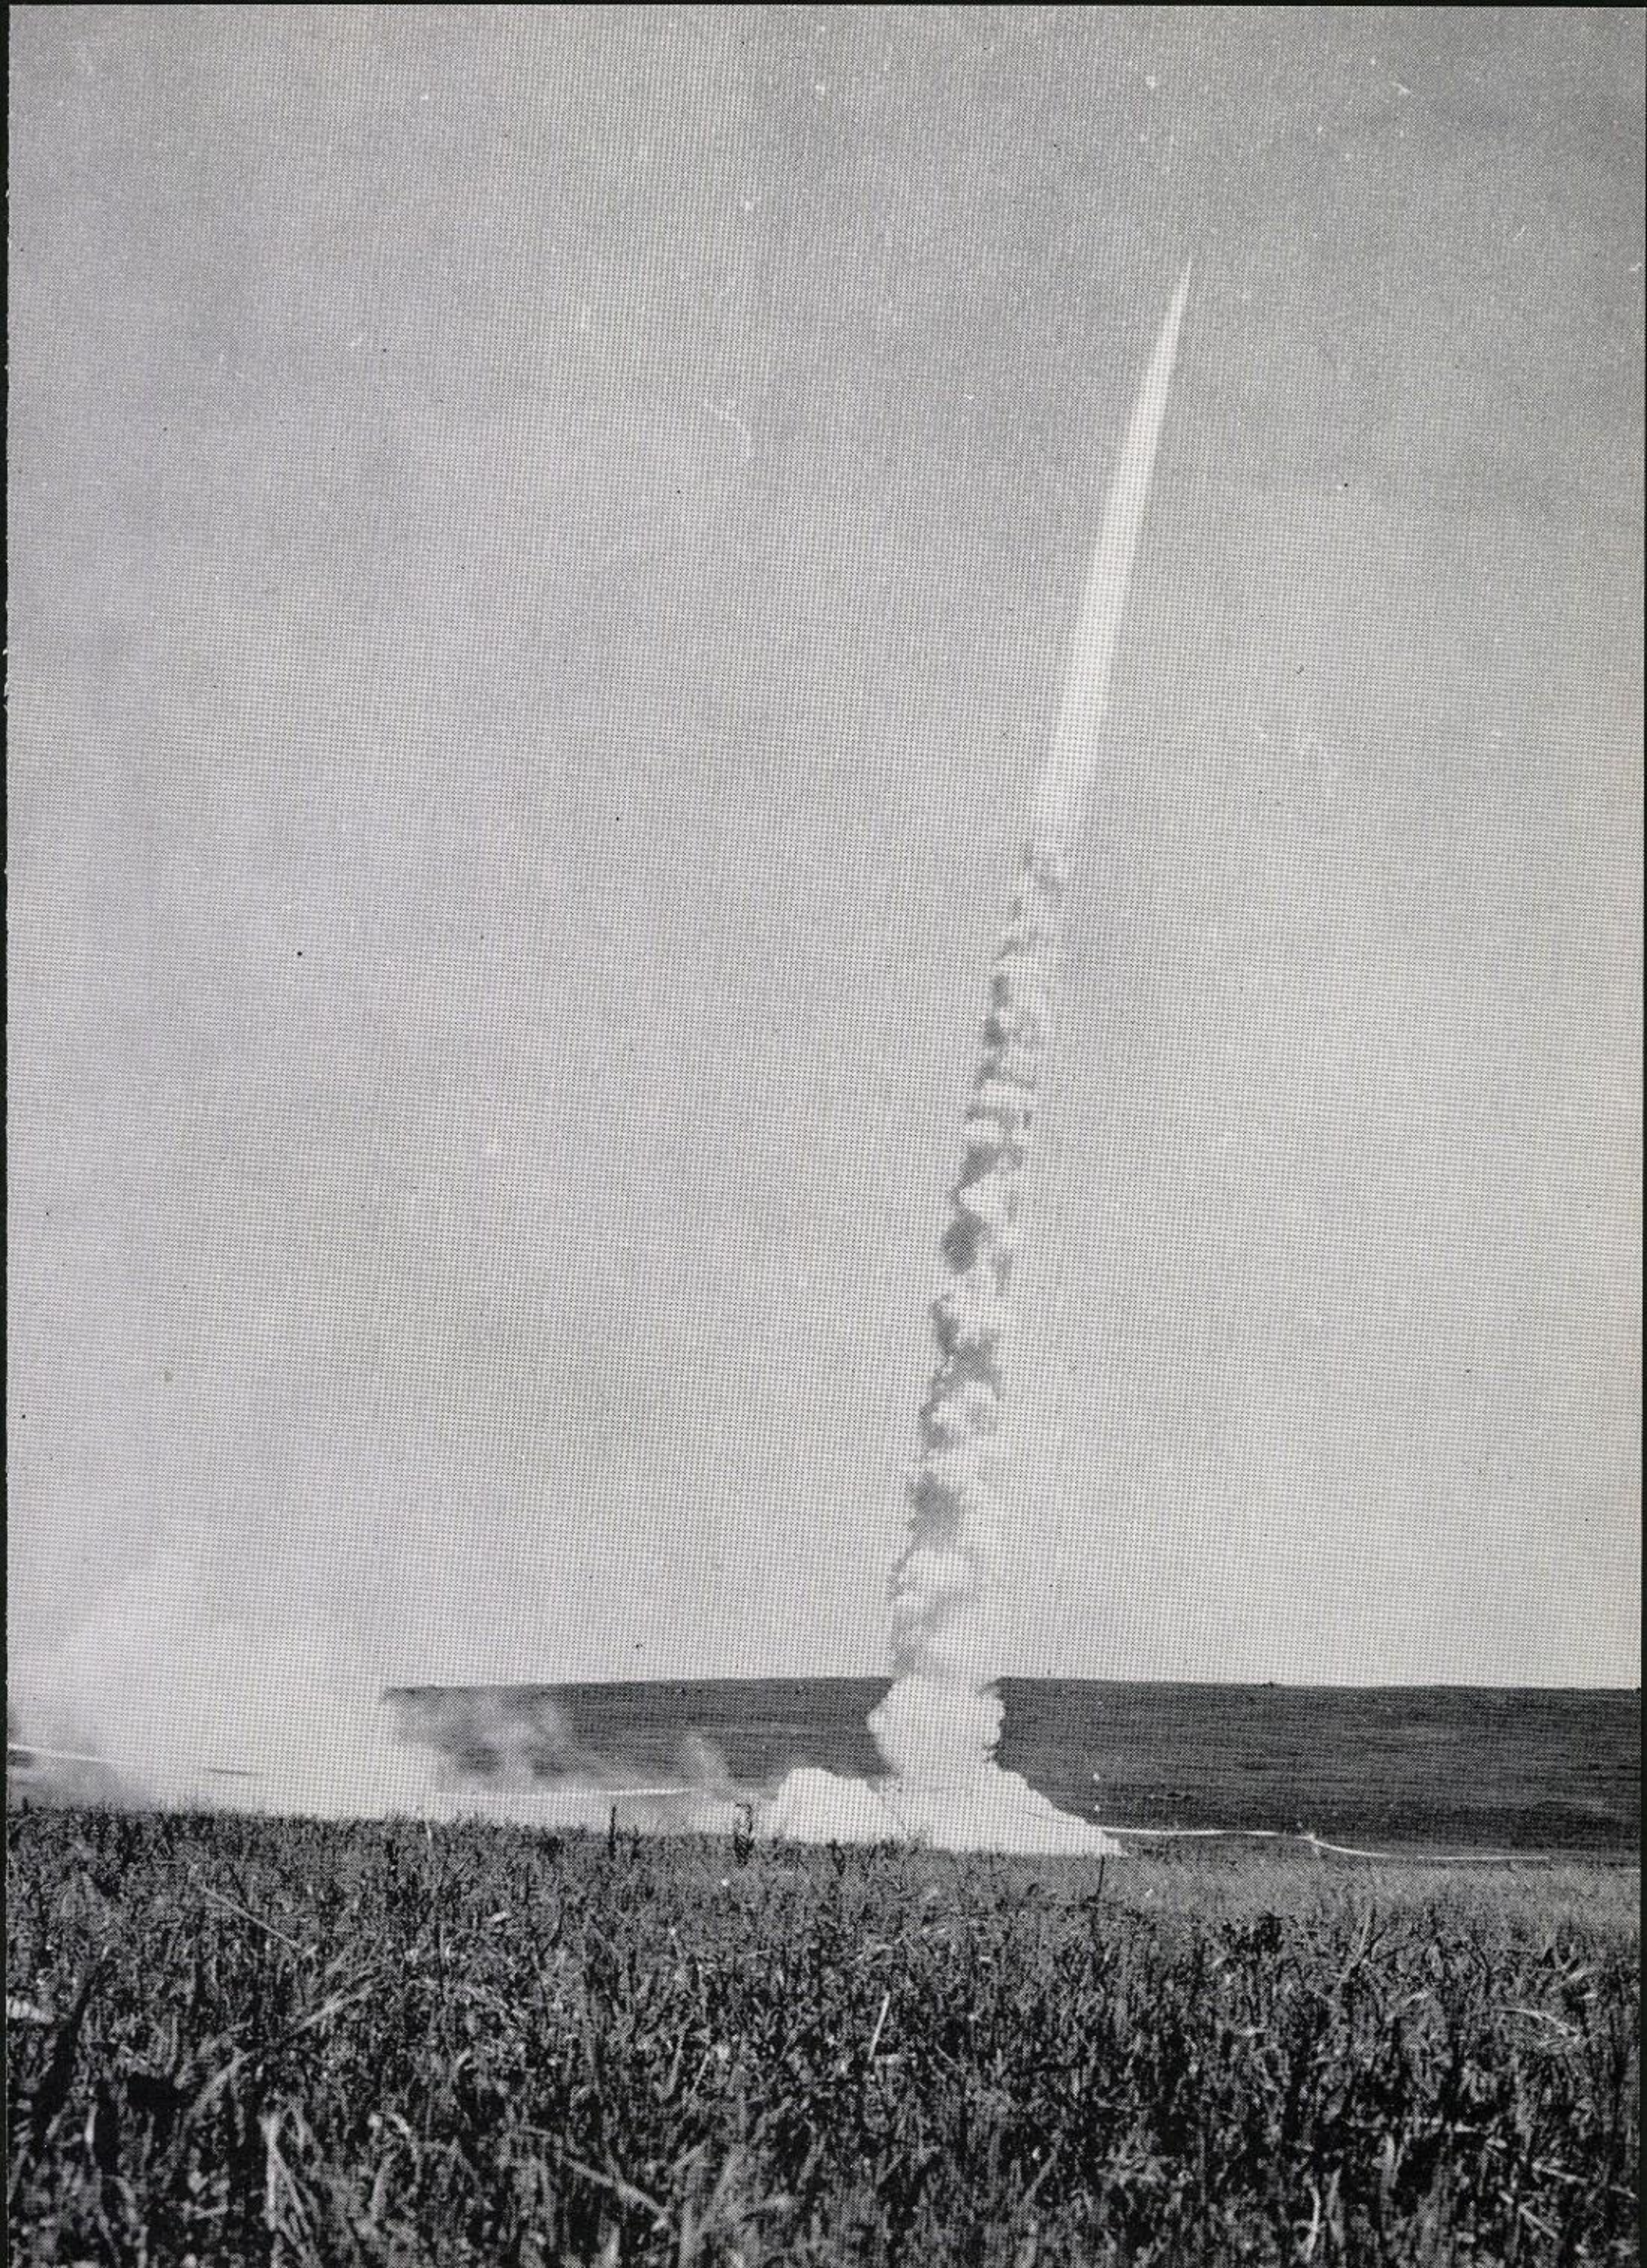

THEN . . . SUCCESS!

Smoke and flames spewed from the base of the rocket as club president Bob Floyd pressed the switch. There was a moment of hesitation as it caught on the launcher, but then it was gone, accompanied by the cheers of the club members deep from within the block-houses.

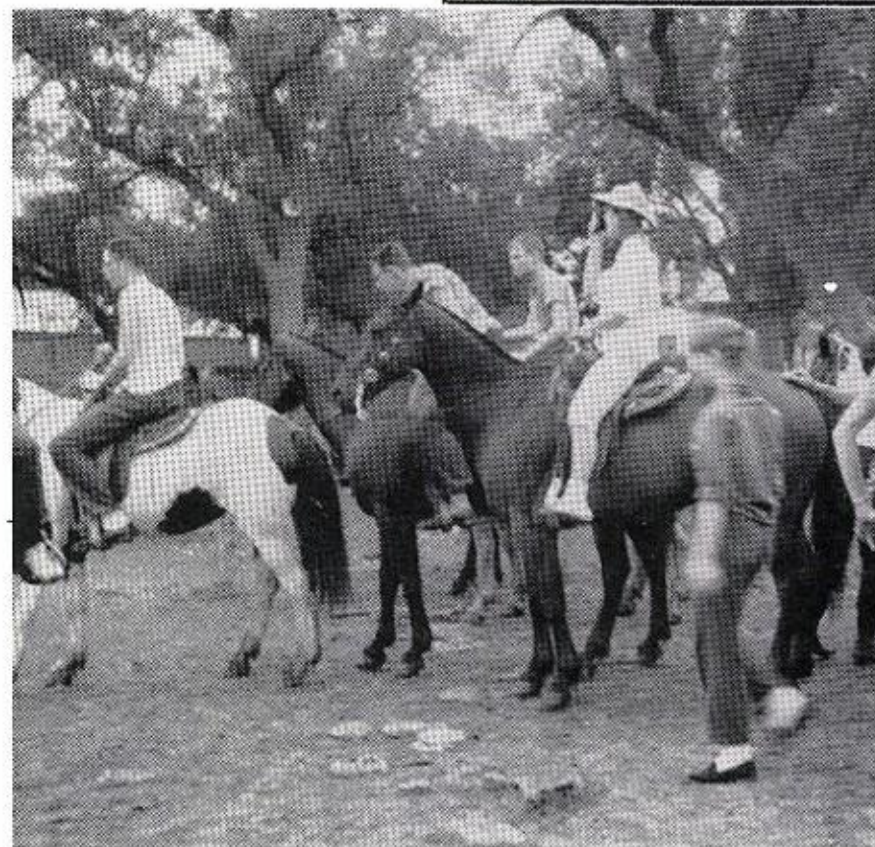

The rocket is placed on the launcher and the ignition system connected.

"Friends" help Vicki Johnson into the pool as Pam Crane testifies that the water's fine.

The Flying L Dude Ranch became the temporary home of some 150 seniors as the annual senior trip was stretched from one day to three. April 28-30 will long be remembered for the wonderful time had by all, including the wooly worms!

As others head for the open range, Jan Smelker provides a not too favorable endorsement.

STAND ON THE THRESHOLD . . .”

With the Alma Mater still ringing in their ears, the graduates of '61 walked slowly off the football field, each realizing that something wonderful had come to an end and that something, perhaps even more wonderful, was to begin. Their motto—"Fortune favors the bold"—was an apt one—for they broke more traditions and established more new ones than any other graduating class at RHS. Their record was one to be proud of, and if each individual continues to display the same determination that was shown by the class as a whole, he will surely succeed.

Recipient of one of the highest and most treasured awards, the $900 Civitan Scholarship, was Judy Odom.

ALL NIGHT PARTY

Parents of the class of '61 sponsored and chaperoned an all-night party at Spring Valley Country Club after the commencement exercises on May 29 from 11 p.m. to 6 a.m. Class members invited guests and junior ushers and dates were included, also.

Activities consisted of dancing, swimming, games and tennis with breakfast at 5 a.m.

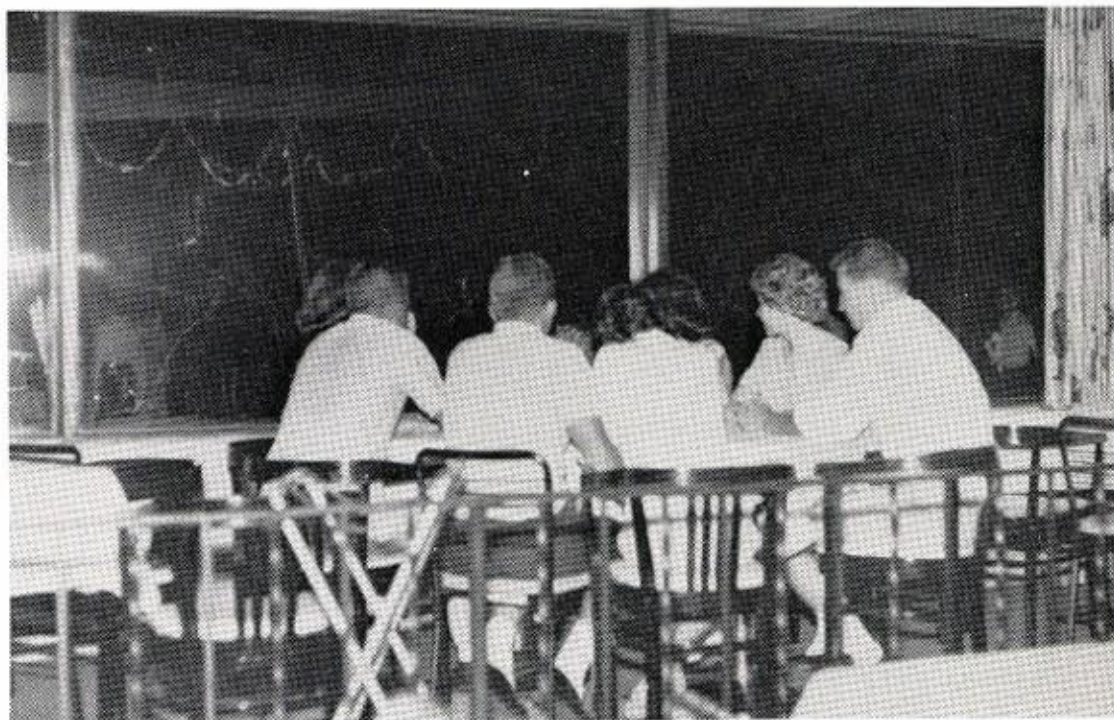

It seems that not everyone went swimming.

Some preferred quiet games for two, such as Wayne Ocanaschek and his date.

Evidently something interesting is going on outside the window. This bunch of seniors didn't even look around for the photographer.

Tom Hartin is acting as coach for Judy Perryman.

Eating and talking went on all night long. Seniors are always hungry.

OF A GROWING WORLD . . .

Students at Richardson take advantage of many educational opportunities. Above, Mr. Dumas explains the properties of light to some of his physics pupils. At right, the Student Council Executive committee works on student telephone directories.

A WORLD WE WILL SOME DAY SHAPE

"All who have meditated on the art of governing mankind have been convinced that the fate of empires depends upon the education of youth."

—ARISTOTLE

Aristotle was right. Within the period of a few years, we, the young people of today, will become the adult generation of tomorrow. We will be forced to accept new responsibilities; we shall have to surmount obstacles never encountered by those before us. There will be new horizons to cross and greater barriers to conquer. Problems will become more complex, yet opportunities will be greater.

We owe it to ourselves and to those who will share our duties to be prepared for our role in the world. We must be educated—educated spiritually as well as in mathematics and science; educated in cooperative living as well as in the story of the past. In a short time you and I will be responsible for the shaping of our world. Will we be capable of fulfilling this task? It all depends upon our life here—at Richardson High School—our training ground for the future.

TO FIT OUR NEEDS

Veit Heidbrink, our first foreign exchange student, and Ken Mitchell, whose family has "adopted" Veit for the year, see to it that the flag is properly cared for.

Richard - You are a fine friend I like a lot. You are a smart boy and will go far in life if you stay as you are
Craig Persons

Here at Richardson, all are deeply concerned with our moral, ethical and spiritual growth. This is very important, because in order to insure the continuation of our democracy and our way of life, we must all be united in one accord. Recognition and practice of the brotherhood of all men will be a great stride toward true peace and understanding, because it will preserve and strengthen the ideals upon which our country was founded.

Richard - I wish you all the happiness and success
you deserve - thank you for your patience -
Norman Young

Aside from college preparatory courses, Richardson also offers such subjects as homemaking and woodworking to develop physical skills and to prepare students for work in the home and in industry.

Below, Mr. McClearin and his shop students are busy preparing for the holiday season as they put the finishing touches on Christmas lawn decorations. At right, the homemaking girls choose the material with which they will make their first dress under the careful observation of Mrs. McKeown.

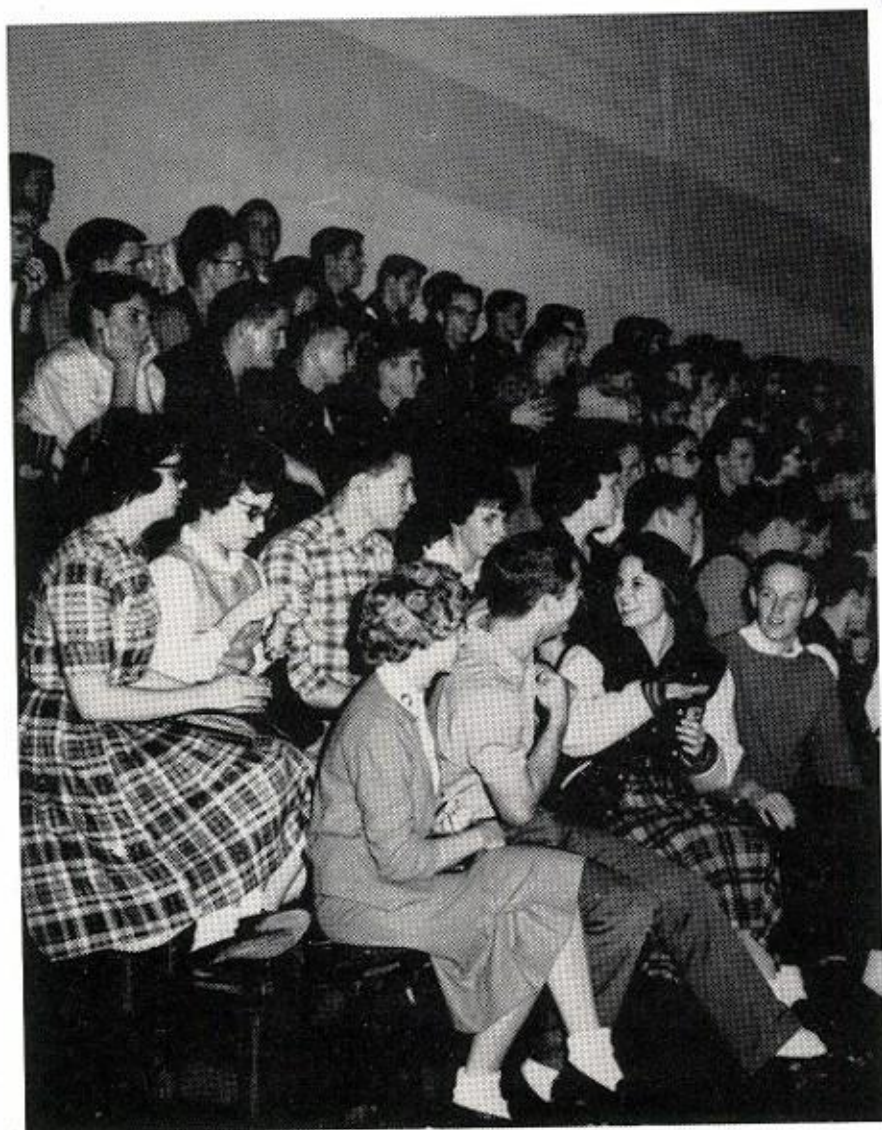

A CHALLENGE WHICH WE MUST

Richardsonites recognize completely the importance of fundamental skills. United States and world citizens must be able to compute, to read, to write, to listen, and to converse with one another effectively. Our society assumes literacy; in today's world communication of ideas is essential. We realize now that soon perhaps our very survival will depend upon the development of highly trained citizens. This advance training rests squarely upon the basic skills and knowledge obtained in high school.

BE PREPARED TO MEET . . .

Richard -
Student teaching days at RHS I have been fun. It was a pleasure having you in class. Keep up the good work. Best of luck in the future!
Kathie Spielman

What is a school? It is a building, a faculty, a student body. More than that, however, it is the center of our lives for a number of years. We enter as wide-eyed innocents and emerge as young adults.

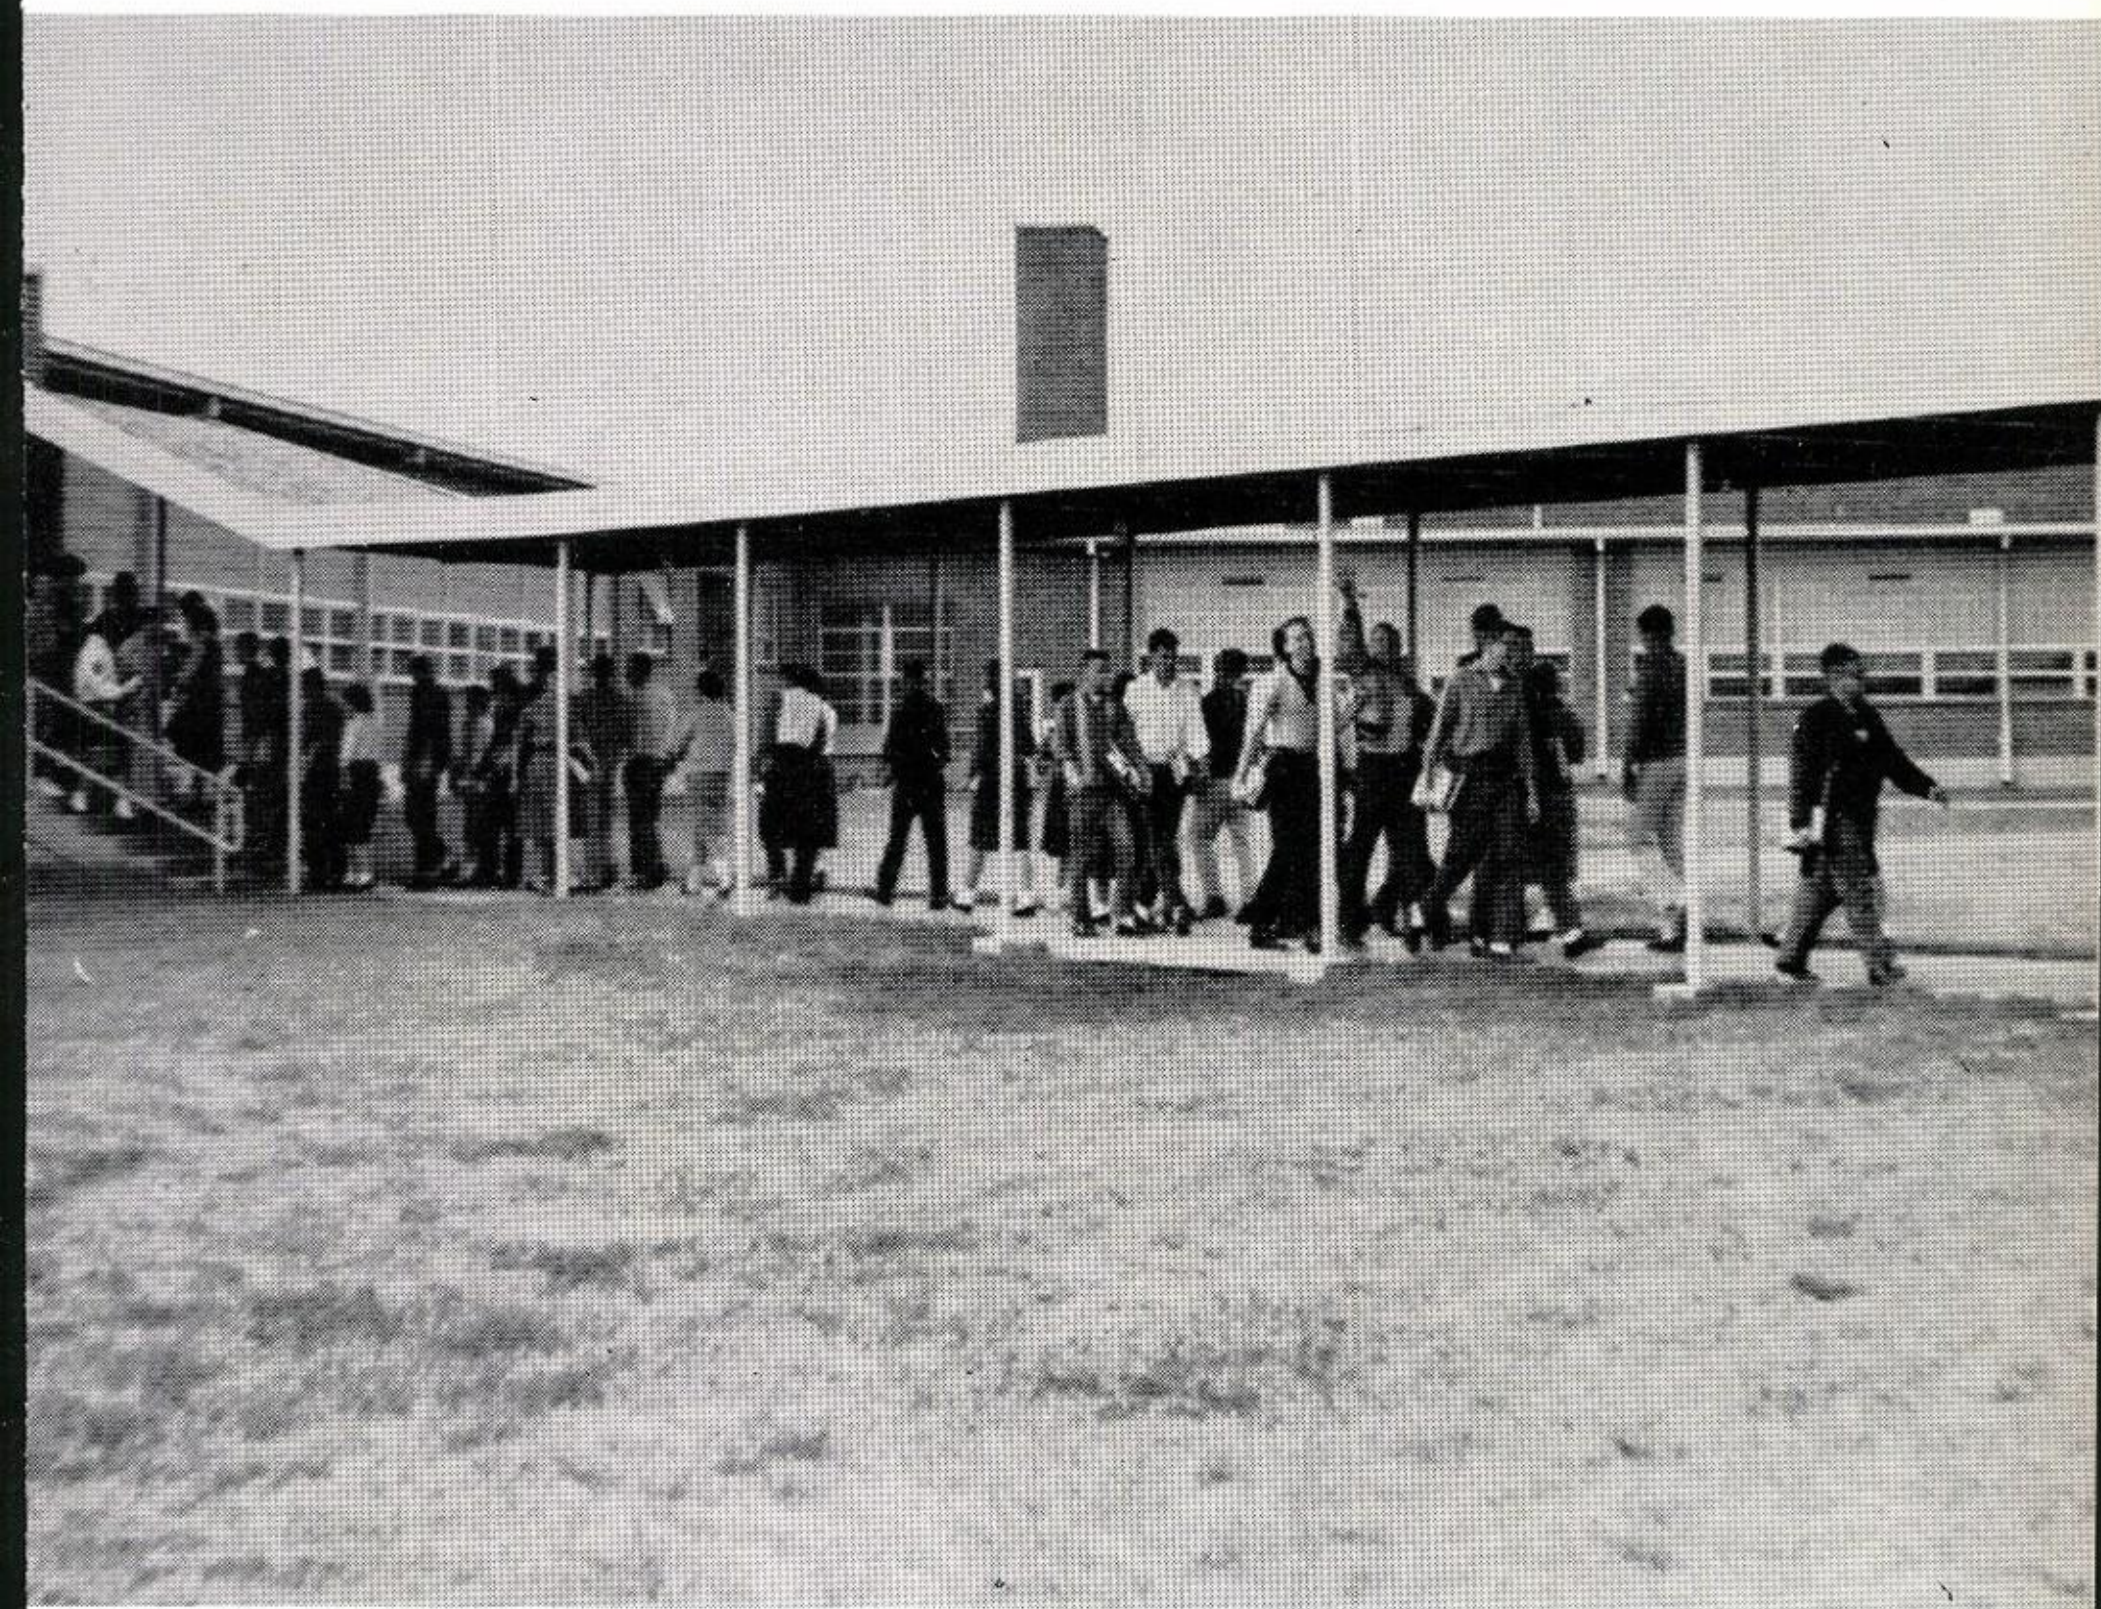

If we actively participate in a school's activities, we give it our energies and talents; it, in turn, contributes a great deal to our lives. During these years our concepts grow as the school grows; our lives change even as the world around us changes. We, in fact, become a part of the school, and it, a part of us.

What is a school? It is a building, a faculty, a student body—a delineation of our formative years. And so to this, our school, which has most adequately met the challenges that progress and growth produce, we dedicate the 1961 Eagle.

He clasps the crag with crooked hands,

And, like a thunderbolt, he falls.

—TENNYSON

This is the eagle; the symbol of our school and the essence of our school spirit. Under the auspices of our eagle, we have made gains unprecedented in years past. We have made 1961 a worthwhile, active and memorable year.

Here, on the following pages, is compiled a record of the major events, the highlights of 1961, which have made this year a successful and fruitful one.

Eagle supporters Susan Bush, Pam Morgan, and Tommie Spencer clean up in order to start another spirit sign.

The walls in Mrs. Barnett's American History room show that the students feel strongly about the presidential election.

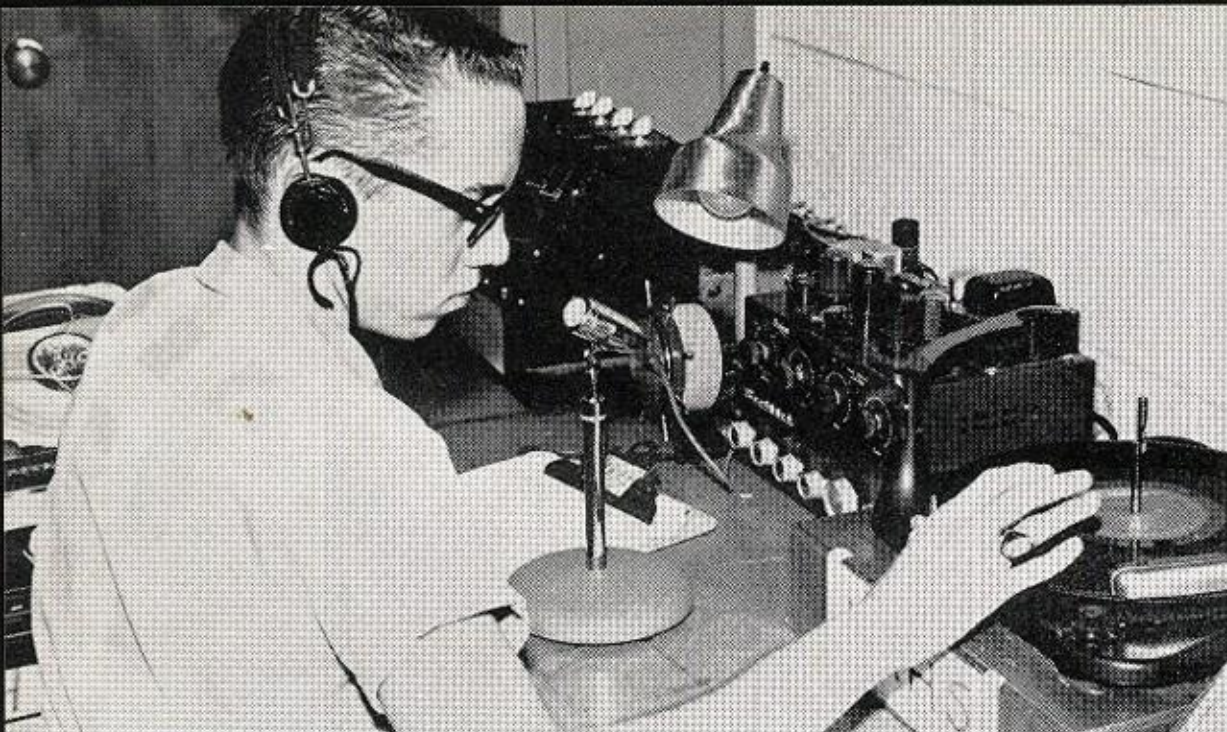

SCHOOL OPENS DOORS TO FALL ACTIVITIES

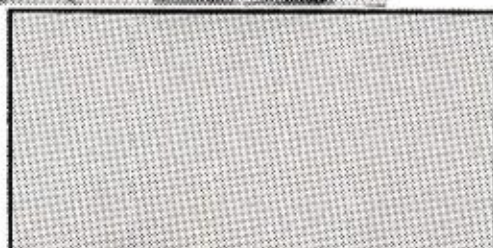

The K.R.H.S. Mobile Unit silently awaits the beginning of the parade which it will lead.

First came fall, most friendly and exciting of seasons. It was chucked full of renewed friendships, football, and fun. There were proms, parades, and parties; and all through it, there was an abundance of glowing, growing Eagle spirit.

Mike Jordan makes the announcements over K-RHS, the voice of the swinging Eagle.

EAGLELITES WORK

Eaglelites pause after a pep rally to see the huge golden eagle which was presented and made by a group of seniors.

Richardson students listen to a combo playing at the Canteen following a football game.

Veit Heidbrink displays the trophy he won for being the fiftieth student to say "Beat the Broncos" to Mystery Eagle Bob Wright.

Spirit was promoted this year through color days, pep rallies, parades, and announcements over K-RHS. Purple, gold, and white was seen everywhere on color day. The cheerleaders planned the pep rallies where an occasional skit by the Booster Club was seen. This year the P.A. system has been converted into station K-RHS. With a regular staff supervising, members of the speech classes gave the latest announcements.

After every home football game, the Richardson Canteen sponsored a dance. Here Eaglelites talked over the high points of the game, listened to a visiting combo, or danced. All these activities livened up the school year and helped to imbue spirit into Richardson students and faculty.

TO PRODUCE SPIRIT

The Eagle tri-captains, John Buchanan, Bill Mullenweg, and Ronnie Covington, speak to the students at a pep rally.

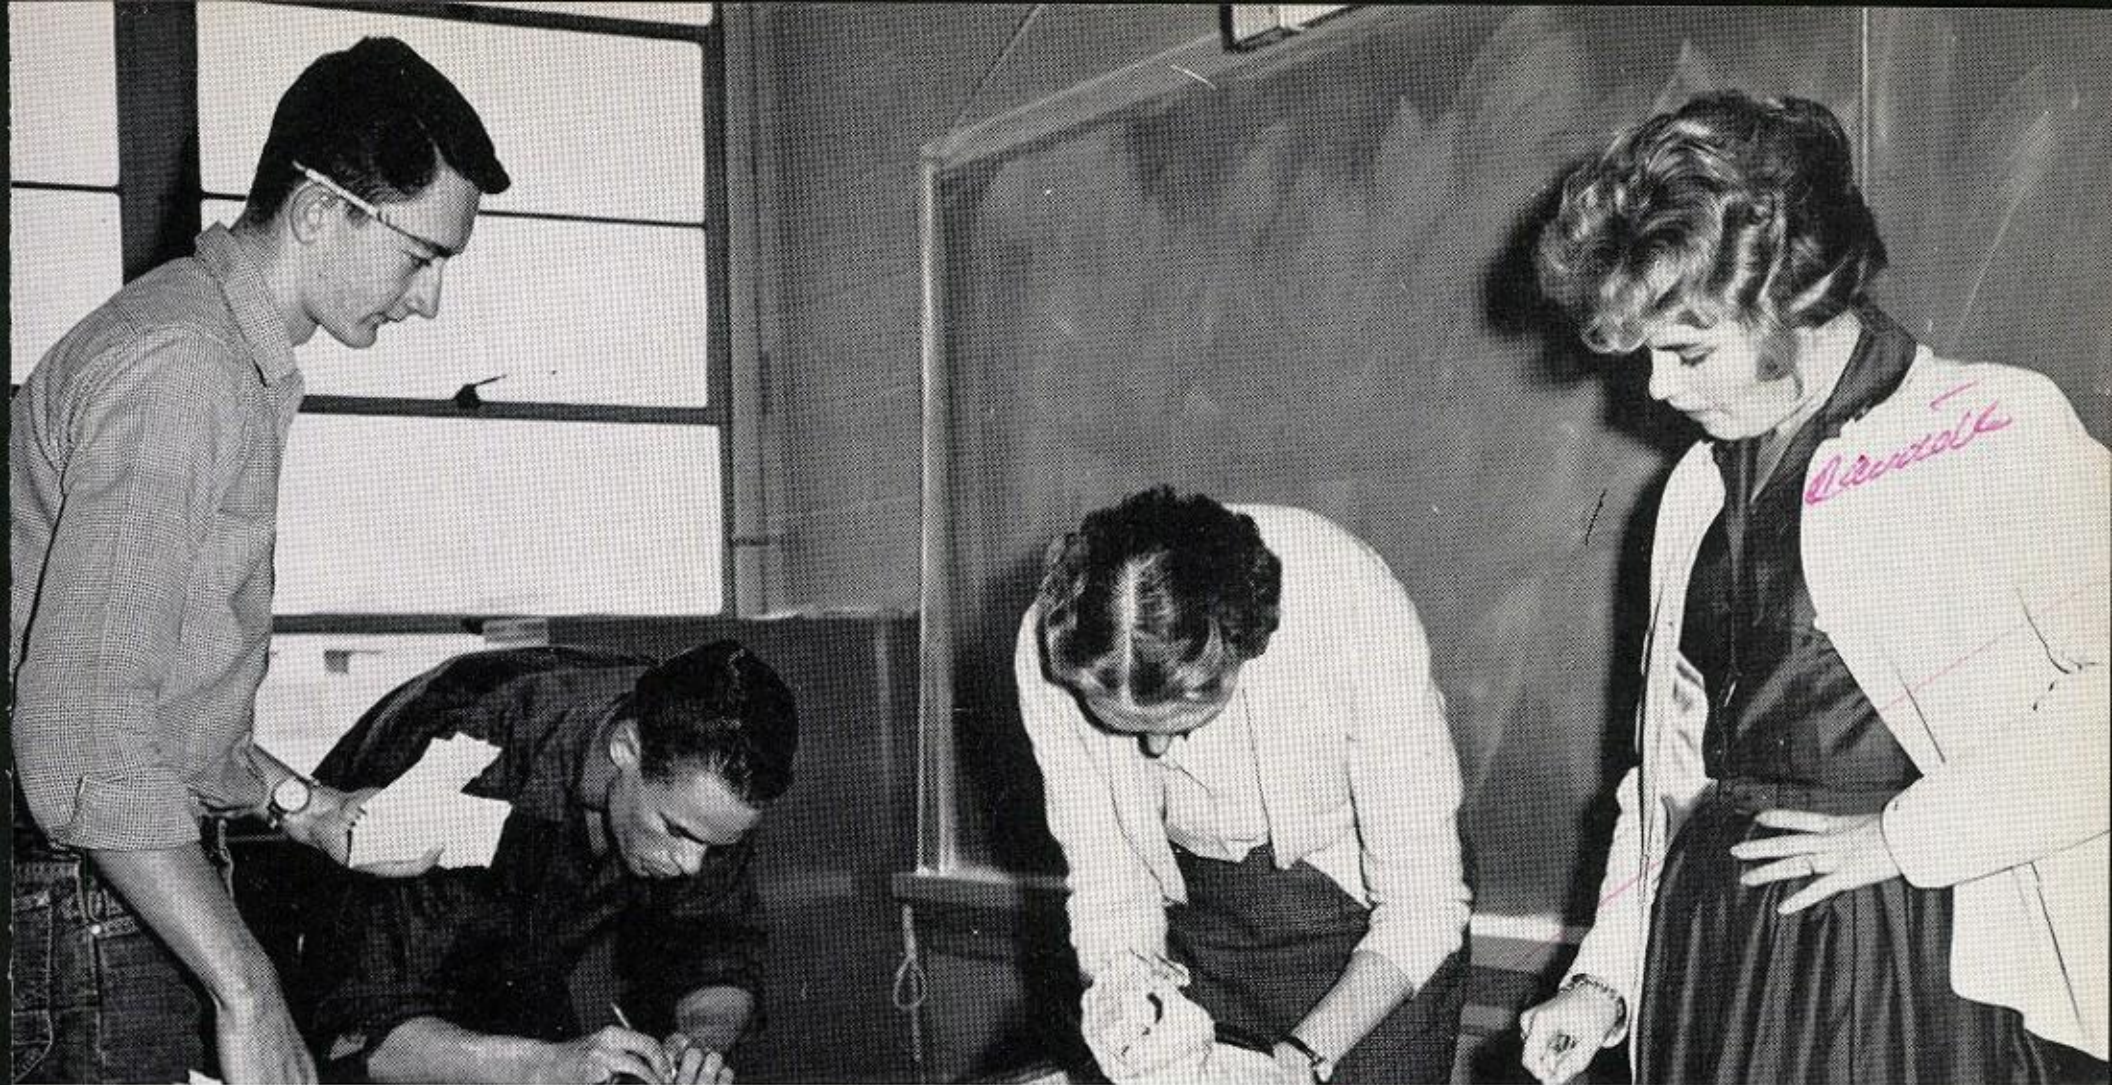

Students make the most of KEEP THE SLOP ON TOP week, a project of the PAL club to clean up the lunchroom.

CLUB ACTIVITIES ARE THE NUCLEI OF STUDENTS' LIVES

Future teacher, Linda Abbott, practices new techniques of teaching at grade schools in order to get experience for her future profession.

Raymon Wilks, Gene Johnsey, Mrs. Mann and Claudette Stephens count the votes of the Student Council Elections.

Beaux Art members Susan Smith, Kay Epperson, and Sue Parker add to the Eaglites' Christmas Spirit.

Each school day a club meets. Numerous students are involved in them. Clubs are the nuclei of student's lives. Of the many clubs, the Student Council is the most important. It is the voice of the students to the faculty. Organizations like the Pal Club and the Key Club perform services like making a student fund for students who need money for school activities. The Future Teachers and Future Nurses' Clubs prepare girls for their profession. Clubs like the Booster Club and Eaglettes build up school spirit among the students. Beaux Arts increases the holiday spirit by painting scenes on the trophy case. Clubs fill an Eaglites' life with projects both enjoyable and serviceable.

The spirit parade will soon begin led by the senior boys.

The crowd watches with interest as Jane Amend, Susan Houchins, Shirley Baccus, Teddy Dupuy, and Joyce McClearin demonstrate how to play baseball during an assembly sponsored by Coach McClearin to arouse interest in spring sports.

ASSEMBLIES OFFER WIDE VARIETY

Steve Stringer, Ron Dill, and Stuart Waggoner imitate the Eaglettes' "high kick" during a talent assembly.

The Dixie Cups, composed of Bill Gruben, Billy House, Dickie Sherrill, Glen Thompson, and Bobbie Floyd, perform their best during a talent assembly.

Assembly day at RHS includes quite an array of talent. Some students are musically inclined such as the Dixie Cups; others are natural mimickers, such as Steve Stringer, Ron Dill, and Stuart Waggoner.

Some students have a natural ability in just acting silly, such as the "girl's indoor baseball team."

Sometimes assembly day brings visitors to RHS. Miss Helen Poe related her experiences behind the Iron Curtain to the entire student body for the second year in succession.

OF TALENT AND GUEST SPEAKERS

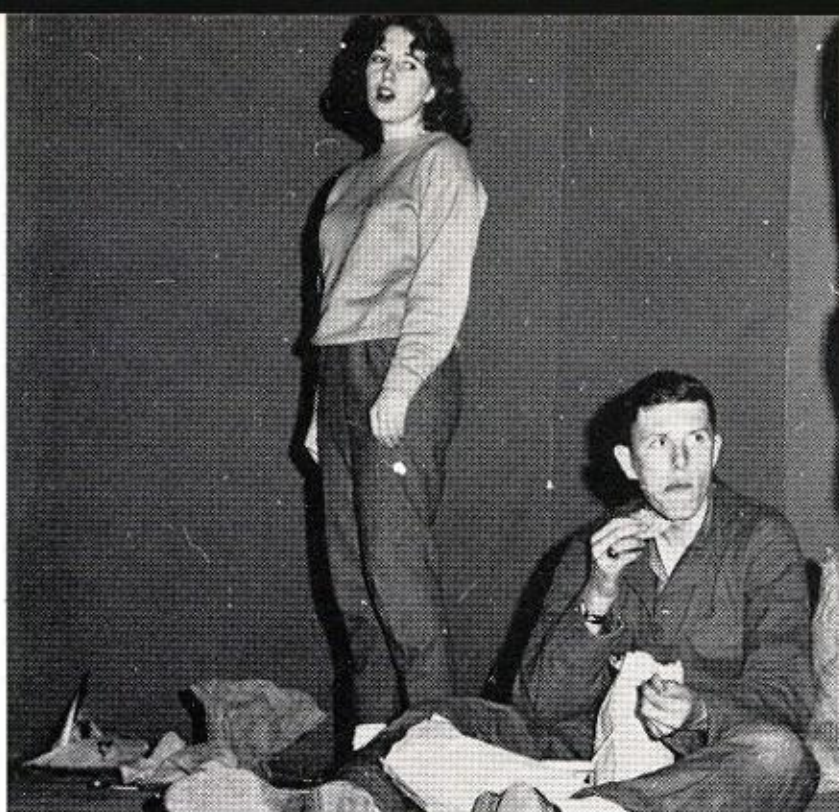

Miss Helen Poe encourages students to help fight Communism by furthering their education.

"Fairy May has done it again," shrieks Mrs. Savage.

Five minutes before curtain time, and the cast makes last-minute preparations.

"Do you think we'll ever finish in time, Mike?" says Kay Epperson. However, Mike Anderson doesn't seem to be too concerned.

"Everyone off with his clothes!" shrieks Jude, as Jo asks, "Even my glasses?"

PLAYHOUSE PRESENTS "CURIOUS SAVAGE"

Perhaps one of the most enjoyable events to take place this year was Playhouse RHS's presentation of "The Curious Savage" by John Patrick.

The play centers around the life of Mrs. Savage, portrayed by Judy Odom, who is an elderly widow fallen heir to $10,000,000 in negotiable bonds. The conniving relatives played by Roger Rice, Kay Epperson, and Mike Gibson, place her in a mental institution in an effort to get the bonds. A hilarious series of events takes place within the institution as Mrs. Savage meets the other inmates, Joe Ellen Altman, Harry Keen and Chuck Montgomery. Finally, threatened with a truth drug by Dr. Bob Huston and Nurse Janie Amend, she discloses the whereabouts of the bonds, which are hidden in the head of her Teddy bear—affectionately named Ebat. The play comes to a conclusion as Mrs. Savage leaves the institution and faces the challenges of reality.

Bob Huston doesn't realize it, but his 7 years of bad luck will soon be off to a good start.

FALL PRANCES OUT;

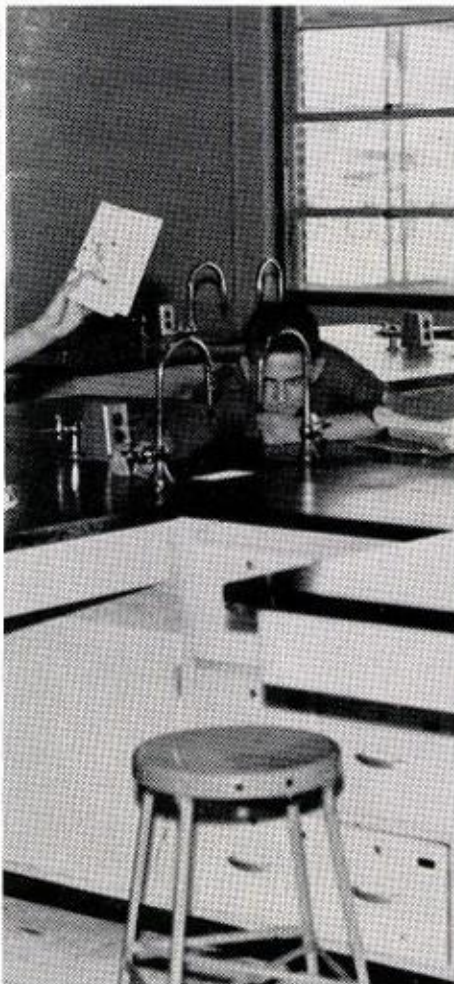

The annual staff enjoys a rest from the routine in the first snow.

Then came winter and snow. The football helmets were put aside in favor of tennis shoes and a basketball. Along with them came more memorable Eaglette performances. Then came the Christmas Holidays, followed by a new year in which senior activities loomed large on the horizon.

WINTER BOPS IN

With winter comes increased athletic activities supervised by Abe Spangler.

KEY CLUB HONORS SWEETHEART

Everyone looks on anxiously as the drawing for the door prize begins.

Gerri Tate, Key Club Sweetheart, with her escort, Terry Oddson, President of the Key Club, enjoys the prom given in her honor.

WITH VALENTINE PROM

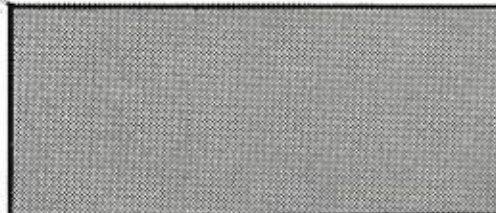

The dance floor was a maze of multicolored hues. The room buzzed with excitement. It was February 11, 1961, and the scene was the Sundown Room of the Marriott Motor Hotel where the annual Key Club Valentine Prom was being held. Key Club Sweetheart Gerri Tate reigned at the semi-formal prom, as three hundred guests danced to the music of an eight-piece band. Five hundred red and white, artificial carnations lended atmosphere to the contemporary western Sundown Room. Refreshments, consisting of fruit punch and cookies, were served throughout the evening.

Sweetheart Gerri Tate smiles proudly as the prom whirls on.

"Who spiked the punch?" moans Stan Ewing, as Penny Huemme looks innocently away.

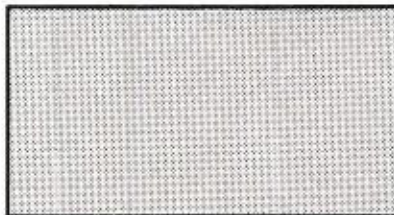

The dance floor is crowded as everyone dances to the melodious tune of "My Funny Valentine."

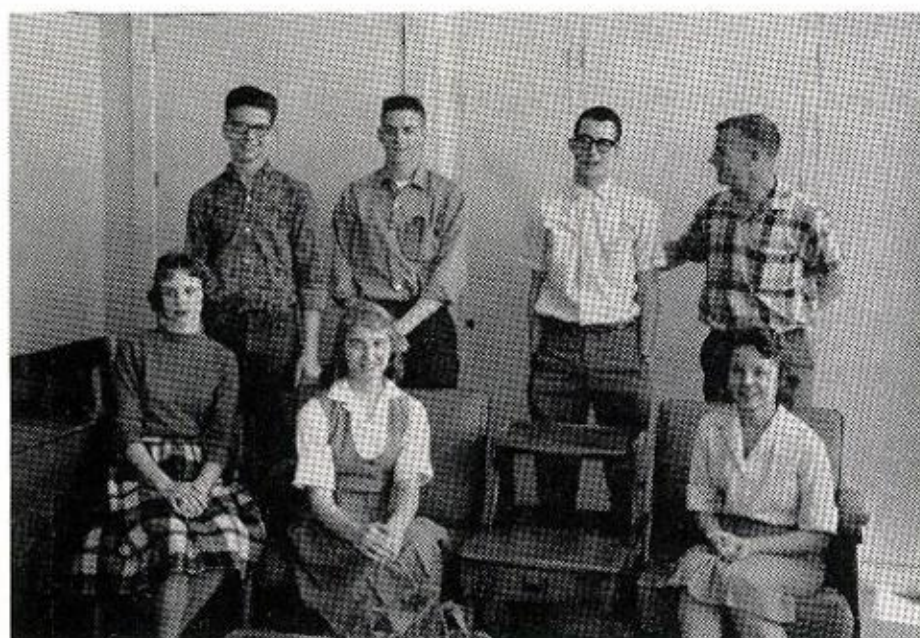

Susan Bush was honored with the Daughters of the American Revolution Award. Susan was nominated, along with other senior girls, by the members of her class. The teachers did the final voting from the girls nominated. Susan received this honor because of her outstanding citizenship while at R.H.S.

RICHARDSON STUDENTS

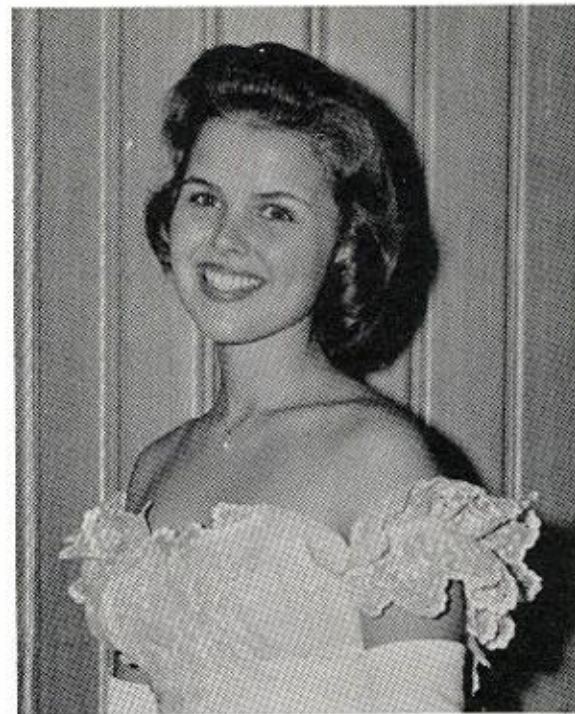

The students receiving letters of commendation were as follows: Nancy Beinke, Debbie Deering, and Jeanne Swahn; SECOND ROW: Bill Buxton, Herb DeBerg, Jeff Scott, and Bill Mullenweg.

Richardson was honored this year by having seven students receive letters of commendation from the National Merit Scholarship Test. These tests were taken in the spring of their junior year and the results were known in the fall of their senior year. These letters will be an aid for admission to the college of their choice.

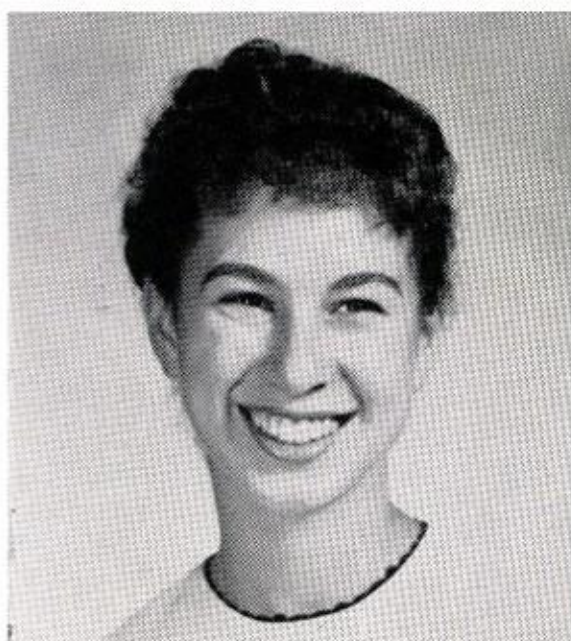

Because of her poise, general good looks, and talent, Miss Sarah Cloud was chosen as Richardson's Junior Miss by a special committee of the Student Council. Every year a senior girl will be given this honor to serve as Richardson's representative to the State Junior Miss Contest. In competition with seventeen other Texas schools, Sarah placed second runner-up. She pleased everyone present in Corpus Christi for the contest with her friendly smile and talent on the piano. Sarah is an excellent representative of the perfect Junior Miss.

Under the supervision of the Richardson chapter of DeMolay, the Student Council chose the outstanding students for the first three six weeks of the year. The students chosen from the "A" honor roll for that six weeks on the basis of school activities were Amy Geppert, first six weeks; Eddie Russell, second six weeks; and Terry Oddson, third six weeks. These three are truly outstanding students of Richardson High School.

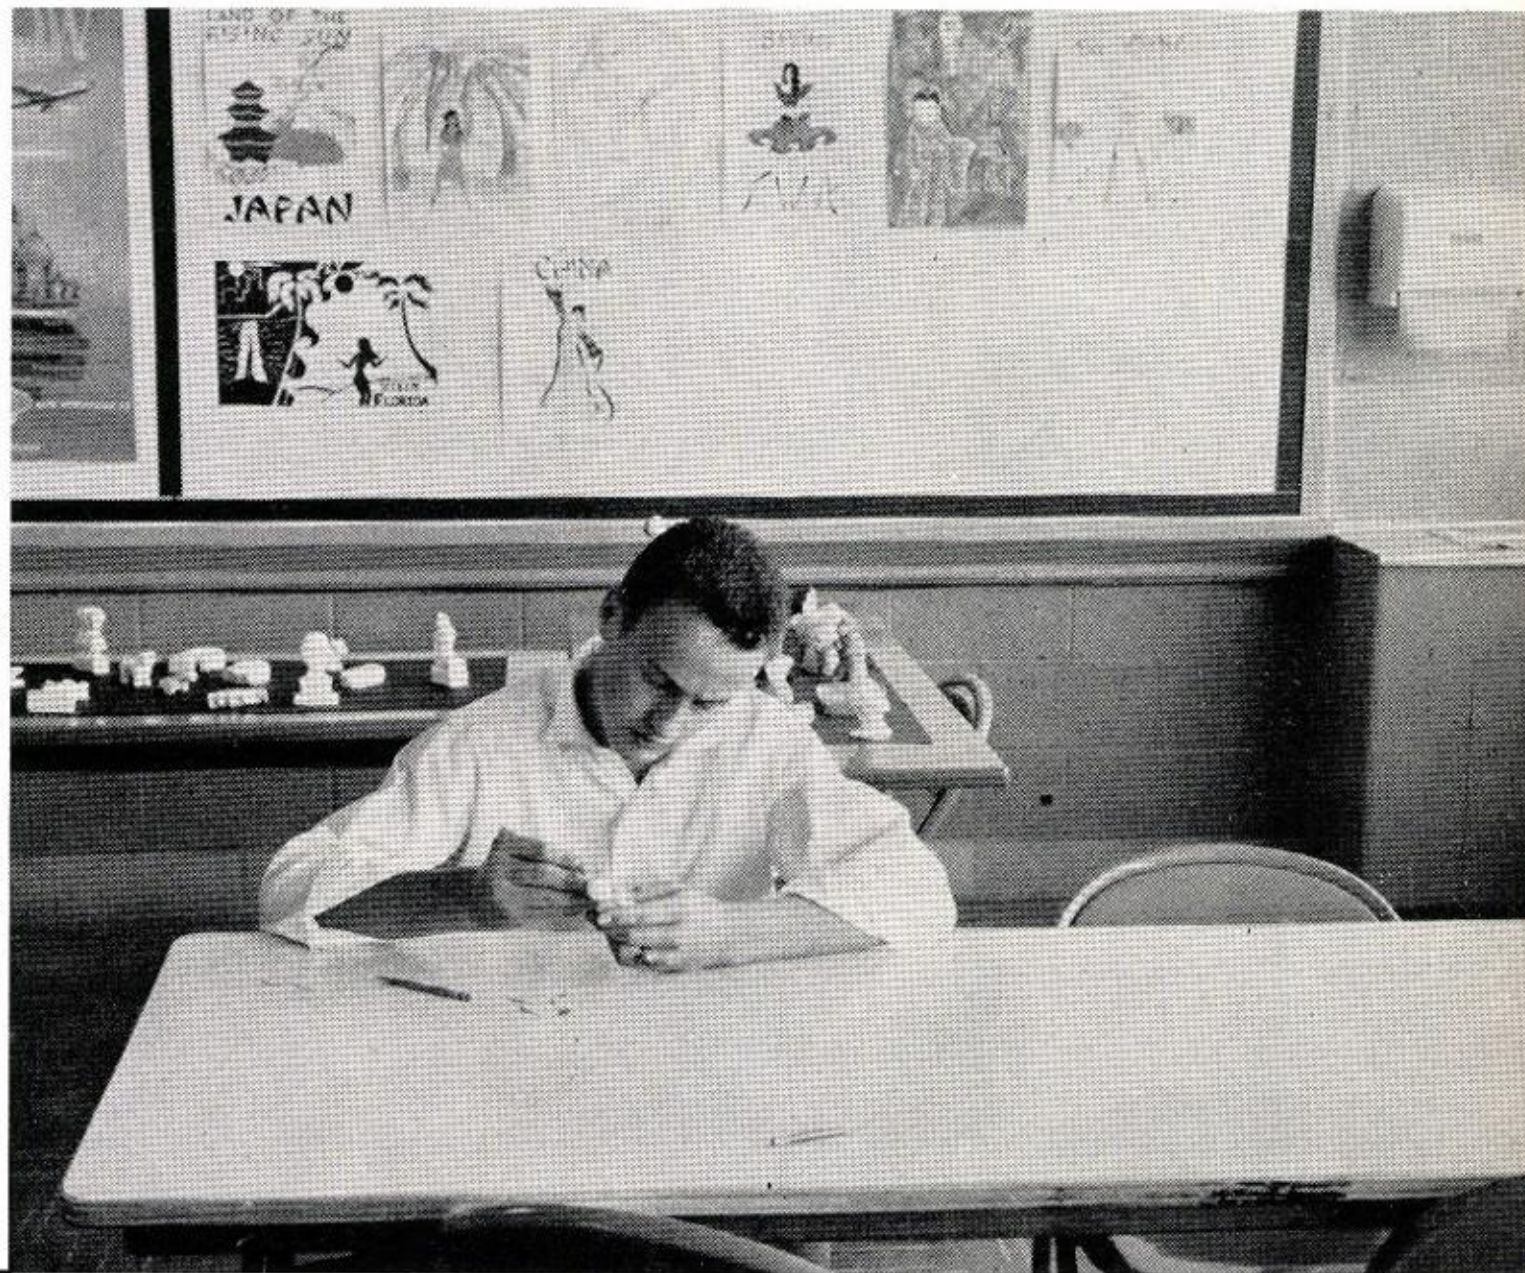

VEIT HEIDBRINK

GERMAN EXCHANGE STUDENT

Another first this year was the beginning of a foreign-exchange student program. Veit Heidbrink, from a small town near Munich, Germany, enrolled this fall as a Senior student, thus beginning a year of new experiences for him and a host of fun-filled weeks for Richardson.

Veit lived with Ken Mitchell and his family for the duration of his stay. Courses in art, American history, English and higher math provided most of his curriculum. He excelled in all of his studies, despite some confusion resulting from his new surroundings.

One of Veit's most outstanding attributes was his warm, friendly personality, and winning smile, which helped him make friends wherever he went. He made it clear that he liked Richardson, and we can assure Veit that Richardson certainly liked him.

Art was one of Veit's best school subjects, but as he himself said, "Veit, the German, likes messing around with the American kids best!"

STAEKER VOTED PRESIDENT

Andrea Maupin looks at Diane Kleinman and wonders if their votes will coincide.

These are elections at R.H.S. Through them, we, the student body, gain the valuable experience which will be our only bulwark in the expanding world of tomorrow. Through the new experience of the voting machines, we are able to exercise our God-given right—the right to hold our own opinions and vote them.

Following this, extensive campaigns including posters and speeches were held to determine the new Student Council officers who will, in turn, conduct next year's elections.

In our elections, we exercise our American Heritage. Through them, we put aside our children's world and cleave to the world of thinking, considering, and voting adults.

This is the moment everyone's been waiting for. Judith can't watch as they open the voting machine.

Tension mounts as votes are tabulated.

SPORTS

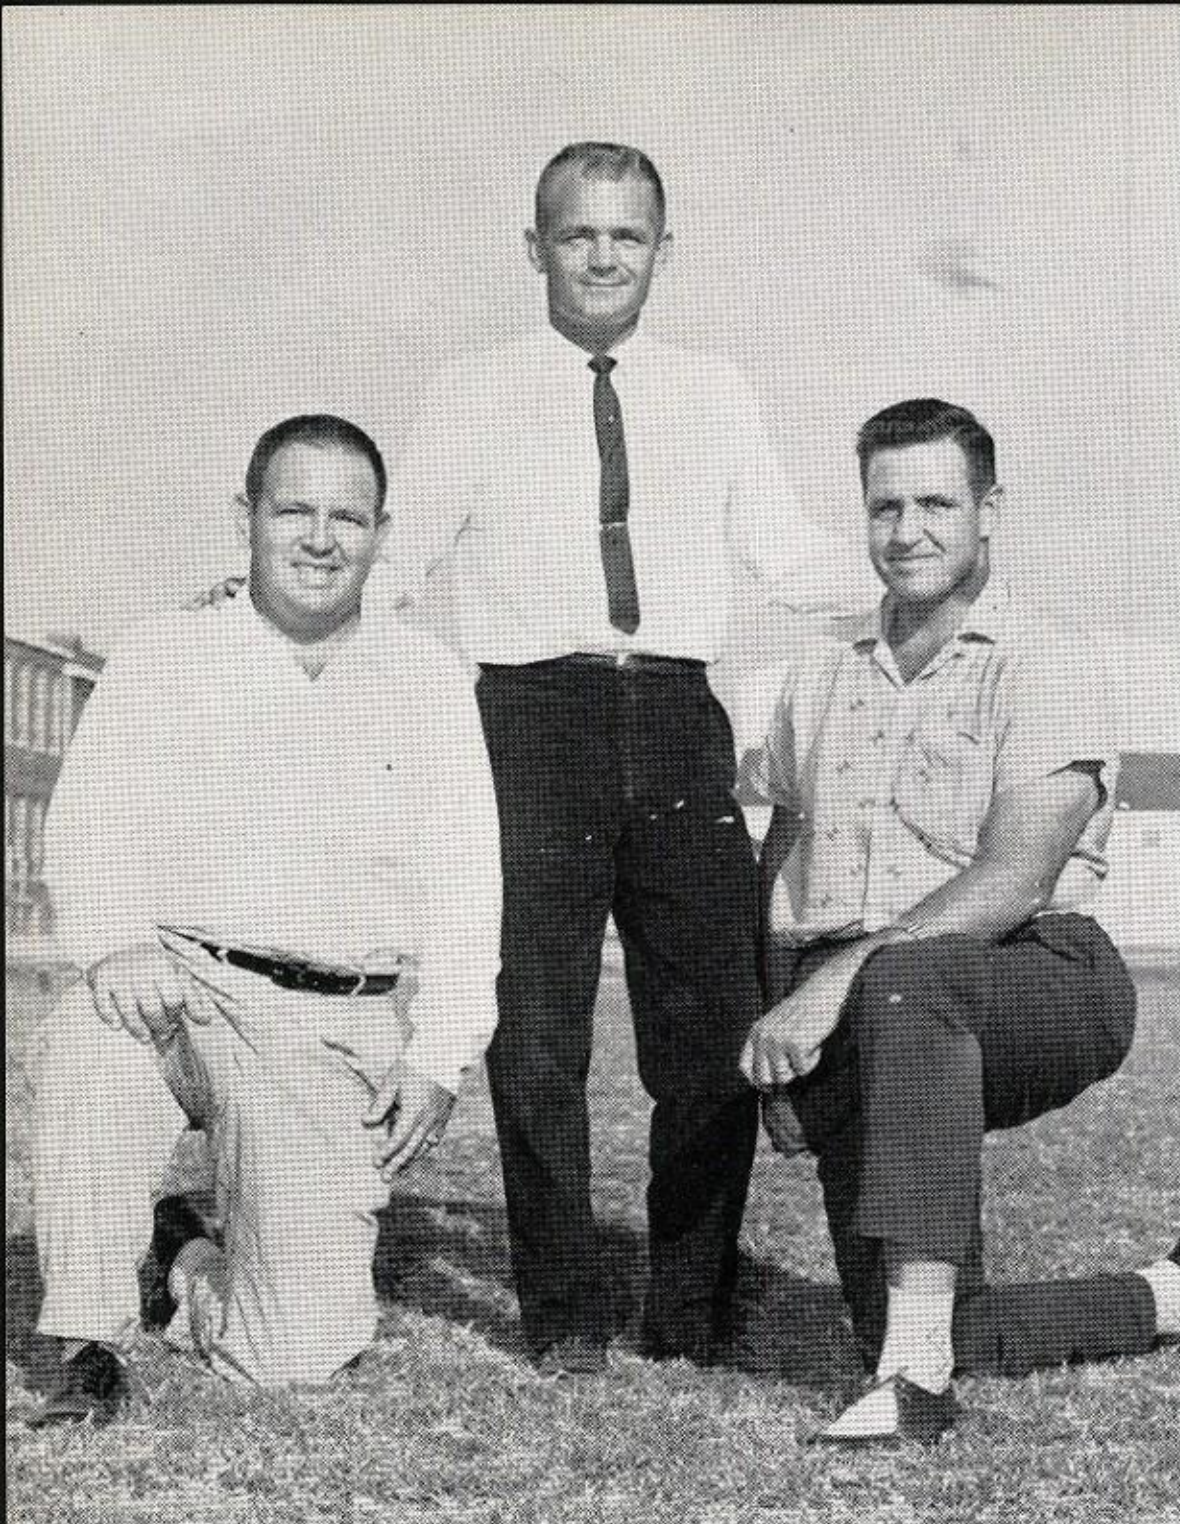

A wild exuberant Eagle spirit poured out this year as the Eagles, due to the growth of our school, moved up to a new district, 5AAA.

In spite of new and stranger opponents, the football team succeeded in capturing fifth place in the new district, placing boys on the district team and returning one boy to the all state team. Also, the coveted title of "Coach of the Year" went to R.H.S. for the third time. This year Bill Atkins received the award.

Eagle cagers, led by center Carroll Hooser, fought their way to a third place in the district contests. They also captured consolation place in the Waxahachie Tournament and a first in the R.H.S. Tournament.

Baseball and track, at this time yet unheralded, hold great promise of even greater success.

The fighting Eagle spirit, it would seem, has grown in the same monumental proportions as has the student body. We have outgrown mediocrity and have grown into greatness.

JACK HARRIS BILL ATKINS CHARLES BROOM

As the referee's whistle signaled the opening kick-off, the shrill blast also signaled one of Richardson's finest seasons of football. The Eagle gridiron team had little experience with only three returning starters on the 1960 team. Being inexperienced, they were also the smallest team in district, but still compiled a 7-3 record for the season, mostly on desire and hustle. With a little, but powerful line of 170 pounds and a backfield of 160 pounds, they defeated two 4A schools of Dallas, and played every game with hard hitting and head knocking desire.

Coaches Bill Atkins, Charles Broom, and Jack Harris led the high flying Eagles to a fifth place in a brand new district, 5AAA.

Coach Atkins, a former Honorable Mention Little All-American and R.H.S. graduate, returned for his third year as head coach.

Newcomer Charles Broom, a graduate of A.C.C., served not only as head line coach but also as coach of our "B" basketball squad. He came to R.H.S. from Galena Park High School in Houston.

A dual duty is filled by Jack Harris, who is in his second year at R.H.S. During football season, he acts as assistant line coach, while he serves as head track coach later in the year.

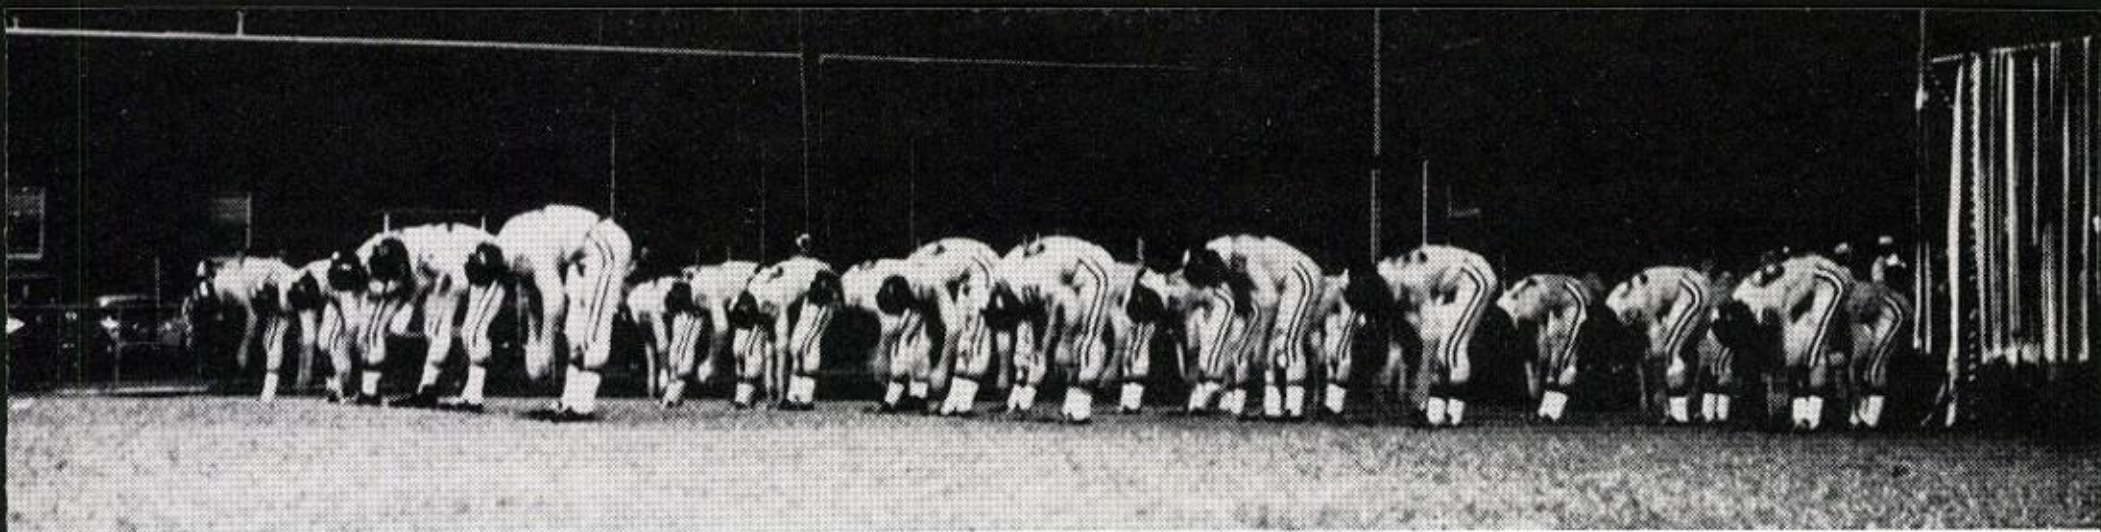

A team is only as good as are its coaches. Congratulations to coaches Atkins, Broom, and Harris on a very fine season.

EAGLES

Even better; this was all done by a move from 12AA to 5AAA by the growth of the school's population.

School spirit was terrific, with everyone participating at pep rallies, on silent day, and other activities, such as the bonfire and the colorful parade. The band and Eaglettes also did a splendid job in supporting the team during their precision half-time performances.

Richardson High School thanks all who participated in promoting school spirit, and the boys who compiled the fine record of 7-3 this 1960 football season.

SOAR INTO 5-AAA

Captains: Ronnie Covington, John Buchanan, Bill Mullenweg.

Eagle captains Ronnie Covington, John Buchanan, and Bill Mullenweg were elected by the other football boys at the end of last year to lead them through the 1960 season.

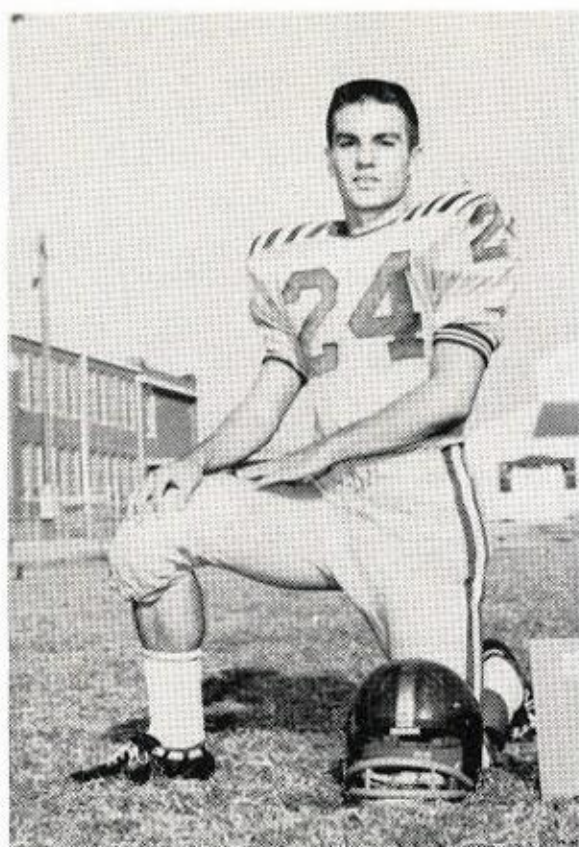

It was Bill Mullenweg's second year as captain. During his three years on the "A" team, he has been a standout in playing his fullback position; gaining such honors as being in the All District team twice, a member of the All Greater Dallas team twice, and Honorable Mention All State.

John Buchanan is Junior quarterback and captain, leading the team on the field from his man-under position and also in scoring.

Ronnie Covington is the smallest in size, but proved a powerful Eagle from the halfback position and cornerman on defense. A captain in his Senior year, he always raised the team's morale. It also was his third year on the "A" squad.

These three have done much to make this year's Eagle gridiron team one of the best in our school's history of football.

On the opening kick-off the Eagles carried the ball to Hurst's one yard line where Buchanan fumbled and after that nothing went right as the Eagles outplayed Hurst in all phases of the game, but was unable to hold onto the ball.

COMES LATE IN SEASON

Mullenweg picks up yardage, but all was in vain,

After losing to Hurst the week before, the Eagles repeated the performance, bowing to Bowie 8-0. The game was evenly matched, although the lone Bowie touchdown was unearned as two Eagle defenders collided while trying to down a pass, only to bat it into the hands of a Bowie receiver late in the second quarter for the score. The Eagles managed to penetrate the Bowie 20 yard line only once as they fought a losing battle with the breaks against them.

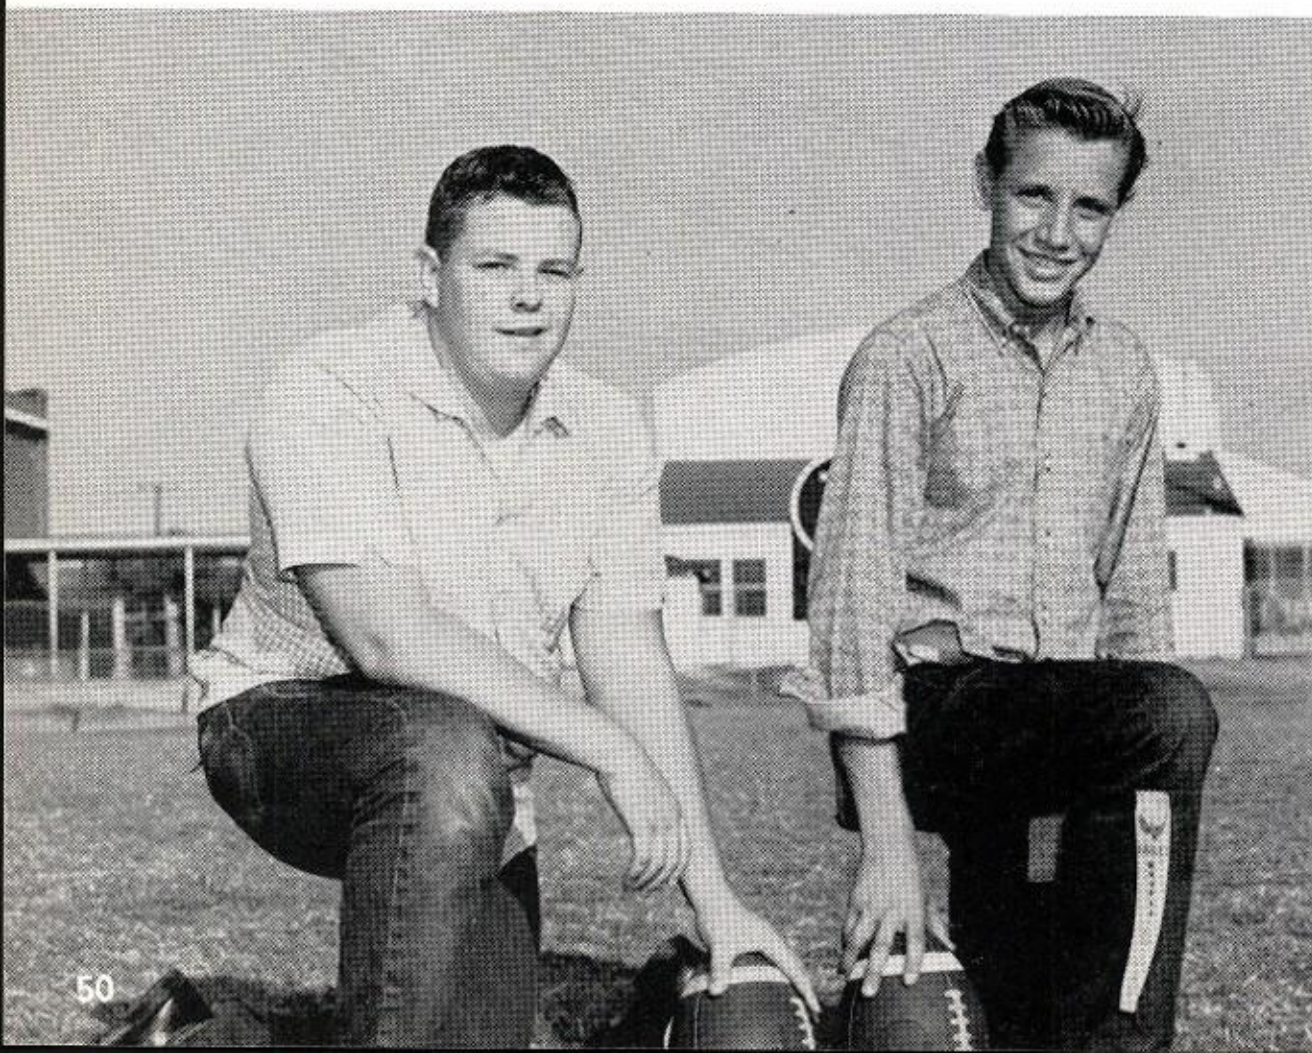

End Bill Bain picks up 27 yards on Buchanan pass against Carrollton.

Performing before a crowd of 6,000 the Richardson Eagles again showed their hustle and ability by giving the district champs a run for their money. Playing a hard game, the Eagles smashed and pounded the Carrollton line, but couldn't keep up with their powerful offense, losing 30-20 in the final game of the season.

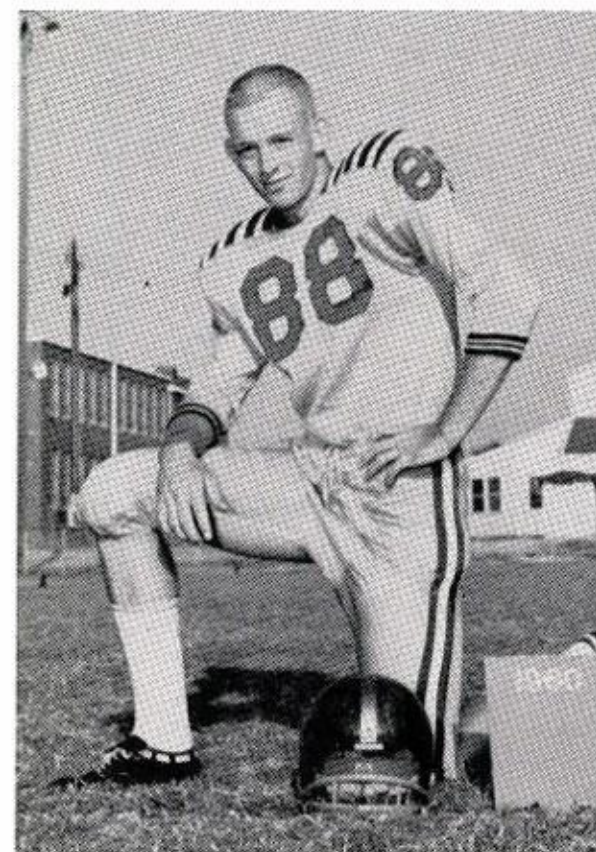

Tom Hartin made the first Eagle score on a 79 yard pass. Mullenweg sprinted up the middle for a 69 yard tally, making it 24-14 in favor of Carrollton. Richardson's last score of the game and the season came on a 70 yard passing spree and a Buchanan plunge from the one yard line.

Football Sweetheart
CAROLYN DEUBACK

At the Mesquite pep rally, the 1960 Football Royalty was announced. Senior Carolyn Deuback, chosen Sweetheart by the football team, was escorted onto the floor by Captain Bill Mullenweg. A roar of approval emitted from the student body in the stands. The attendants Pam Morgan, escorted by Captain John Buchanan; Beverly Waggoner, escorted by Captain Ronnie Covington; and Cindy Snyder, escorted by Terry Oddson, were then announced.

On October 7, in pre-game ceremonies, while the band played "The Loveliest Night of the Year," Sweetheart Carolyn, dressed in a red and white taffeta and velvet dress, was crowned and presented the traditional long stemmed red roses and kiss by Bill Mullenweg. The attendants, dressed in white chiffon, were presented carnation corsages by the cheerleaders. The royalty then had side line seats and were honor guests at the game, which was won by the Eagles. A dance, at which the sweetheart and her attendants were honored guests, was held following the game.

EAGLE "B" TEAM LINEUP

LINE: Larry Tennison, Dwight Maxwell, Steve Stringer, Arnold Barnes, Steve Brown, Carl Martin, Billy Kinder

BACKS: D. J. Moore, Steve Roberts, Andy Rooker, Mike Morris

Our Eagle "B" team played bigger and better schools as did the "A" team, but they, too, came out on top with a season record of five wins and three losses. Led by Sophomore Captain Andy Rooker, the team should add great strength to next year's varsity.

Mike Morris, Sophomore halfback, led the team in scoring with 58 points, and D. J. Moore was second with 24 points. Andy Rooker connected for 25 out of 52 passes to lead the team in that department, with an average of forty-eight per-cent completed.

The team has played such Dallas AAAA schools as Highland Park, Hillcrest, Bryan Adams, and other top teams.

Coach Max McClearin headed the "B" team, and was aided by Coach Randall Herman. Much credit goes to these coaches for the making of the team and preparing them for next year's season.

R.H.S. HONORED WITH COACH OF THE YEAR FOR THIRD TIME

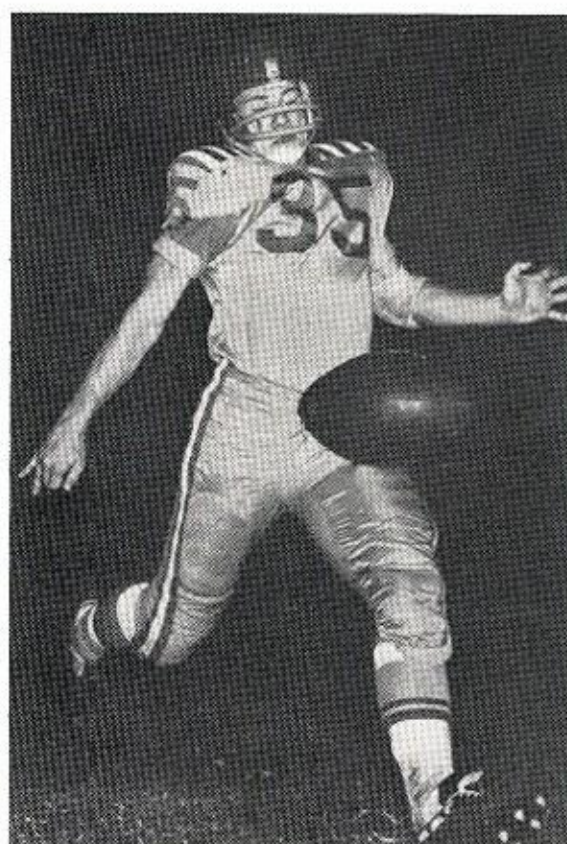

Bill Atkins, Head Football Coach, received the high honor of being selected AAA coach of the year by the Dallas Sportswriters Association. Taking the Eagles in hand, he guided them through the totally new AAA contests with such great skill that he could not be overlooked. Atkins, an R.H.S. graduate, returned in 1956 as backfield coach. In 1958, he succeeded Raymond Bynum, also a Coach of the Year, as head coach. Richardson indeed has reason to be proud of its head coach, Bill Atkins.

The scene was during the half time of the Waxahachie basketball game. Everyone was tense, excited, and inquisitive about who was to be the 1961 basketball sweetheart. Her majesty was revealed to be Pam Morgan, a senior.

Pam Morgan was chosen, by vote of the basketball team, as the sweetheart for 1960-61. She then represented the Eagles in the Dr. Pepper Invitational Tournament Beauty Contest and received a sterling silver charm bracelet for being a participant. Pam, an Eaglette Lieutenant and member of the Talon Staff, is an active participant in school activities.

WINS HOME TOURNAMENT

R.H.S. made another dent in the 5-AAA sports scene with their high flying Eagle basketball team. We started the season out with 7 straight wins. The Eagles held this record until late in the season when they were downed by Castleberry and Bowie.

Besides our own tournament, where we captured first place, we competed in the Waxahachie Tournament and in the Cotton Bowl Tournament. In the Waxahachie game, we won a consolation prize.

At the Cotton Bowl Tournament, the Eagles won the first game, but lost their second game to Thomas Jefferson of Dallas.

With an 8-4 record the team captured third place. We had a 21-10 record for the whole season. We are proud of this third place because we are in a newer, bigger, and better district, 5-AAA.

HOOSER SCORES VICTORIES ARE

Led by 6' 7" Carrol Hooser, the Eagles had no difficulty in defeating two Fort Worth schools, Brewer and L. D. Bell. Both games were close for the first half, but the Eagle cagers came out easy victors. In the game with Brewer the Bears dominated the backboards the first half, but the Eagles came back in the second to feed "Big Hooser," who responded magnificently which meant an Eagle victory.

Castleberry, the 5-AAA champions, took a hard fought game from the Eagles. Hooser kept the crowd cheering and on the edge of their seats as he scored his season high of 38 points. Time and time again Castleberry lost their polish, but still proved strong enough to defeat R.H.S., 63-61, in the final seconds of play.

Bain made a foul shot to tie it up, then big Hooser brought the victory home and the house down with the final tally. In the final game of the season, the Eagles won an easy victory over the Lions on their own home court 66-49, which made the Eagle third in district with a 21-10 season record.

"B" TEAM BOASTS POWERFUL RECORD

Managers Mike Dorough and Bobby Dooley

Even though the "B" Eagles were not supported well enough, they still showed their potential material for next year's varsity team. With a season of 17-7, they battled their way through some tough competition, including Dallas 4A schools. Leading the team in scoring were Andy Rooker and D. J. Moore. Other starters included: George Bently, Dwight Totten, Joe Gray, Ben Love, Mike Morris and David Holmes. The B team players should help in conquering all opponents next year.

CLASSES

Life at R.H.S. does not consist only of parties, ball games, and assemblies. Above all, students are here to learn. Students are taught courses in several fields including languages, history, mathematics, science, music, art, and physical education. Over forty different courses are offered from which the individual student can choose four or five to study each year.

Two modern, well-equipped science laboratories, an air-conditioned band hall, and a well-supplied library are only a few of the many advantages known to R.H.S. students. Only the best qualified teachers, administrators, and counselors are found in the Richardson school system.

Students at R.H.S. may plan their schedules to prepare for a career immediately after graduation or for entrance into college. Career Day, on which guest speakers from several fields of endeavor come and tell about their chosen careers, is held every year.

SUPERINTENDENT J. J. PEARCE

The Richardson Independent School District has become one of the most outstanding school systems in the state. No small part of this progress is due to the direction of Superintendent J. J. Pearce. Many problems have arisen to be solved, such as providing adequate housing for a mushrooming school population and dealing with conflicting opinions in a school district.

Mr. Pearce is affiliated with over ten organizations on district, state, and city level. He has received a B.A. degree from Baylor University and a M.A. degree from Southern Methodist University.

B. B. PASSMORE

Principal B. B. Passmore received his Bachelor of Business degree from the University of Texas and his master's degree from North Texas State. He has also attended Southern Methodist University and East Texas State College.

W. D. JETER

Mr. W. D. Jeter, assistant principal, received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Hardin-Simmons University and his Master's from Texas Technological College. Mr. Jeter has also done graduate work at the University of Colorado.

ADMINISTRATORS USE UNDERSTANDING

As administrators, Mr. Passmore and Mr. Jeter deal with all problems occurring within the high school building. Mr. Passmore is called upon to use discerning judgement in supervising school activities. Discipline problems and promoting cooperation between students and faculty is the wide range of responsibility of Mr. Jeter.

Co-ordinator of the curriculum for the school district is Mr. C. L. Green. One of his main duties is to help inform the public of the school system's activities. Mr. Green received a Master of Education from Texas A&M.

C. L. GREEN

The counselors help Barbara Prichard interpret her Iowa Test scores.

Offering improved facilities, the Guidance Office is now staffed by two counselors, Mr. Fox and Mrs. Dooley, to take care of our growing needs. Administering tests to gauge the student's ability is an important activity of the counselors. Evaluations of these tests enable the staff to plan with the student for courses in high school and college. Many students find their help valuable in choosing colleges, in securing scholarships, and with any other problem they may have. Files are maintained on each student with a complete record of scholastic achievement and standardized test scores.

Mr. C. S. Fox has served as counselor for six years developing the program to its present important place in the school program. Mr. Fox received an A.B. degree from the University of Minnesota, an M.A. degree from Stanford University, and has done graduate work at Southern California, Arizona, and Southern Methodist.

New to the counseling staff, but not to the school district, is Mrs. Louise Dooley. She has been head of the homemaking department until this year. Mrs. Dooley received her B.S. and Master's degree from Texas Woman's University.

Mrs. Beebe is very essential as secretary to Mr. Passmore. She is kept busy by answering questions from the students, being in charge of the announcements, mimeographing tests, and many other jobs. Secretary to the assistant principal is Mrs. Martin. Keeping attendance records in order and assisting Mr. Jeter is her main job.

Senior English is taught by Mrs. Allie Gaydon. The sponsor of the Future Teachers of America received her B.A. and M.A. degrees from North Texas State College. Mrs. Gaydon expects the growth of our school to continue.

ENGLISH LAYS

We cannot learn without a foundation in this subject, a required course for all three years. Each year the study is spent, one semester for literature, another semester for grammar. Reading works from English and American literature teaches the students valuable skills in interpretation, aside from the pleasure and knowledge gained. Grammar teaches us the endless building blocks of our complex language. Outside reading is required and must be reported on in theme form or orally. Emphasis is placed on learning to express one's self in writing and ease in speaking.

"See the lady. Her name is Mrs. Macbeth"—says Mrs. Gaydon.

THE FOUNDATION FOR LEARNING.

"The growth of our school will present a challenge to both students and teachers," says Mrs. Leslie M. Johnson. The Religious Council sponsor and English teacher received both her B.A. and M.A. degrees from Southern Methodist University.

Mrs. J. R. Martin thinks that the growth of the school has been handled more efficiently than in any comparable area. Receiving her B.A. and M.A. degrees from East Texas State College, Mrs. Martin teaches Senior English, and serves as an active Senior Class sponsor.

Junior sponsor, Mrs. McClenny, thinks it is a wonderful opportunity to have this new building. She received her B.A. degree from Southern Methodist University. Mrs. McClenny teaches Junior and Sophomore English.

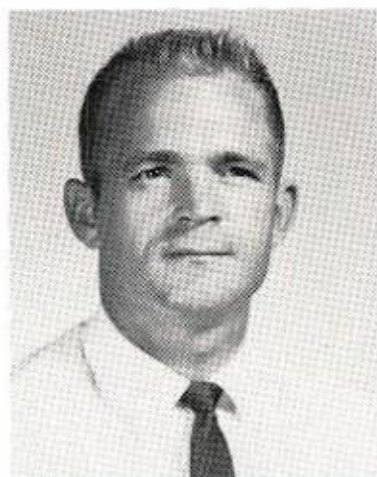

Mrs. Gene E. Rowlette, one of Richardson's Sophomore English teachers attended Texarkana College, the University of Arkansas, North Texas State and received a B.S. degree at Southern State, and a M.S. degree at East Texas State College. Mrs. Rowlette thinks the school system is doing an excellent job by keeping the instructional level in pace with the increasing growth.

ATKINS

RANDALL

Mr. Bill Atkins, aside from teaching Algebra, is our "A" football coach. He graduated from McMurry College in Abilene, Texas, with a B.S. degree.

Mrs. Josephine H. Langston is a graduate of El Dorado Jr. College and Henderson State Teachers College where she received her B.A. degree. Mrs. Langston teaches Algebra and Plane Geometry.

"I think it will be nice to move into the new building with all of its modern facilities," says Mrs. G. B. Mann. In addition to teaching trigonometry and Elementary Functions, she is the sponsor of the Student Council and Slide Rule Club. Mrs. Mann received her B.S. degree from Florence State College, Florence, Alabama.

Aside from teaching Plane Geometry, Mrs. Elna McKinney is Senior class sponsor and a member of the National Honor Society Committee. She graduated from Texas Christian University with a B.S. degree. Mrs. McKinney thinks it is fun and a challenge being part of the fast growing Richardson schools.

Mr. A. J. Randall teaches Algebra 1 and 2. He sponsors the Sophomore class and the Projection Club. Mr. Randall received his B.A. degree from Baylor University and a Master of Education from North Texas State College.

Algebra and Plane Geometry are taught by Mrs. Easter Stokes. She received her B.S., and M.S. degrees from East Texas State College. She has also attended North Texas State College and Southern Methodist University. Aside from her classroom responsibilities, Mrs. Stokes sponsors the Senior class and Junior Red Cross.

equal to half the sum of the bases."

Mathematics is taught in degrees of difficulty, offering the student ample preparation for any activity after graduation.

The basic courses in algebra and plane geometry provide a foundation for later study. The more advanced courses in trigonometry and solid geometry prepare the college-bound student.

Elementary Functions is available to students who foresee future study in calculus, to which this course is a helpful prerequisite. Richardson students are among a very few to whom this advanced course is offered.

Mathematics is the key to all study of advanced scientific learning and has important business applications. Richardson offers a full program to prepare the careerist.

Mrs. Weir's classes learn more about Spanish-speaking countries through special projects.

WIDER HORIZONS ARE GAINED THROUGH HISTORY AND FOREIGN LANGUAGES

Giving students valuable experience in historical studies and foreign language arts, our history and language divisions offer a thorough curriculum.

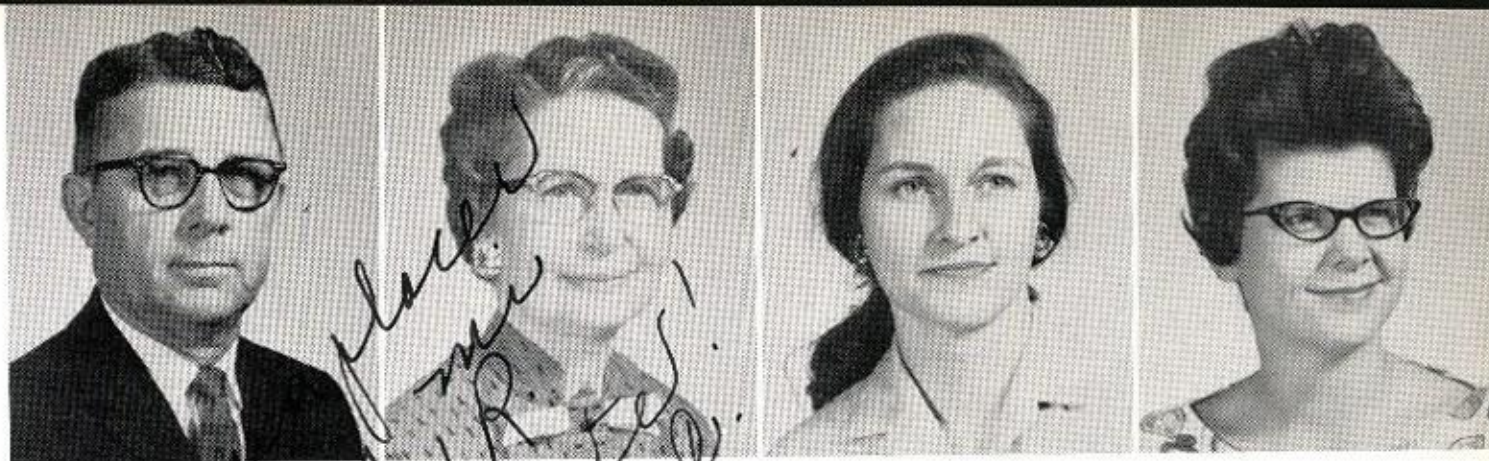

World history and American history are required courses which trace the progress of man through the ages and spotlight the important movements which welded our country into its present image. Texas history is a fascinating study of a freedom-bound people which makes wide use of special projects and outside resources. Investigating county and city governments on field trips is an activity of civics classes which delve into the intricacies of local, state, and federal government. All classes take time for a weekly newspaper to keep abreast of current events of importance.

Language courses in Spanish, French, and Latin are offered. Latin offers a foundation in the Romance languages, and, as the root of many words of English, helps the grammar student. French and Spanish offer experience in a foreign language that widens the horizons of the student's learning.

BARNETT

Mrs. Weldon Barnett, American History teacher, received her B.S. and M.S. degrees from Texas Arts and Industries College. The co-sponsor of the National Honor Society says, "I am looking forward to being in the rooms we history teachers helped plan."

BARR

WEIR

The Latin teacher and Latin Club sponsor, Mr. N. B. Barr, is looking forward to more room in the new building. Upon graduation from North Texas State College, he received his B.A. degree.

Aside from teaching Spanish, Mrs. Cardwell is sponsor of National Honor Society. Mrs. Cardwell has attended Oklahoma State University, Taxco Summer School and Oklahoma Baptist University and received her A.B. degree from Central Teacher's College Attending Paris Junior College, East Texas State College, and the University of California in Los Angeles, Mrs. Virginia Horner received her Associate of Arts and B. A. degrees. "Richardson's schools have made excellent progress," stated the French teacher.

Spanish teacher, Mrs. Martha Weir, received her B.A. degree from Baylor University. While there, she majored in Education and Spanish, and minored in history.

DARNALL

"I look forward to the newer building, of course, but will have happy memories of this one," says Miss Julia Darnall. Aside from teaching American history and Civics, she is also sponsor of the Eagle and co-sponsor of the National Honor Society. Miss Darnall received her B.A. and M.A. degrees from North Texas State, and has attended the University of Colorado and Southern Methodist University.

World History teacher Mrs. Mattie C. Bundy received her B. A. degree from the University of Kentucky. She thinks the growth and expansion of our school is wonderful.

Graduating from North Texas State College with a B.S. degree, Miss Norma Lynn Knobel is one of our World History and American History teachers. "I am looking forward to teaching in the new building," says Miss Knobel.

Mr. Clark Dumas teaches physics, accelerated chemistry, and sponsors the Chem-Phy Club. "It is a pleasure to look forward to the new high school but there are a few pangs of regret in leaving this building," comments Mr. Dumas. He is a graduate of the University of Texas and received M.S. and M.Ed. degrees from Southern Methodist University.

Teaching Biology and sponsoring clubs takes up most of Miss Carolyn Medders' time. The Debate Society, Y-Teens, Booster Club, and the Junior Class receive her sponsorship. Miss Medders attended Rice Institute and received her B.A. degree from North Texas State College.

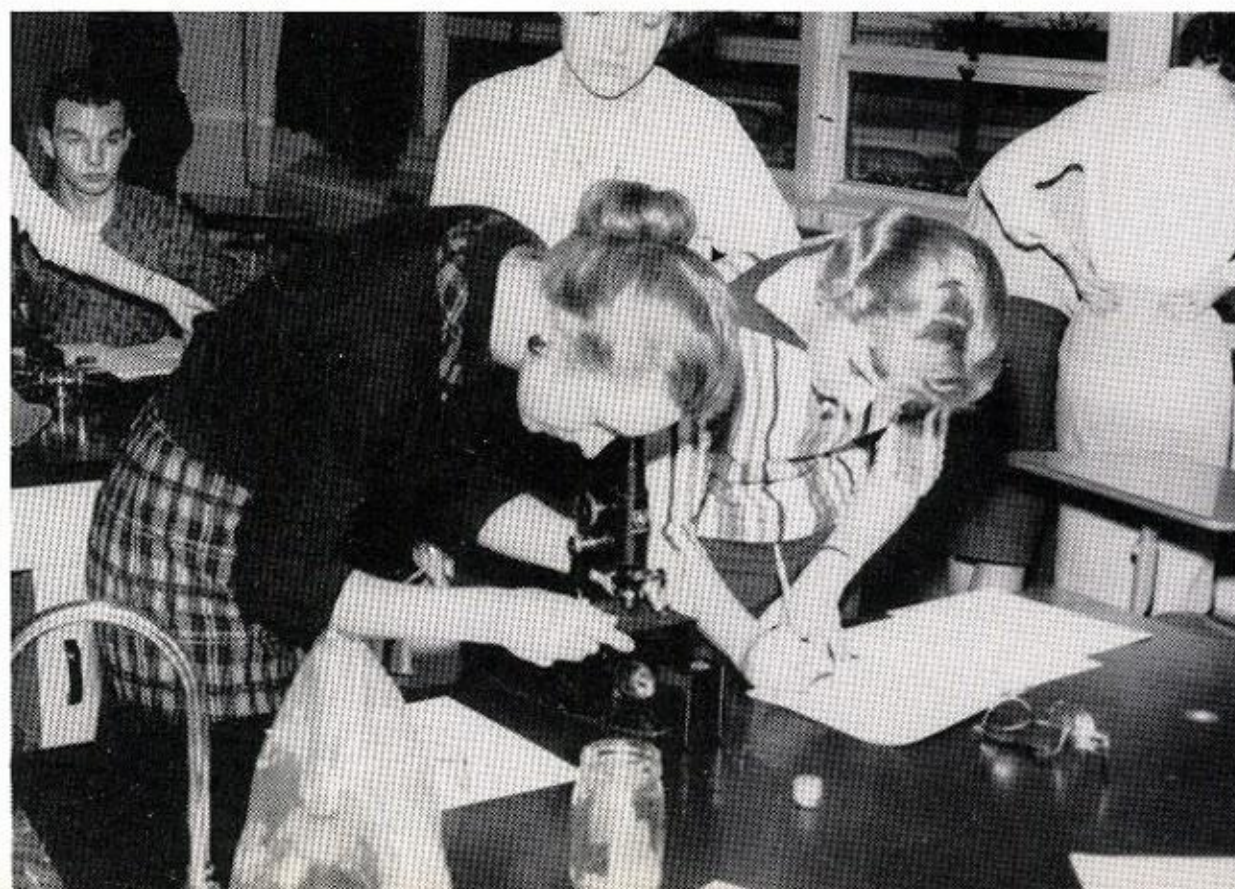

A new addition to the science department, Mr. Howard A. Starr, teaches biology. Mr. Starr graduated from the University of Dallas with a B.A. degree. He sponsors the Key Club and is co-sponsor of the Booster Club. "I believe the facilities expanded will enable us to stimulate and fathom deeper the magnitude of men's minds," states Mr. Starr.

With regards for a my pleasant high school career. H.A. Starr

Chemistry teacher Mr. Joseph G. Thompson received his B.S. in Chemistry from Presbyterian College in Clinton, South Carolina. Two new clubs have been formed this year under the direction of Mr. Thompson; the PAL Club, R.H.S.'s new service club, and the Junior Engineers Technical Society.

"But why is that Amoeba chasing the Euglena?"

Don McKinney explains the operation of the transistor.

SCIENCE EXPLORES THE MYSTERIES OF LIFE AND THE UNIVERSE

The science division makes use of two laboratories for experiments and two classrooms for lectures. Exploring the mysteries of life and its processes, the materials of our universe, and the laws governing the relationships of the forces of the world around us are the endeavors of our biology, chemistry, and physics departments.

By experiment and lecture we learn the intricacies of each of these. Dissection of specimens and evolution principles begin our learning. Testing the interactions of elements and the laws governing these mark the second phase. Finally, exploring the fundamental laws governing our surroundings completes this division's preparation for our living in a progressive world.

"Tex, there isn't anything in that jar but water!"

Mrs. Maxine Bohart looks forward to the extensive facilities in the new building where she will teach homemaking as she does this year. The co-sponsor of Future Homemaker of America received her B.S. from East Texas State College.

Home economics teacher Mrs. Dean McKeown has received both B.S. and M.S. degrees from North Texas State College. She is also co-sponsor of the Future Homemakers of America.

Mr. Dale Lowder received his B.S. in education after studying at East Texas State and Central State of Oklahoma. He instructs shop here and mechanical drawing at Belt Line Jr. High.

During the morning Mr. Max McClearin teaches shop and mechanical drawing. In the afternoon he coaches the basketball team and "B" football squad. Mr. McClearin received his B.S. in education, studying at East Central State of Oklahoma and New Mexico School of Mines. He received his M.A. degree in health and physical education at Colorado State College of Education.

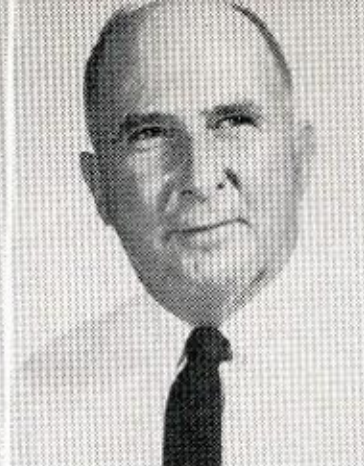

PREPARATION FOR THE FUTURE COMES

"I have to tell them everything. Reindeers' noses aren't red."

THOMPSON

Mr. Jack Harris teaches classes of General Business, Texas History, and sponsors the Junior Class. He coaches track and assists the Eagle football line coach. Degrees from North Texas and East Texas State Colleges were received by Mr. Harris in Science and Education.

Mr. Franklin L. King, typing and bookkeeping teacher, received his B.S. degree from East Texas State College and his M.S. from the University of Texas. He feels that Richardson students are fortunate to have facilities that are being improved constantly.

Shorthand and advanced typing are taught by Mrs. Louis E. Moore, Jr. She received her teaching degrees from Peru State in Nebraska. Besides teaching duties, Mrs. Moore sponsors the Career Girls.

Mrs. Amy Thompson admires the administration for its foresight in meeting the school's growing needs. North Texas State College awarded her B.B.A. and M.B.E. degrees for her work as a student there. She teaches typing and sponsors the senior class and the Junior Career Girls.

THROUGH SPECIAL COURSES

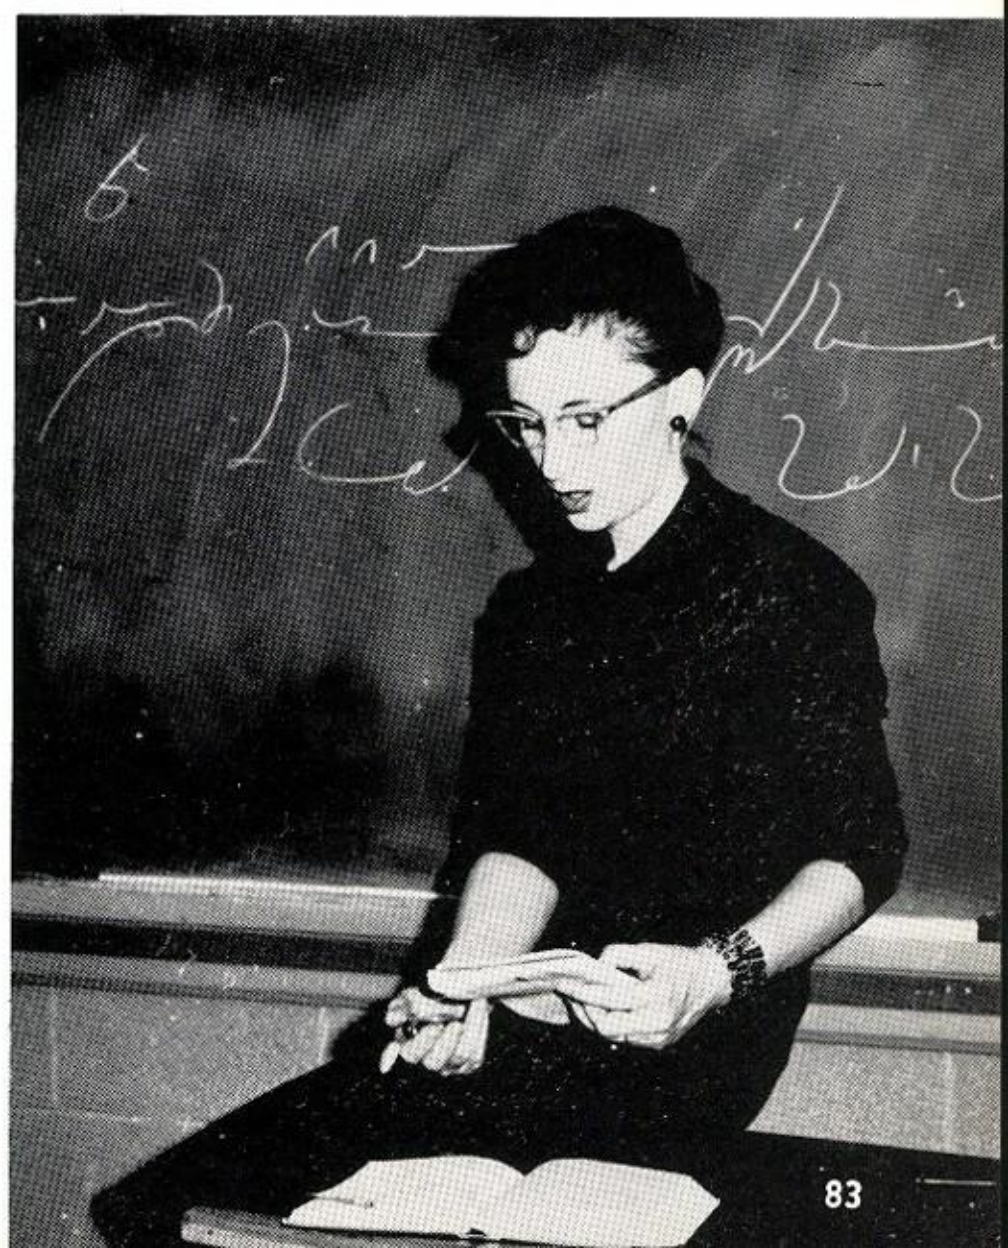

Skills that prepare students for future vocations are the curricula of the home economics, business, and industrial arts departments.

In home economics, the mechanics of sewing and cooking are taught with a study of child care, home planning, and interior design.

Shop skills and mechanical drawing are the courses of study in the industrial arts department.

Business courses in typing, bookkeeping, and shorthand prepare the student planning a secretarial, accounting, or stenographic career.

"They will never remember the symbol for this . . ."

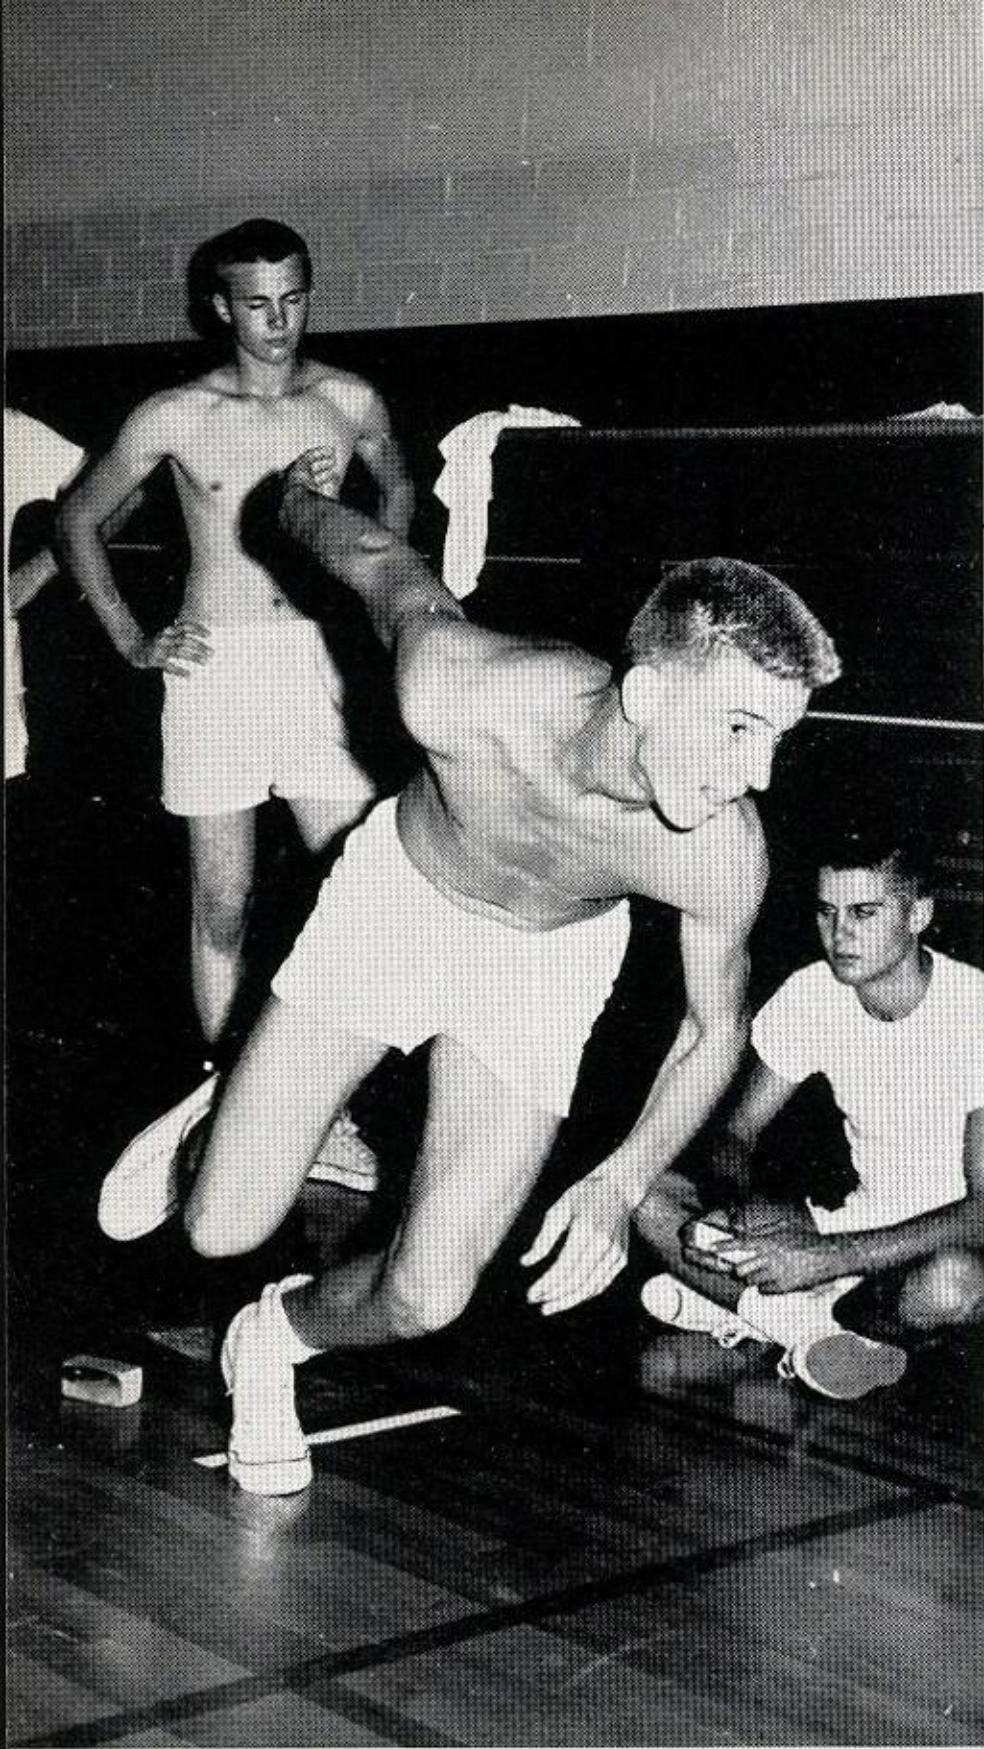

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Skills learned in physical education reach far beyond the conditioning and training of the body.

The aims and accomplishments of physical education are strengthening muscles and relaxing nerves through calisthenics, seasonal sports, and other activities. P. E. seeks to improve co-ordination and build better sportsmanship.

Many students in P. E. classes compete in interscholastic league sports. Football, basketball, archery, volleyball, tennis, baseball, tumbling, and folk dancing are the activities of both boy's and girl's classes.

Steve Racketts is off and running.

All of Mrs. Fickert's P.E. classes gain from the new record player.

TEACHES CO-ORDINATION AND SPORTSMANSHIP

Mrs. Sara Fickertt received her B.S. in physical education at Kansas State University. She has also attended Texas Woman's University and North Texas State College. "I am proud to be a part of a growing school system," said the director of the Eaglettes and cheerleaders.

Aside from teaching physical education, Mrs. Mildred Wheeler has classes of health education and driver's training. She received her B.S. and M.S. degrees from North Texas State College.

*Special

Driver Training teacher, Mr. Charles Broom is also line coach of the Eagle football team and a basketball coach. He graduated from Abilene Christian College and has done graduate work at the University of Houston.

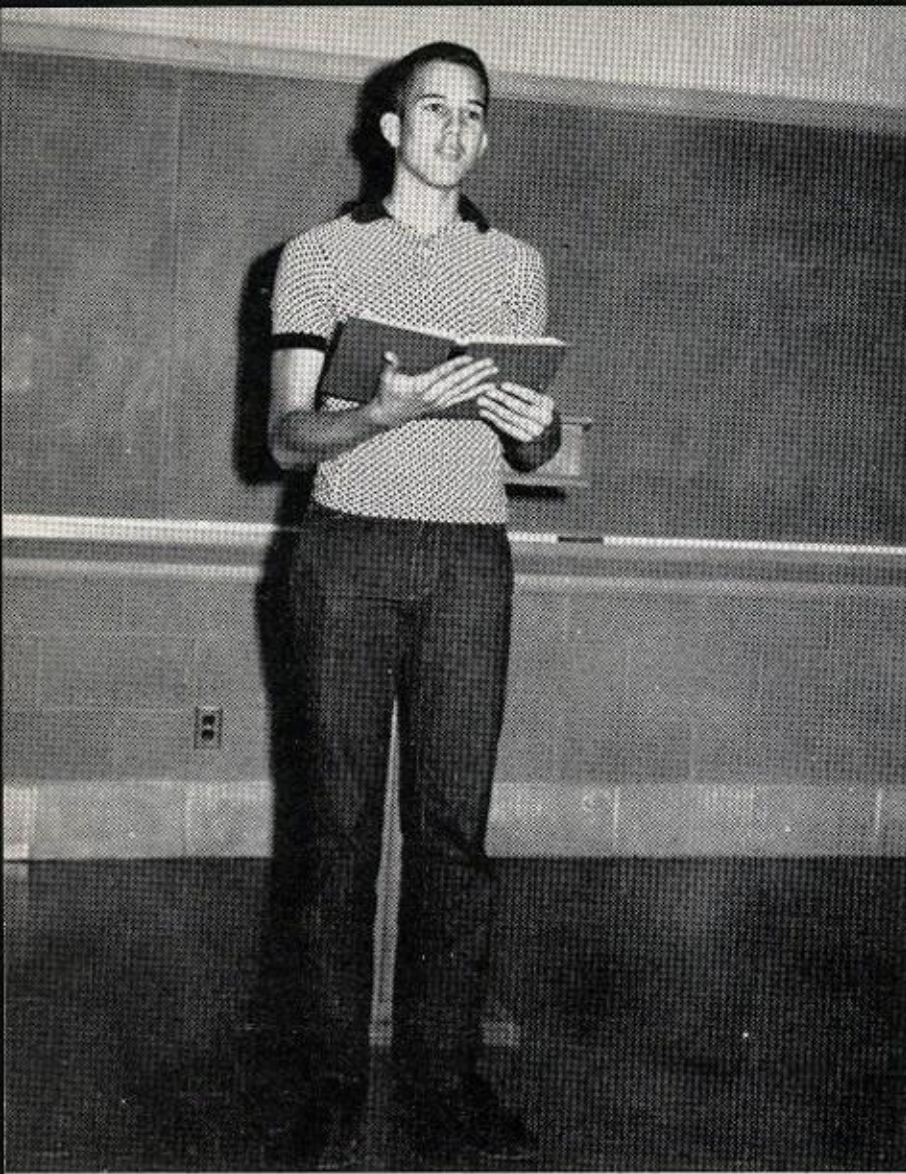

Mr. Randall Herman, who last year lead our basketball team to a Bi-district victory, again serves as the "A" basketball coach and as an assistant football coach. He also teaches physical education. Mr. Herman received his B.S. and M.E. degrees from East Texas State in Commerce.

Teaching five physical education classes and sponsoring the Junior class is Mr. "Abe" Spangler. Attending East Texas State College, he received B.A., B.S. and M.S. degrees. "You cannot stop the progress of a wonderful school" says this teacher who looks forward to a bigger gym.

Steve Vance learns poise in speech class.

The Arts are essential to a complete curriculum in any school. With many activities widening the effectiveness of the instruction fields, our teachers are busy directing groups toward a further knowledge of the fine arts and their practical applications.

ARTS

A new teacher at R. H. S., Mrs. Gray teaches classes of first and second year speech. She sponsors Playhouse R.H.S. and K.R.H.S. Mrs. Gray has attended Texas Woman's University and Northwestern University. "I like R.H.S. as I find it, but am sure the expanding facilities will make it even more a pleasure to teach and learn in."

Librarian Mrs. Mabel Nicholson also sponsors the Hi Li Club. She has received B.A. and M.A. degrees from East Texas State College and her Masters of Library Science from Texas Woman's University.

Mrs. Bullock is the study hall supervisor. She has studied at East Texas State College in Commerce and Texas Technological College in Lubbock.

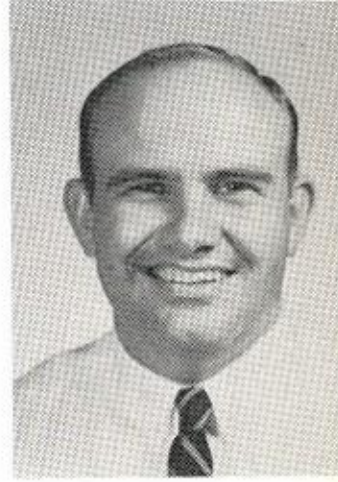

The band and choral director, Mr. Norman White, directed last year's Golden Eagle Band to a Sweepstakes award. Mr. White graduated from Northeastern State College of Oklahoma and received his masters degree in music education from East Texas State College.

Norman White

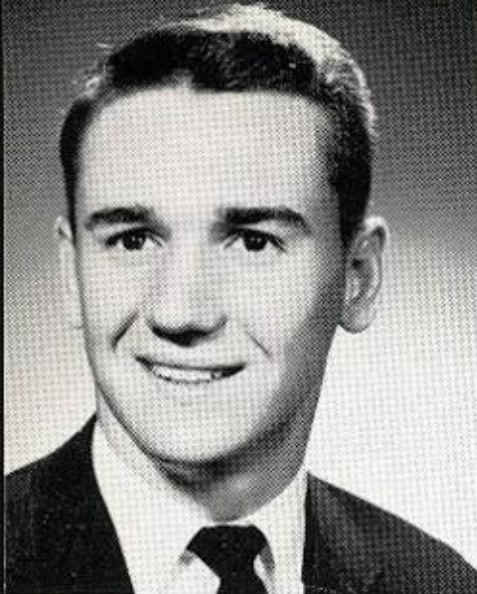

Art teacher and Beau Arts Club sponsor Mr. Dennis Johnson, received his B.A. from North Texas State College. He also attended the University of Texas School of Architecture.

This building has seen many firsts this year; but more important, many lasts. The most important "last" is the final graduating class, the seniors of '61.

In the first year of a new decade, this building has seen the last of senior car washes in its parking lot, and purple sweatshirts, emblem of the senior girls. It has seen the last of senior rings, senior pins, and senior candy sales. Its halls will no longer buzz with excitement about senior trips and graduation, for we, the final graduation class, are leaving. We have completed our high school years and are entering the ever-growing, expanding world of tomorrow.

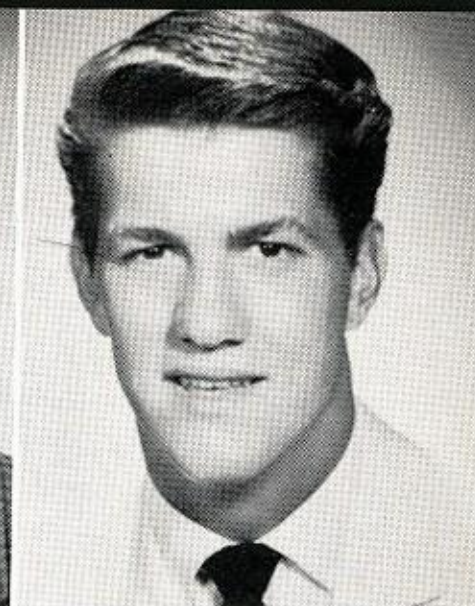

Bill Mullenweg, Secretary Sheila Helbing, and Co-Vice-President John Rossa look on.

HONORS

Each year several students who have earned recognition in some way are chosen to be honored by R.H.S.

For the first time, the Student Council and the faculty this year have recognized the most outstanding seniors. Using a list of the top twenty seniors as compiled by the Student Council, the faculty voted to choose the six students who were most deserving of becoming members of the Hall of Fame.

By secret ballot, the student body nominated and elected school favorites in these categories: best all-around, Mr. and Miss R.H.S.; most athletic, Mr. Sports; most enthusiastic spirit-booster, Miss Pep; best personalities, Mr. and Miss Personality; and the most attractive, Most Handsome and Most Beautiful. After the first ballot, run-offs were held until one nominee held a majority of the votes cast.

After school favorite elections, each class elected a boy and a girl as their class favorites.

HALL OF HONOR

TERRY GENT

Terry was recognized by this honor for his activities in the Key Club. He has done outstanding work as project chairman, senior class director, and a member of the board of directors in the club besides being a good, all-around student.

BOBBY FLOYD

Through his positions as president of the Student Council and drum major of the band, Bobby has demonstrated his leadership ability. The direction of the Chem-Phy Club is another of his responsibilities and he is an active member of the Key Club and the National Honor Society.

SHEILA HELBING

Sheila is greatly appreciated for the unassuming way in which she does outstanding work in many activities. This year she is active in Y-Teens, the senior class, and Eaglettes. She is also a member of the National Honor Society and an Eagle staff member.

Her interest and ability in music help her to make a contribution to the field of fine arts.

SUSAN BUSH

Susan is especially recognized for her demonstration of leadership as Captain of the Eaglettes. Aside from serving in this capacity, she is an officer in the F.H.A. and P.A.S.F. and is a feature editor of the "Talon." Susan received the DAR award for citizenship and was inducted as a member of the National Honor Society this year.

She spends many hours with her paint brush and palette. Art is a major interest.

BOB HUSTON

As a member of Playhouse RHS, Bob is a recognized actor of merit. He became a member of the All-State Cast through last year's Interscholastic League competition. Because of his speaking ability, he has distinguished the school by his appearances as a panel member and speaker before numerous adult groups. Bob has excelled scholastically while participating in these activities and is a member of the National Honor Society.

JOHN SCHOONBECK

John is recognized for being able to do many things well, both at school and away from school. He served as editor of the Eagle this year and developed the highly rated annual into an even better one. In the Pal Club, band, and the Chem-Phy Club, he is both a member and an officer. As an officer of the Debate Club, he has represented the school in both Interscholastic League and area debate contests.

MR. AND MISS R.H.S.

TOM HARTIN CAROLYN DEUBACK

Two popular seniors, Carolyn Deuback and Tom Hartin, were chosen the best all-round students at R.H.S. Carolyn, who has been a cheerleader for three years, was football sweetheart and Holly Hop Queen. She has won many friends because of her spirit and cheerful personality. Tom, secretary of the 1960-'61 Student Council, has been a class favorite and a class officer in past years. He was active on the varsity football and baseball teams.

MISS PEP MR. SPORTS

KAREN GASTON BILL MULLENWEG

Karen "Kagey" Gaston, chosen Miss Pep, was cheerleader in her sophomore and junior years. As a senior she was a member of the Eaglettes.

Mr. Sports, Bill Mullenweg, was a tri-captain of the Eagle football team, and was chosen a member of the second team All-State. He also participated in varsity track and basketball.

Because of her friendliness and winning smile, Beverly Waggoner was elected Miss Personality. This year she was a band majorette and football attendant.

Ronnie Covington, a member of the varsity football, basketball, and baseball squads, was chosen Mr. Personality. The popular senior is known for his good humor and sportsmanship.

TERRY ODDSON

CINDY SNYDER

Cindy Snyder and Terry Oddson were chosen by the student body as the two students with the best appearance. Cindy made herself known to R.H.S. by her work in Eaglettes and Beaux Arts. Terry led R.H.S. in the Key Club and Student Council, and he was a member of the "A" football team.

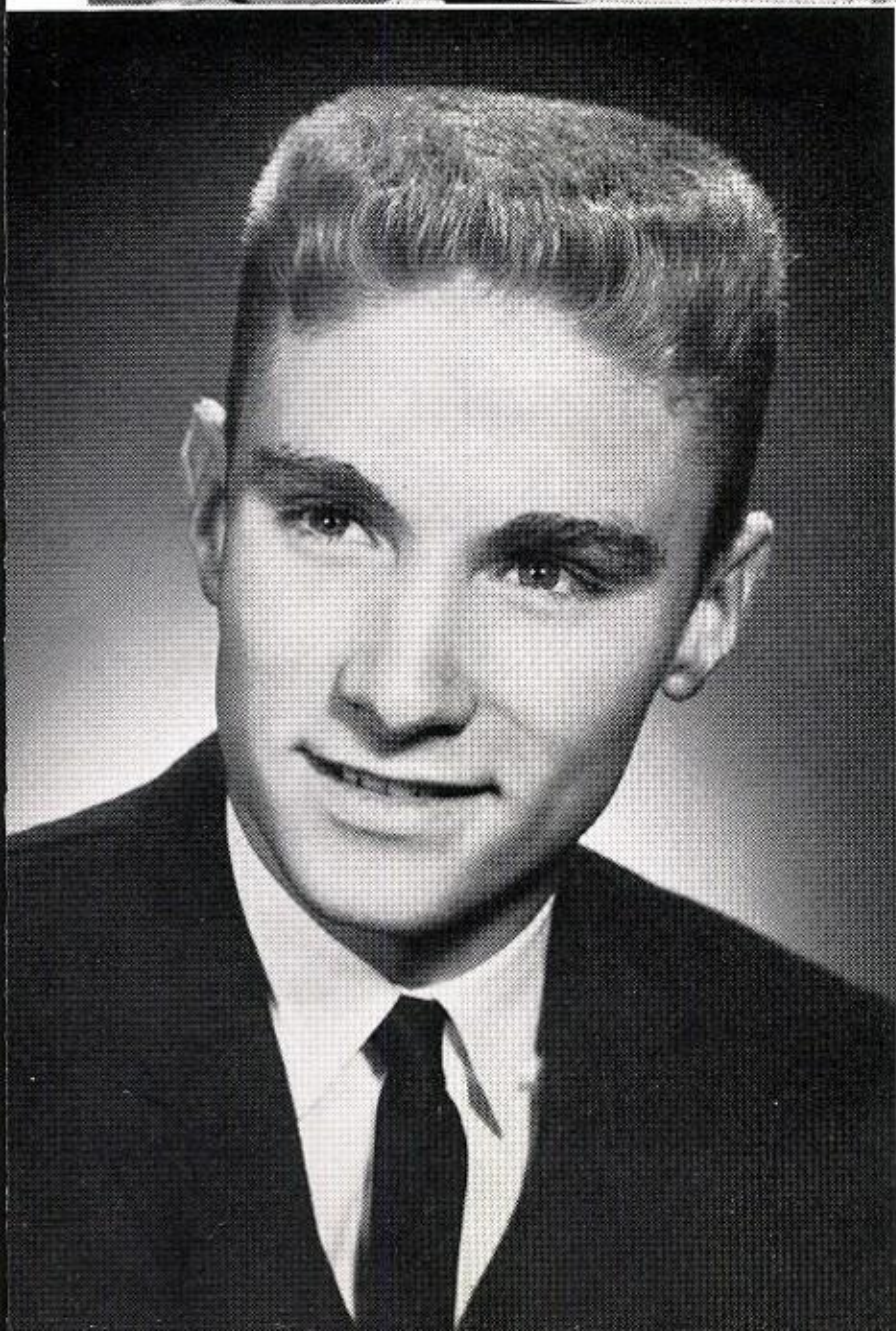

SENIOR FAVORITES

MARY GARRETT

Because of her activities and friendly personality, Mary was chosen Senior favorite. She is a member of Eaglettes, Career Girls, and Beaux Arts.

EDDIE RUSSELL

Eddie is familiar to all students as a cheerleader. He was elected vice-president of the Senior class, and in this capacity wrote the class constitution which future seniors may adapt to their organizations.

JUNIOR FAVORITES

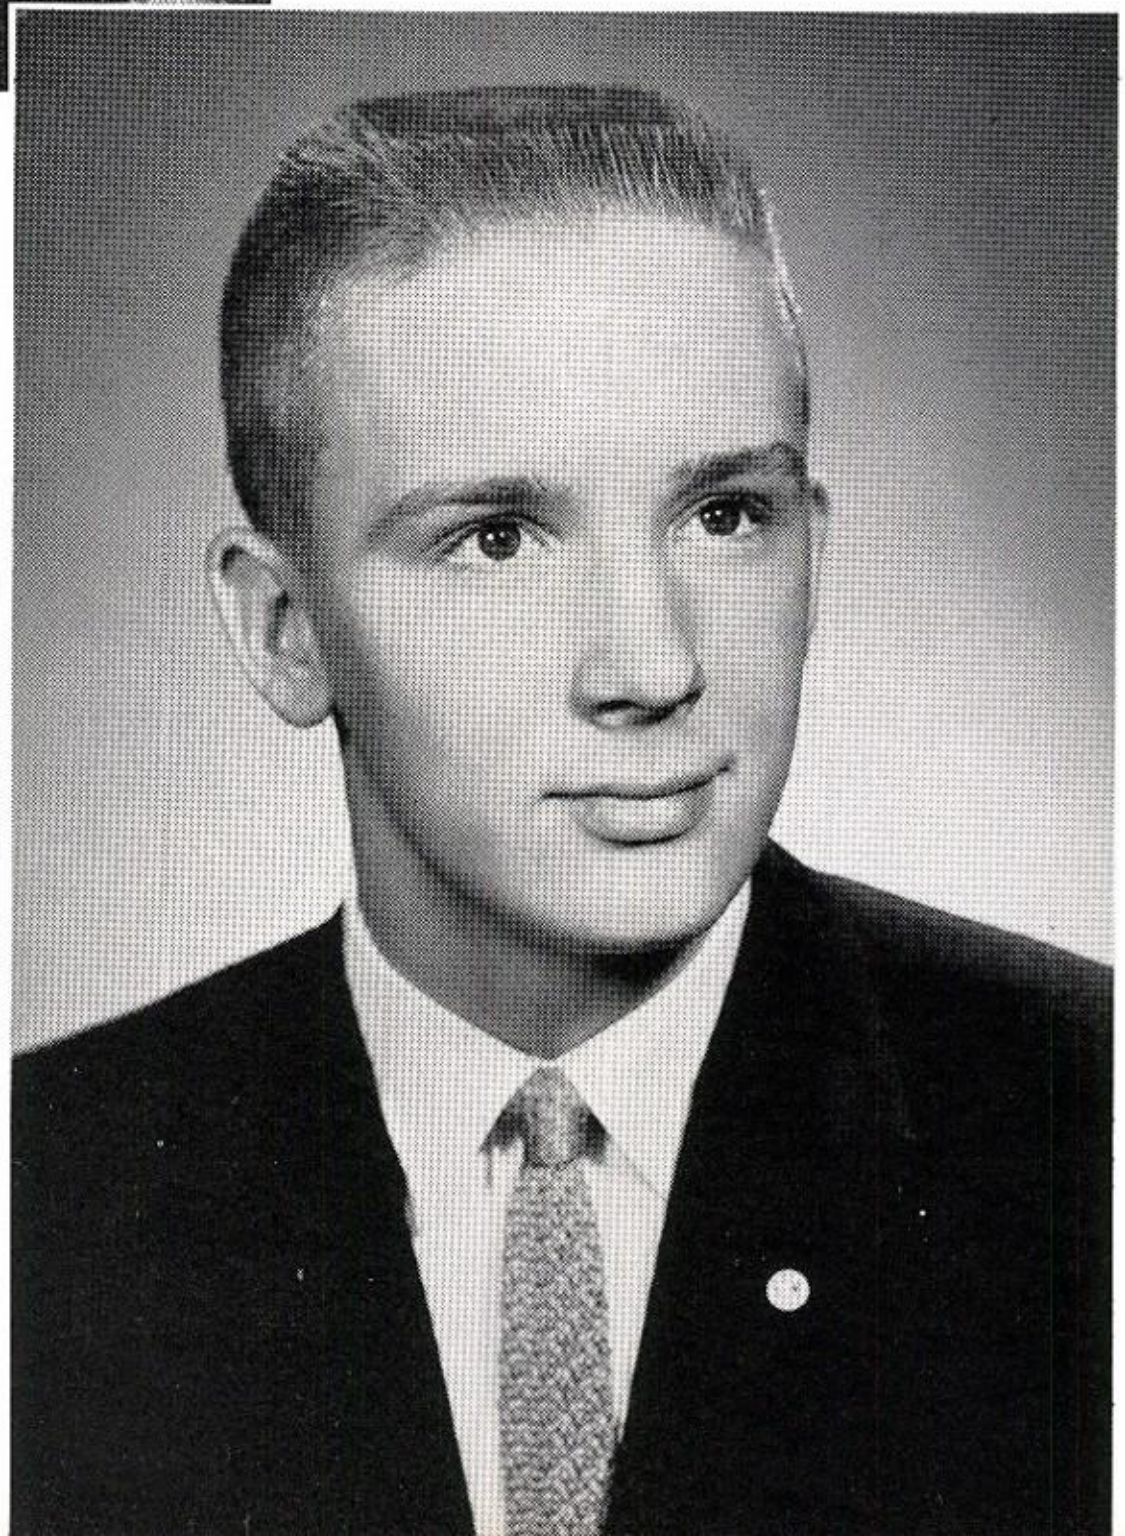

LINDA JAMES

Linda, known for her outgoing personality, has never failed to greet her fellow students with a smile. She is active in the Eaglettes and student-council.

GARY DEWALT

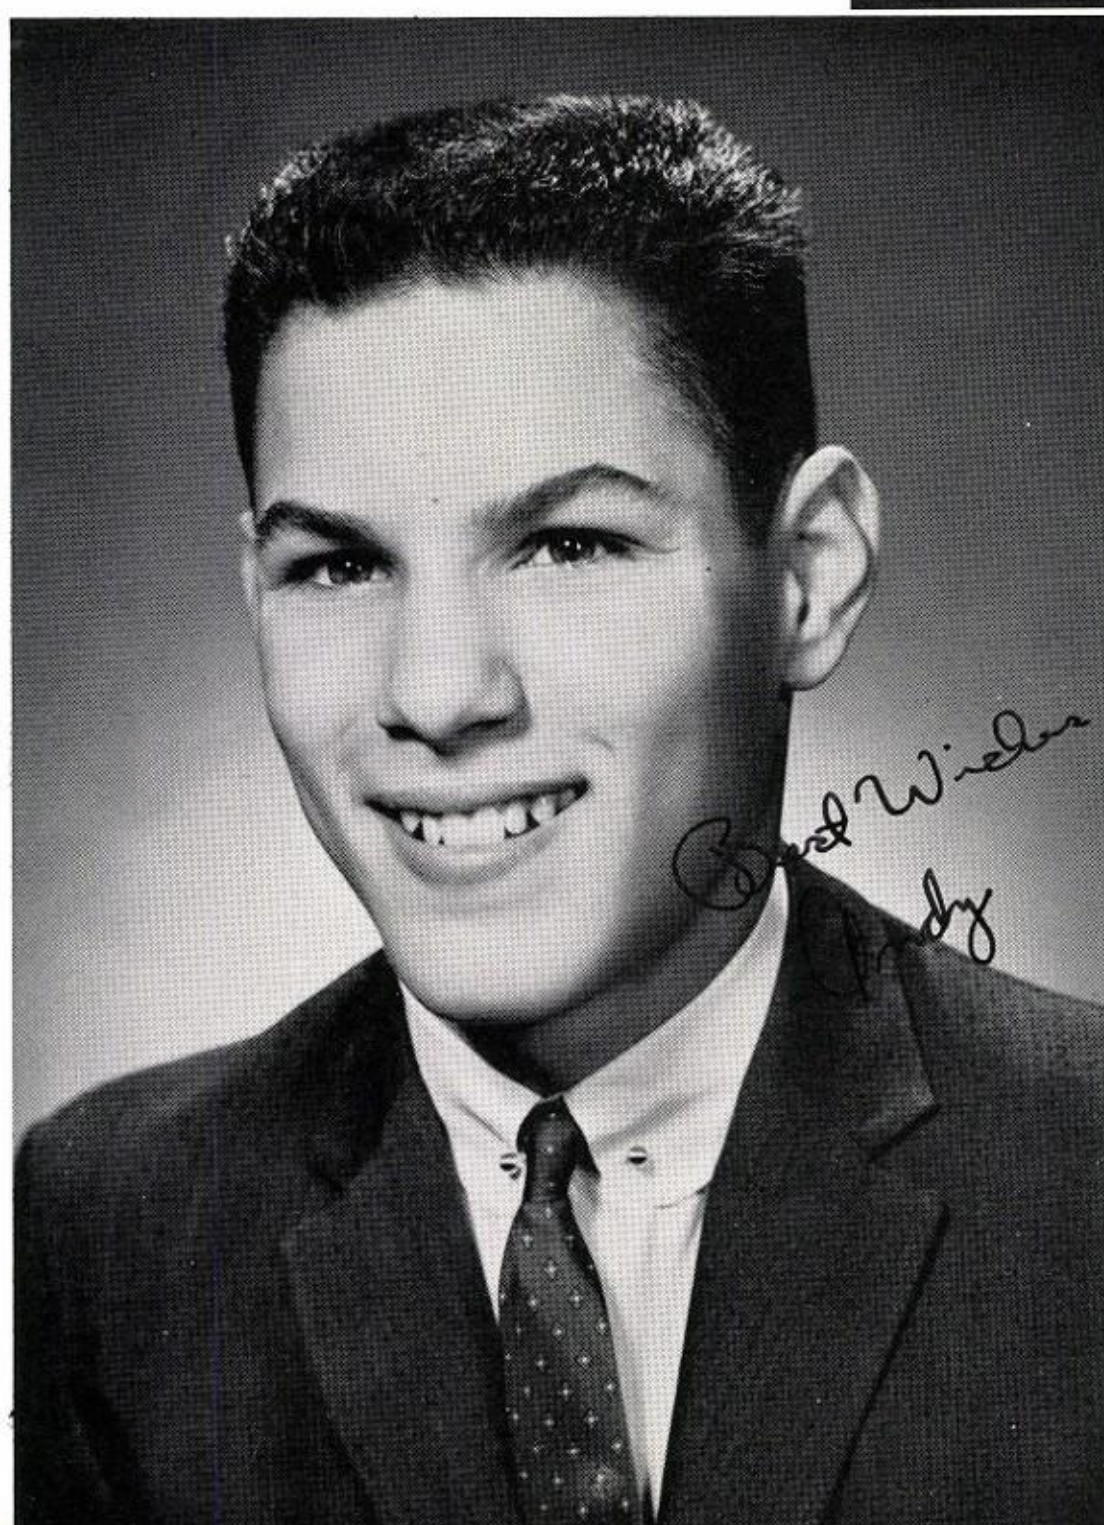

Gary, one of the most popular Junior boys, has distinguished himself in several fields. He is on the "A" football team, and is an active member of the Key Club.

SOPHOMORE FAVORITES

GINNETTE KING

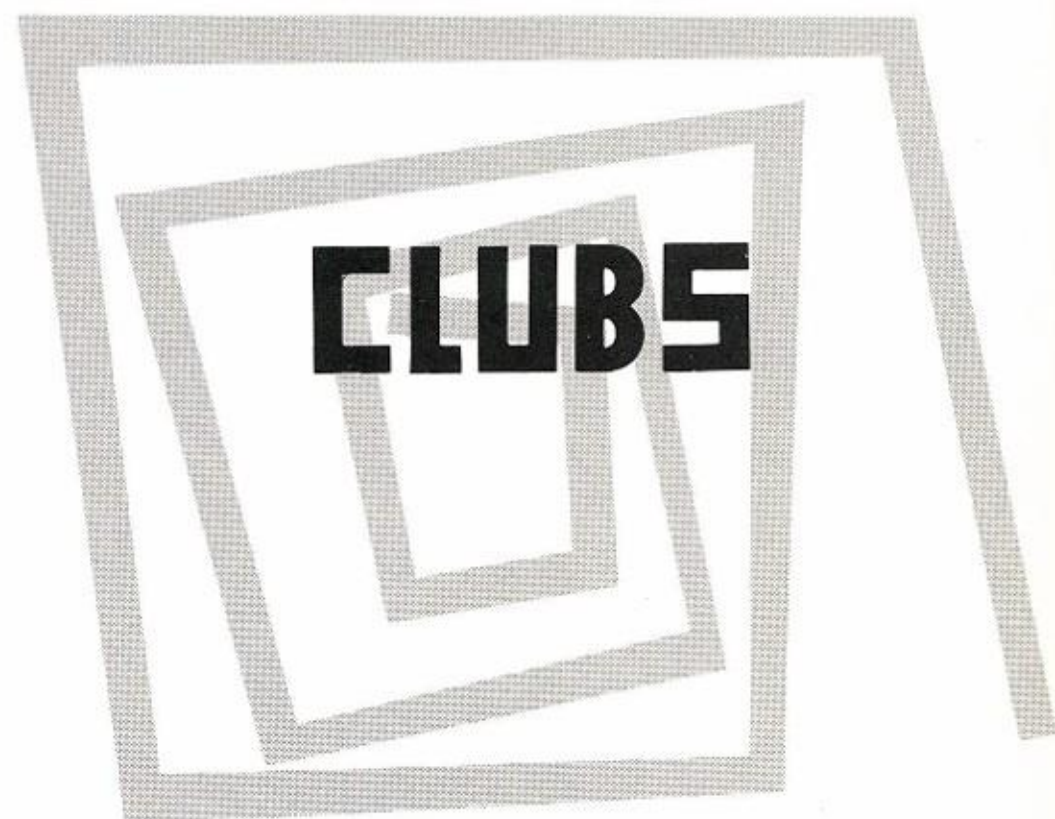

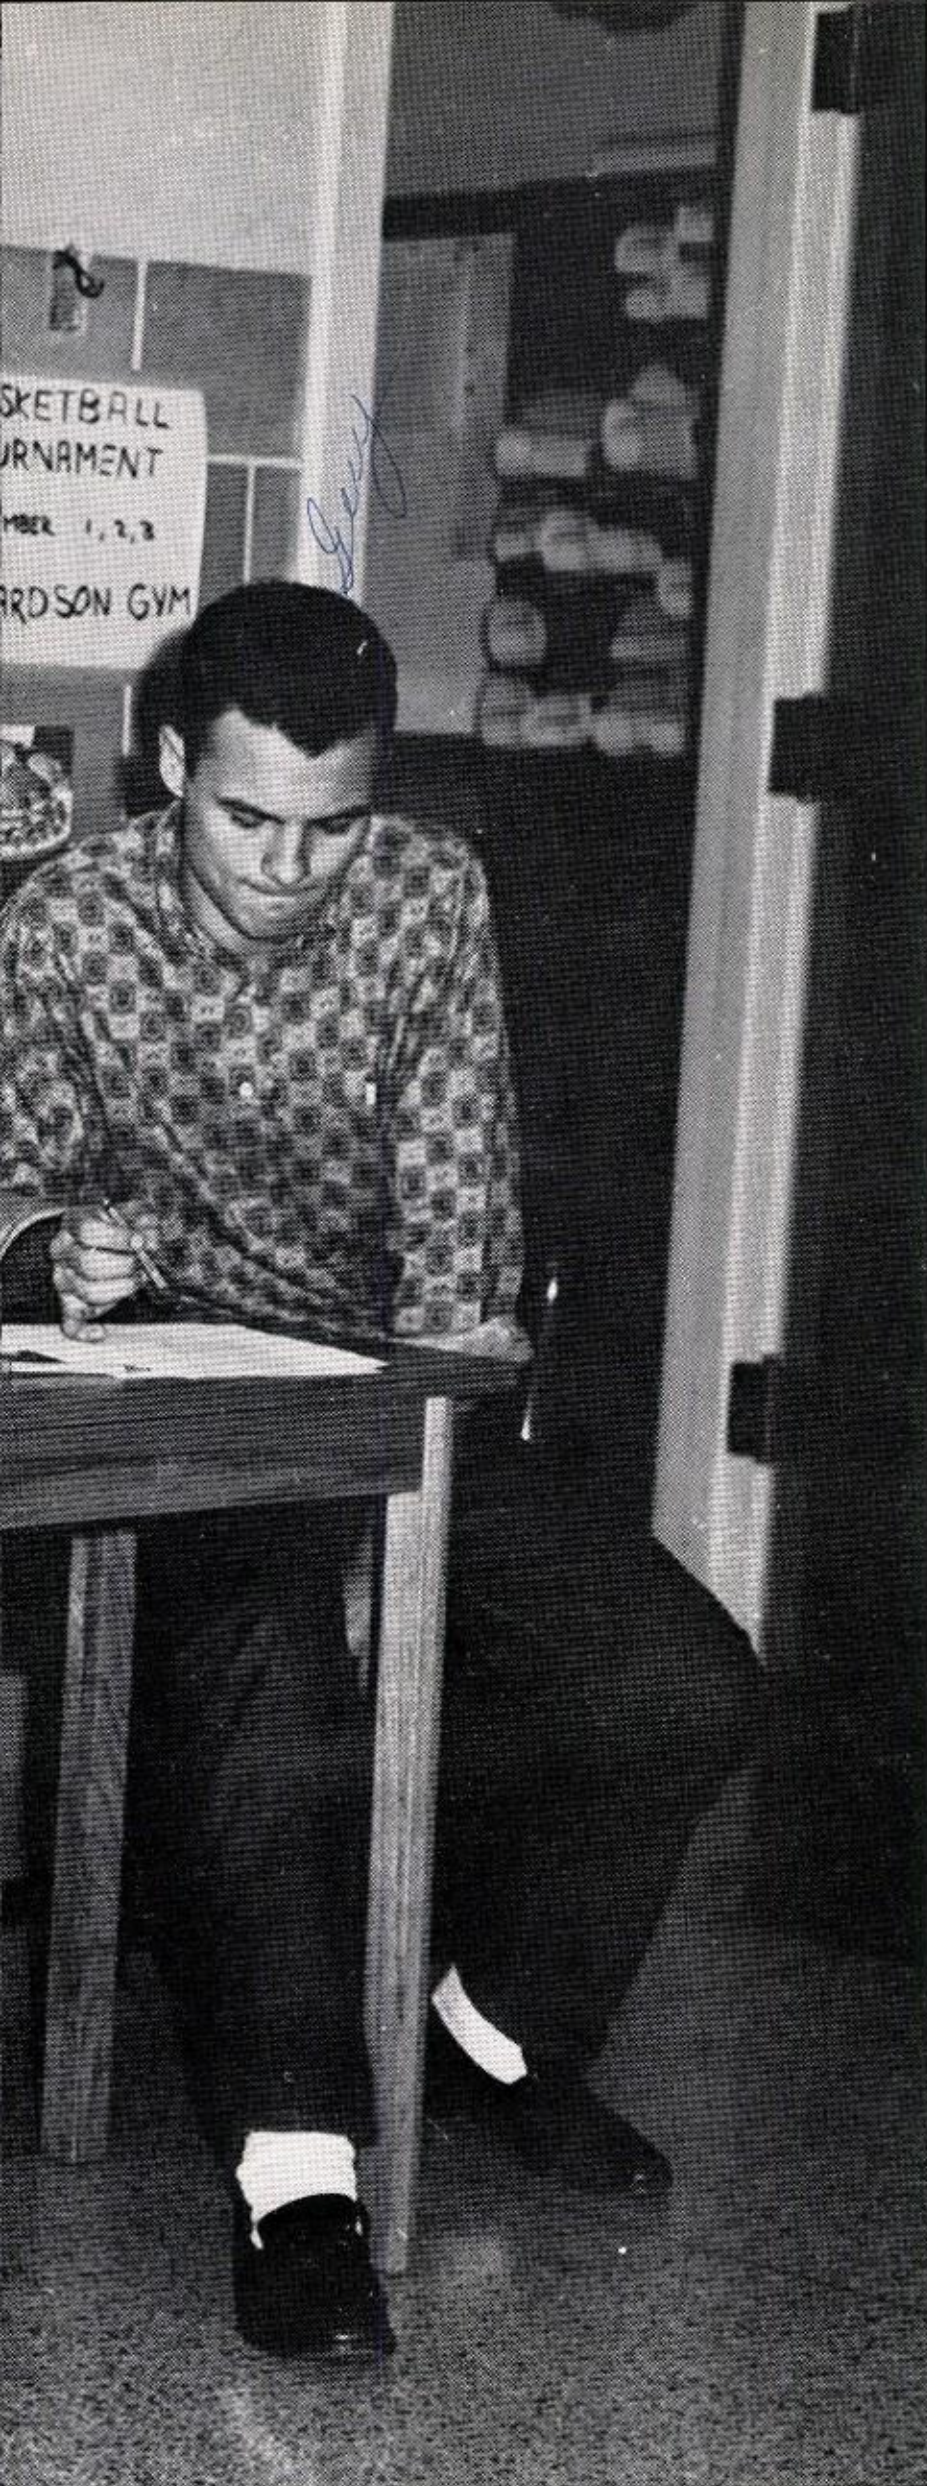

Ginnette's popularity springs from her school spirit. She is a cheerleader and vice-president of the sophomore class.

ANDY ROOKER

Andy also shows school spirit, but he does it by participating in varsity basketball and baseball and "B" team football. He is the treasurer of his class.

A number of clubs and organizations at R.H.S. provide outside interests for everyone. Service clubs, career clubs and educational clubs, as well as those clubs organized by students interested in a special subject such as a language, are found here.

Students are encouraged to join as many as three clubs which meet during activity periods. Various requirements must be met in order to become a member of specific clubs. Clubs earn money for their many worthwhile projects by selling candy, giving parties, and presenting special assemblies.

Many of the organizations at R.H.S. such as band and the "Talon" staff are closely associated with classes. Chapters of several nationally known clubs, including Future Homemakers of America, Future Teachers of America, National Honor Society, Key Club, and "Y" Teens are found at R.H.S.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Student Council is one of the most important organizations in the school. Officers and representatives making up this club are responsible for the student government of the school. Careful thought goes into the election of these students. Officers are chosen in the preceding semester after a week of campaigning. Representatives from each home room fill out applications and are then elected.

Many worthy ideas are offered. Some which have been used this year are Richardson book covers and car decals. The Student Council also brought the S.M.U. Concert Band here for an assembly at Christmas.

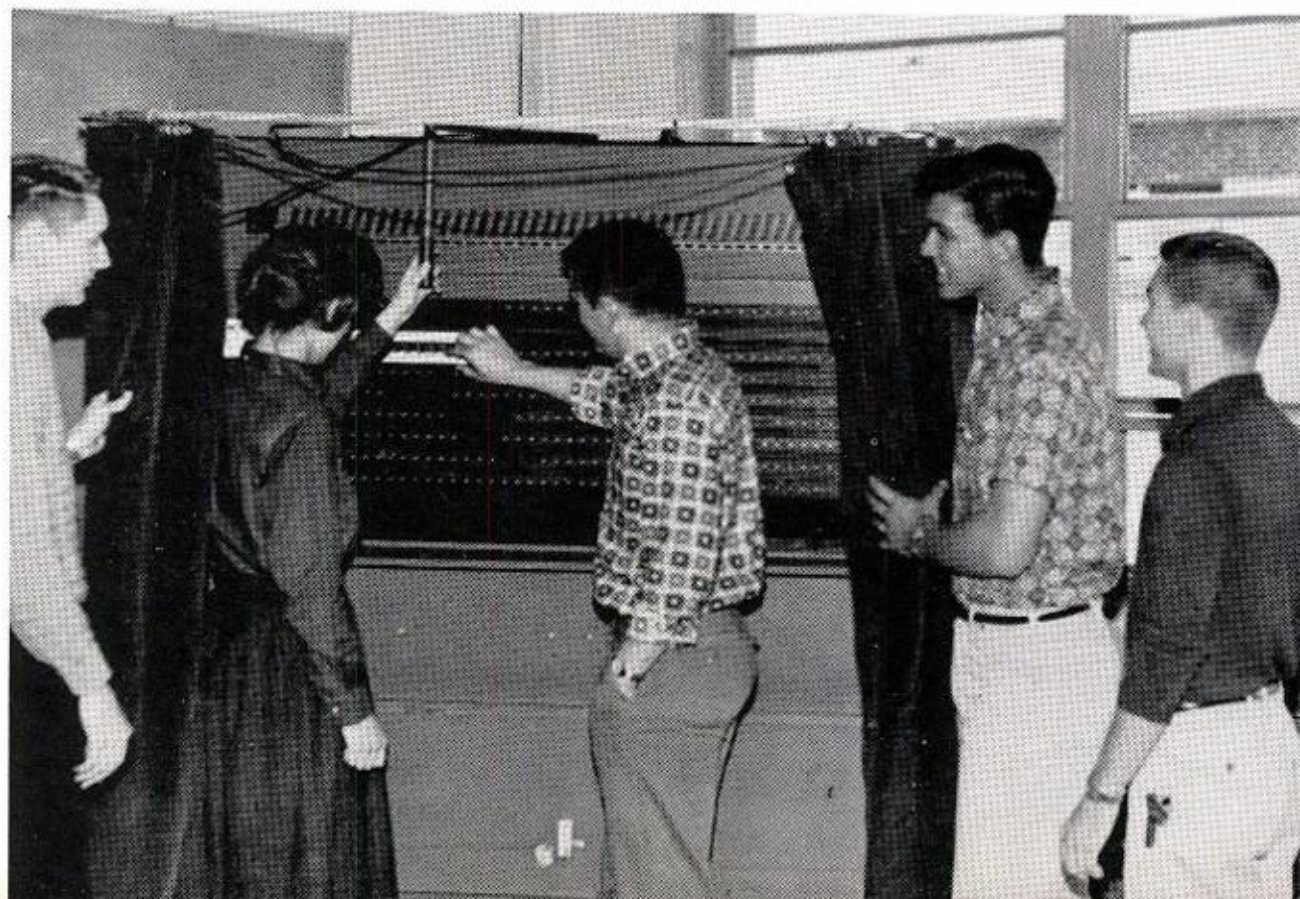

A great deal of work is needed for elections in which the Student Council has aided. Favorites elected in the fall, the election of outstanding students, and new Student Council officers were handled by the Student Council. Problems in the school are often discussed at meetings and possible solutions are offered to the administration.

Through the fine sponsorship of Mrs. Mann and students, R.H.S. has become a much better school.

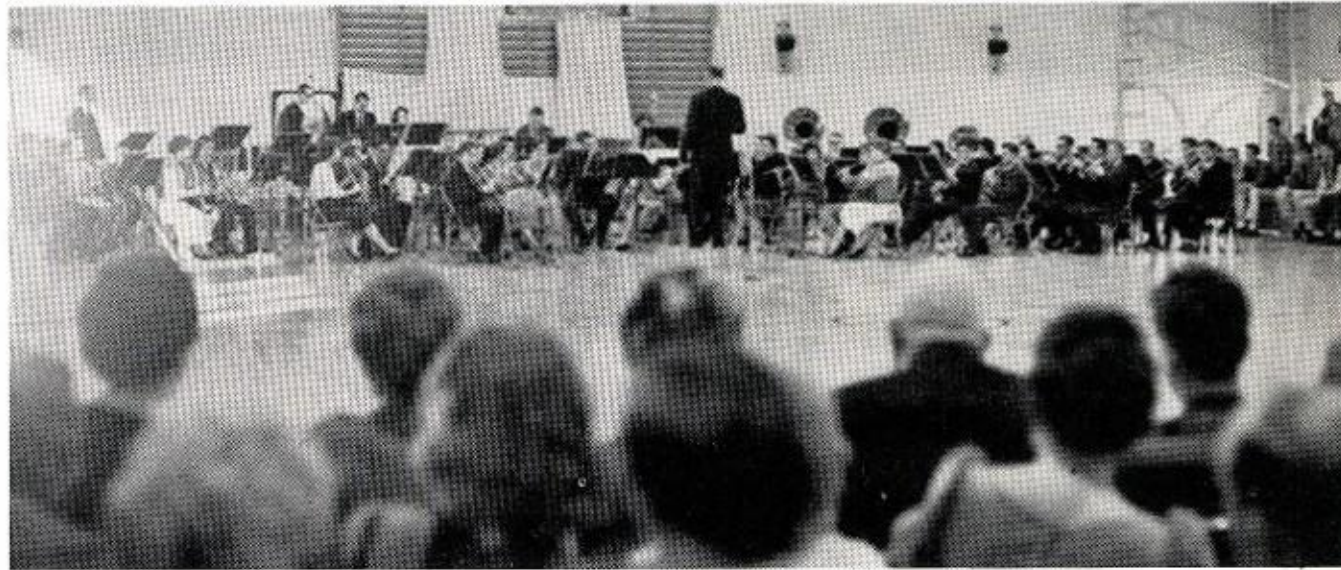

Suzanne Bealle and Linda Moore pay Amy Ceppert for their new Richardson Book Covers.

President Bobby Floyd, Vice-President Terry Oddson, and Secretary Tom Hartin watch as Teddy Chandler instructs Shirley Baccus in the use of the voting machine.

PROVIDES LINK BETWEEN STUDENTS-FACULTY

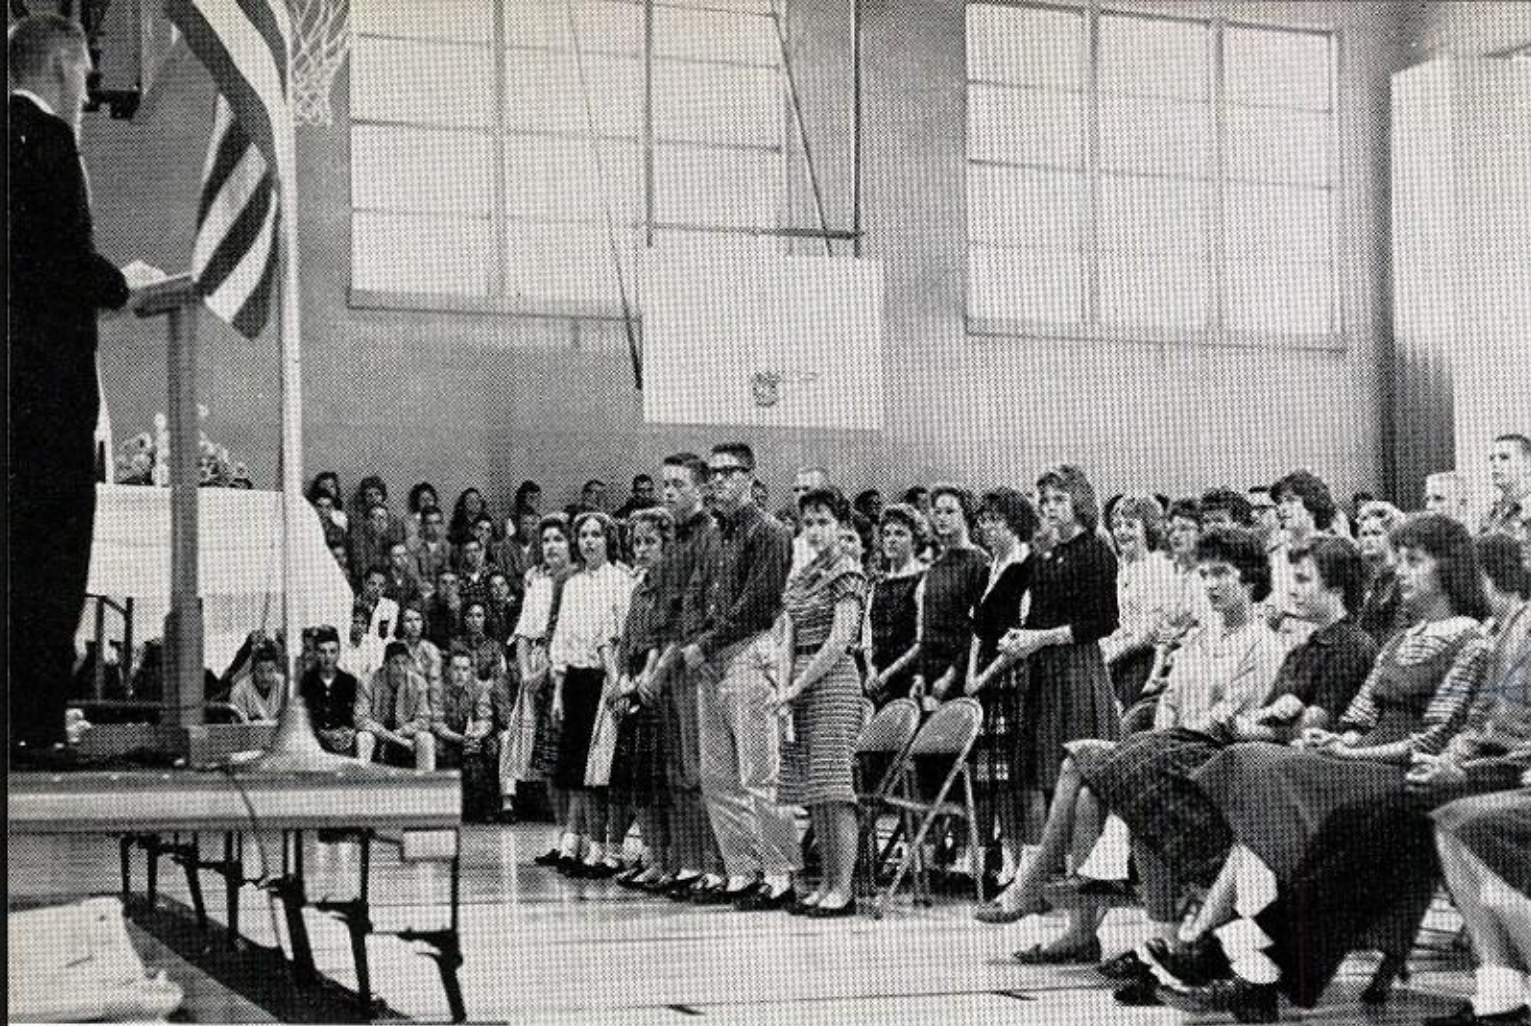

Richardson students and teachers listen intently as Mr. Oakley Pittman leads the S.M.U. Concert Band.

Mrs. Mann, Student Council sponsor, and representative, Gene Johnsey, count votes for favorites.

Betty Mullenweg represented R.H.S. at the State Student Council convention.

Bobby Floyd tells the new and probationary members the merits which they must uphold to be members of the National Honor Society.

June

HONOR SOCIETY WORKS TO SERVE SCHOOL AND COMMUNITY

In November, new members and probationary members of the National Honor Society were announced. These members were chosen on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character, and service. The purpose of the Honor Society is to serve the students and community. Throughout this year they have held to this aim.

After Christmas cards were collected. Members assembled them in scrapbooks which were given to children's hospitals. For bedridden adults, a magazine drive was held to furnish these people with more reading material.

During open house in the spring, Society members acted as hosts and guides. Members from the Society, who acted as tutors, offered aid to students needing help with their studies. These members hope, by their activities, to serve their purpose throughout the year.

President Joe Kenworthy smiles happily as Honor Society members volunteer for a committee.

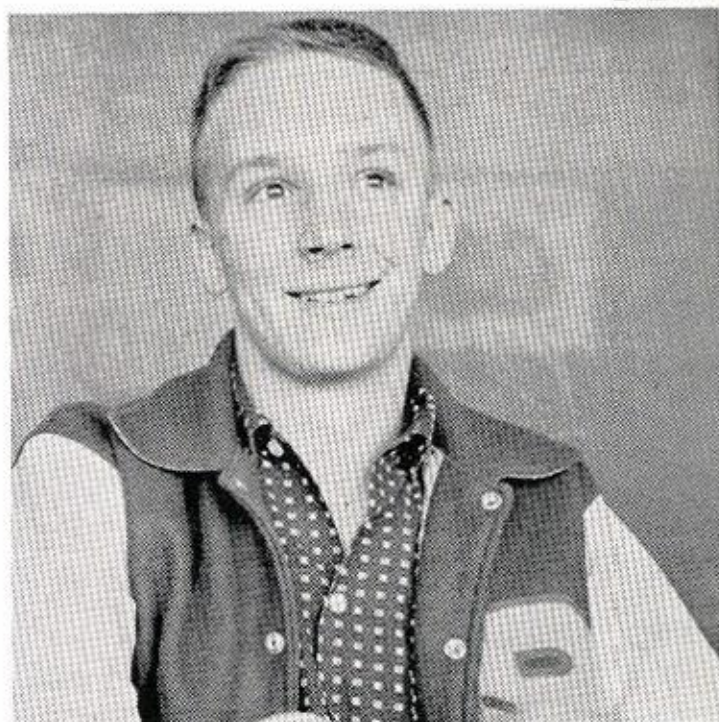

Pat Sloan and Donna Green explain Algebra and French techniques to Foster Baker and Buford Patterson.

KEY CLUB PROMOTES GOOD CITIZENSHIP

Key Club officers, Treasurer Bill Bain, President Terry Oddson, Secretary John Buchanan, and Vice-President Marty Wilbanks, enter a church, as a club participation idea.

Gary Dewalt received the high honor of being elected Lt. Governor of Division II.

Richardson students and teachers owe many thanks to the fine work of the Key Club. Each Thursday at assemblies they may be seen ushering Eaglites to chairs or into the stadium. By selling tickets for the Kiwanis Pancake Day, more funds were collected for the Golden Eagle Band and Eaglettes. At Christmas, these hard-working boys collected canned foods for needy families. They also offered funds for a new flag pole chain and the cleaning of the victory flag.

Men teachers are honored on their birthdays with ties, and the lady teachers with corsages by the club.

The Key Club has sponsored many activities this year. Among these were the driving Roade-o, a Key Club basketball tournament, and Career Day.

Gary Dewalt brought honor to the club when elected as Lt. Governor of Division II of the National Key Club.

New members are honored at a breakfast held at Kenny's restaurant.

CHEM-PHY LAUNCHES "BEAST"

Students in the Chem-Phy club, under the direction of Mr. Dumas, strive to broaden their knowledge of chemistry and physics by means of laboratory experiments and projects. During the past school year one scientific project has been the main goal of the club. This project was the successful construction and firing of a one stage, five foot, solid-fuel rocket, named "The Beast."

Mr. Dumas and Herbert Hoff display "The Beast" during open house.

The Chem-Phy officers Bobby Floyd, president; Don McKinney, vice-president; Nancy Beinke, secretary; Jerry Gray, treasurer; John Schoonbeck, reporter, discuss who will be forced to grind, by hand, some five pounds of sulfur for use as fuel in the "Beast."

Everyone seems to have an interest in the speaker, except the president of the club, Tim Roark.

TEXAS JETS

The members of the Junior Engineering club are mainly concerned in enlightening their knowledge in the field of engineering, so as to promote a wise choice in a career in this field.

The Jets is headed by Mr. Thompson, a chemistry teacher, and the officers are as follows: Tim Roark, president; Yvonne Bryson, vice-president; Penny Heumme, secretary-treasurer.

TWO NEW CLUBS PERFORM NEW SERVICES

One of the few brand new clubs formed this year is the Pals Club, a service organization devoted to carrying out worthwhile projects. An important project this year was the purchase of a new fifty-star flag, which was presented at a special assembly by Mark Ellsbury, president, and Todd Morriss, vice-president.

PALS

TALON

Mrs. Atwood displays an old Talon while pointing out mistakes in make-up.

The copy turned in by the reporters is printed on galleys, which Janet Jones is inspecting.

The "ripped-up" galleys are then pasted to dummies of the pages as Annette Hardin and Gail Surratt are doing.

Talon Editors Annette Hardin, Janet Jones, Kay Epperson, Judy Odom, Susan Bush, and Jeanne Swahn giggle as they tell Mrs. Atwood of a mistake in copy.

Members of the staff read and correct the galleys. What did you find, Karen Gaston?

This is the Talon, the voice of the Eagle. It is the brain child of Mrs. Atwood's sixth period journalism class. The paper, published every two weeks, must inform the student body of all current events and issues.

Those who know the Talon and have helped to create it have come to love it. This year, the Talon editors have fallen heir to five commandments in which their responsibilities, duties, hopes, and aims are personified.

1. The Talon must not injure or deprive anyone, but it must print the truth.
2. The Talon must be worth reading.
3. A formula must be developed consisting of just enough good journalism that the public will enjoy its benefits.
4. One must strive to better the paper.
5. One must heed his instructions, and, at the same time, use his own initiative and abilities.

Under these sanctions, The Talon Staff knows that the paper will grow and better itself along with the school.

At last, the finished product! Pam Morgan practices her sales approach on the willing Judy Odom.

The Talon

Published bi-weekly during the school year except holidays and examination periods by the members of the Journalism class of Richardson High School, 450 Abrams Road, Richardson, Texas.

TALON EDITORS:

TALON STAFF:

Sharon Bowling, Carol Burke, Mary Alice Evans, Carol Finley, Barbara Fuller, Karen Gaston, Janice Gray, Carol Groves, Pam Harrison, Ruby Hilliard, Lana Kimberlin, Carol Lynch, Chuck Montgomery, Kay Moody, Pam Morgan, Nancy Tooley, and Elaine Wilson.

ADVISER:

Mrs. Maurine Atwood.

Carolyn Deuback was chosen annual Holly Hop Queen out of all the Dallas county chapters of Y-Teens.

CAROLYN DEUBACK CHOSEN HOLLY HOP QUEEN

Y-Teens officers include Mary Johnson, Sandy Murphy, Carolyn Deuback, Beverly Hoskins, Jo Ellen Altman, and Judy Odom.

Y-Teen club is an organization in which Christian girls join together to learn and have fun. They learn to help others as well as themselves through various programs. They try to have programs that are interesting and vital to each member of the club such as a Powers model who came to give beauty tips to the club.

To help its members grow as a person is the main purpose of the club. They do so through service projects and group participation in the parties and programs.

G.R.A. MEMBERS WORK

G.R.A. members toss ball in the air to begin another basketball game.

Club sponsor, Mrs. Fickertt, conducts business meeting to determine success of G.R.A.

FOR SPORTS AWARDS

Over 100 girls take part 2 days a week in the Girls' Recreation Association. This organization provides opportunities for all girls to participate in a variety of sports, recreation, and related cultural and social activities which contribute to their physical, mental, social and emotional well-being.

Girls are divided into teams. These girls win points during each game for attendance and participation, and acting as captains, referees and scorekeepers. Awards are given for points earned.

Activities include volleyball, speed-a-way, basketball, table tennis, tennis, archery, softball, tumbling and dancing. Richardson's G.R.A. also held a Volleyball tournament (intramural) inviting 10 different schools to the tournament.

Sue Williams argues a point with team member Bonnie Boyer.

G.R.A. officers are Linda Morris, Sharon Sanford, Ellen Hudnall, Janet Jones and Linda Abbott.

LE CERCLE DE FRANCAIS E JUDIE LES COUTUMES

LE CERCLE de FRANÇAIS, French club, promotes interest in the French language and customs. This year through various activities, the sponsor Mrs. Horner, has given the members many inspiring ideas.

Various speakers such as an exchange student and people who have traveled in France revealed much to the club about life in France. Movies and food of the country help the members to understand more about how these people live.

French Club members celebrate Christmas by singing French carols.

LATIN CLUB REVIVES INTEREST IN ANCIENT ROME

Under the sponsorship of Mr. Barr, great activity is produced when the Latin Club meets. The games the members play encourage better understanding of Latin and Roman customs. After Linda Caldwell, president, opens the meeting, Jack Carrington leads a game of Scrabulae or Scrabularum. Sometime a book report is given by one of the members. Roman costumes are represented by togas and head-dresses. Wine (grapejuice) adds the finishing touch to an interesting activity period.

Judy Odom, treasurer, and Jo Ellen Altman, vice-president, show club members the toga of Roman times.

Mrs. Weir, P.A.S.F. sponsor, demonstrates things typical of Mexico and Chile.

P.A.S.F. ESTUDIA CHILE

Doctor Wayne Staecker and Nurse Jean Becker demonstrate on a patient the fine skills of a Spanish doctor.

Unit I and II of the Pan-American Student Forum is composed of first, second, and third year Spanish students and is headed by Mrs. Mary Helen Cardwell. Through films, tape recordings, and lectures on South America, the P.A.S.F. members hope to gain a greater insight into the lives and history of our southern neighbors. In the spring, fifteen of these students will attend a state wide P.A.S.F. meeting in Austin where they hope to learn more about Latin America as well as how to convey this information to the other club members.

Spanish books, donated by the National P.A.S.F., offer interesting, though difficult reading for P.A.S.F. II members.

BEAUX ART CLUB WORKS TO BEAUTIFY THE SCHOOL

Students interested in art help to decorate the school and to promote school spirit in the Beaux Arts Club. For holiday spirit, the trophy case is painted with a picturesque scene, and the cafetorium is decorated. During the year gay posters to produce school spirit fill the halls. Those who are to paint these are appointed by either Mr. Johnson or the president. With the fine art work of these students, the school has become more attractive, and they have shown an interest in improving it.

A gay winter scene, painted by Susan Smith and Sue Parker, helps to add Christmas spirit.

Officers for Beaux Arts this year are: BACK ROW: Judy Nelson, Secretary, and Tommie Spencer, Program Chairman. Sitting at the table are Mary Garrett, President, and Becki Stevens, Vice-President.

By checking through new books and making book cards, Hi-Li members learn much about library work.

HI-LI MEMBERS STUDY LIBRARY TECHNIQUES

Anyone interested in books, and organization of a library may better their knowledge in the Hi-Li Club. Club members render services in keeping the cards and books in order. Those interested in library work for a career learn more about procedures that the library follows, techniques for improving libraries, and offering better books. The officers are President, Ann Combest; Vice-President, Carol Groves; Secretary, Kay Dillion; and Reporter, Elizabeth Carr.

The ten keys to good citizenship open the lock for a better life say the Future Homemakers in an assembly program.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS PREPARE TO MAKE A HOUSE A HOME

Growth in the population of Richardson High School has led to the formation of two homemaking clubs. Through membership in this club, girls learn how to be prepared for married life. This includes cooking, sewing, and making the "house a home." A leadership council to plan an area meeting was held early this year. The president from the Richardson Junior High School joined presidents Carol Mims and Sheila Carrington.

A dinner to be held this year will have a menu of foreign dishes to be made by each homemaking class. Two assemblies were held by F.H.A. The first honored the football boys and the second was held for the F.H.A. beaux, Viet Heidbrink and Mike Rutledge.

Jeanie Miller, Carol Mims, and Sheila Carrington, Presidents of F.H.A. groups of Richardson, meet to discuss an area meeting.

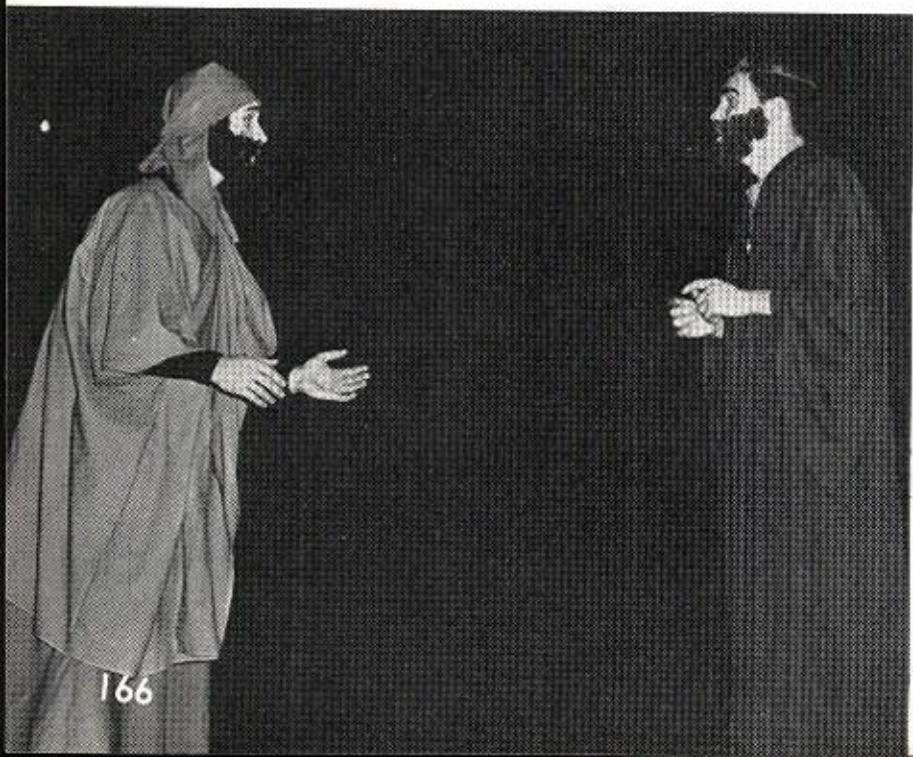

"And they came with haste and found Mary and Joseph and the babe lying in the manger."

"Father, I beg you!" pleads Joseph of Tarchus the priest.

Prompter Loyce S. gives Roger Rice his lines as Mrs. Gray wonders whether the play will ever be over.

Nancy Tooley and Linda James dress in "Hill-William" costumes for the club.

A SUCCESSFUL SEASON

"Listen ye people! . . . Now nears the hour of Christmas!" These words began Playhouse R.H.S.'s first play of the season. "Unto Thy Doors," a choric drama of the Nativity, by Rollin W. Coyle, was successfully presented on December twentieth in Greenville Ave. School auditorium. This Christmas play, something new at Richardson, was suggested by the club's new sponsor, Mrs. Gray.

As a publicity stunt, various members of the club have dressed in costumes for club meetings.

During the year people have dressed as beatniks, football players and Romonoos. Another play will be done in the spring for students and citizens of Richardson.

Under the fine direction of Mrs. Gray and Mr. McCaslin, P.R.H.S. has promoted drama for club members and other students.

JUNIOR RED CROSS

A party was sponsored to raise money to enroll the entire school in Junior Red Cross. Through the art department, pictures of typical American activities were drawn to send to other countries. The band and choir participated in International Music for which they recorded music to send to other countries. A birthday party was given at Woodlawn Convalescent Hospital. Cake, punch, presents and entertainment were taken to the patients who had birthdays that month.

CAREER GIRLS

Career Girls president Linda Caldwell introduces a guest speaker at a club meeting.

Under the direction of Mrs. Stokes, the Career Girls study different careers available to women. Most of the girls plan to go into secretarial or office work as soon as they graduate.

Members of the Slide Rule Club perfect their touch by working problems during club meetings.

SLIDE RULE CLUB OFFERS INTEREST IN HIGHER MATH

This year, as in the past, the slide rule club is under the direction of Mrs. Mann, advanced math teacher. The club covers not only the use of the slide rule in performing simple multiplication, but also studies the more advanced uses of the slide rule. These more advanced operations include Trigonometric functions and recipivials.

Club officers are Don McKinney, president; Dick Ramser, secretary; and Tom Noteware, vice-president.

PROJECTION CLUB HAS DUAL ROLE

Due to the important part visual aids play in modern education, the Projection Club has a double role. It not only provides enjoyment for the members, but it also aids the school in training projector operators.

Projection Club sponsor, Mr. Randall, points out some of the intricacies of the projector while Larry Sexton expounds his theories of projection to Bill Worthy.

Future Nurses listen attentively and ask questions of guest speakers.

Speakers from various fields of medicine have come to talk to the Future Nurses about psychiatric nursing, Air Force nursing and office nursing.

At Christmas the club took gifts to a home for the aged and served refreshments.

They plan to roll bandages for the Junior Red Cross for their spring project.

At right, the Future Nurses officers: president, Carol Barrett; vice-president, Debbie Deering; secretary, Patsy Sherritt; and treasurer, Ruth Ann Rennels begin planning for their annual yearbook.

In March delegates will be sent to the State Convention in Corpus Christi to elect State officers and to plan the activities for the following year.

Also in March a field trip will be taken to Southwestern Medical Center.

Other officers of the Future Nurses club include Beverly Prewitt, reporter; Maureen Holmes and Suzanne Moore, historians; and Sarah Cloud, chaplain.

Officers Patsy Sherritt, Carol Barrett, Ruth Ann Rennels, and Debbie Deering discuss plans for next meeting.

FUTURE NURSES PLAN CAREERS IN MEDICINE

President Carol Barrett serves refreshments to new club members.

FUTURE TEACHERS SUBSTITUTE IN GRADE SCHOOLS

Future Teachers officers are Elizabeth Carr, Sandra Pasnicky, Sheila Carrington, Mary Johnson, and Vicky Johnson.

Linda Abbott acts as a substitute teacher for 6th Grade Geography Class.

Teachers from different fields of work have come to speak to this club on the opportunities of teaching. This club was organized to interest high school students in teaching as a career. The members are also given the opportunity to do substitute teaching. Films are shown at club meetings about the different professions.

Students are sent to the elementary schools to do substitute teaching in such classes as: math, science, geography, and study halls.

Students gain valuable experience having been given these opportunities.

RELIGIOUS COUNCIL PRESENTS MORNING DEVOTIONALS

President Norman Young presides at meeting of Religious Council.

Each morning a devotional and the thought for the day is given over the P.A. system to the students of R.H.S. These programs are presented by the Religious Council.

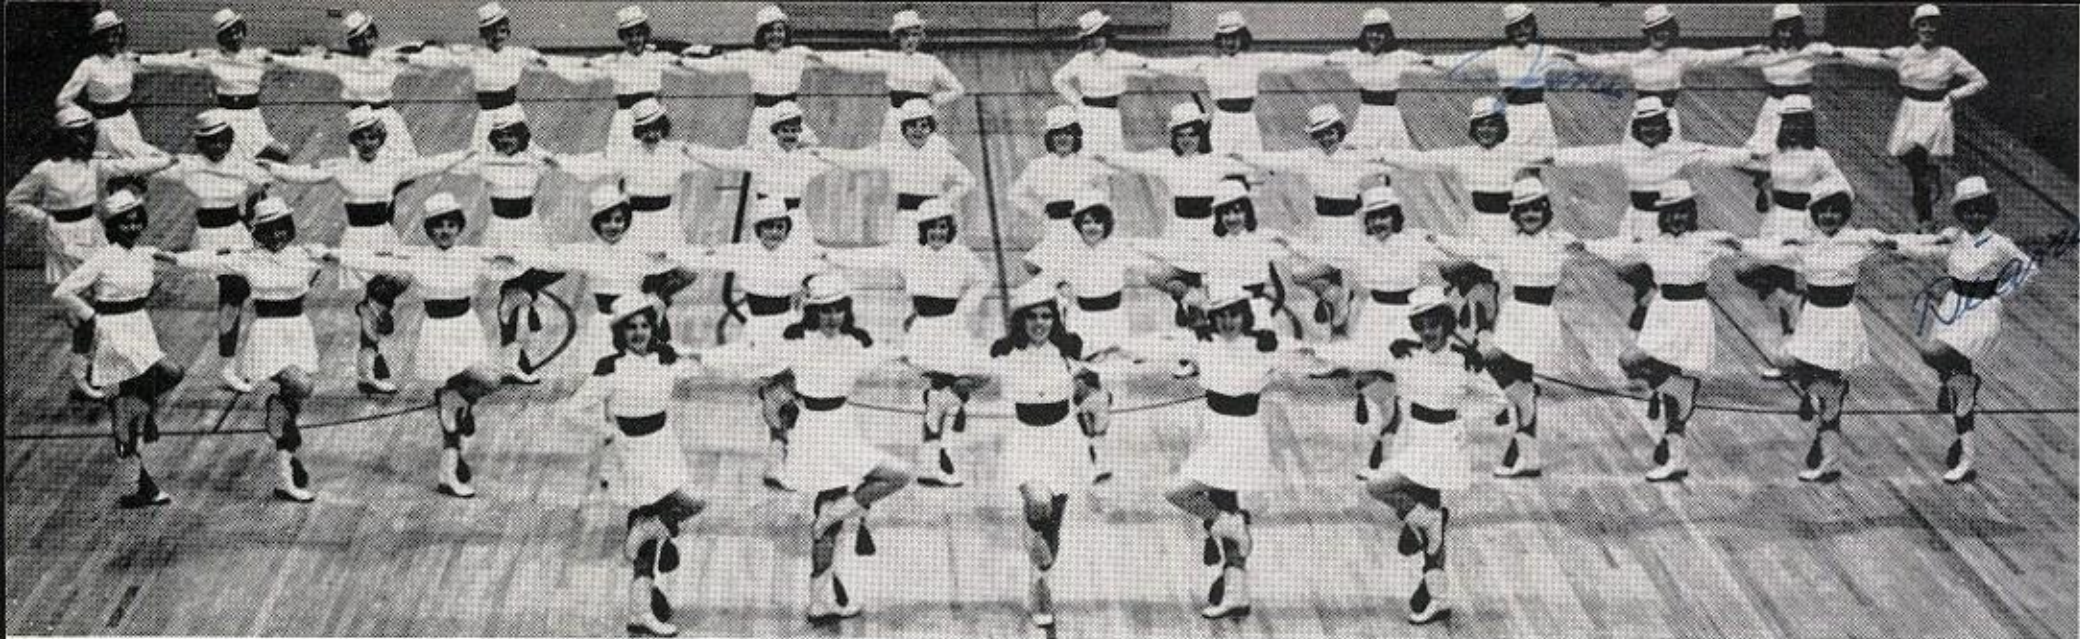

During basketball season, a dance was sponsored with cans of food for admission.

An assembly was given called "They shall have no other God before Me."

At their club meetings, discussions of different denominations were held.

Each year Easter morning services are sponsored by the club with a guest minister and the R.H.S. choir.

Officers include: Norman Young, president; Susan Fickertt, vice-president; Kay Dillon, secretary; and treasurer, Roberta Franklin.

CHEERLEADERS, EAGLETTES

Eaglettes is the name given to the fifty girls in R.H.S.'s drill team. Every spring new girls are chosen to replace graduating Eaglettes. Also the leaders of the drill team, the captain, the three senior lieutenants, and the one junior lieutenant, are chosen in the spring. August brings the beginnings of practice for this team of girls. With the help of the lieutenants, the captain teaches the line the routines she learned at a special drill team school at S.M.U. Besides performing at half time of football and basketball games, the Eaglettes kick up their heels at pep rallies. The Eaglettes do their best to do their real job, boosting Eagle spirit.

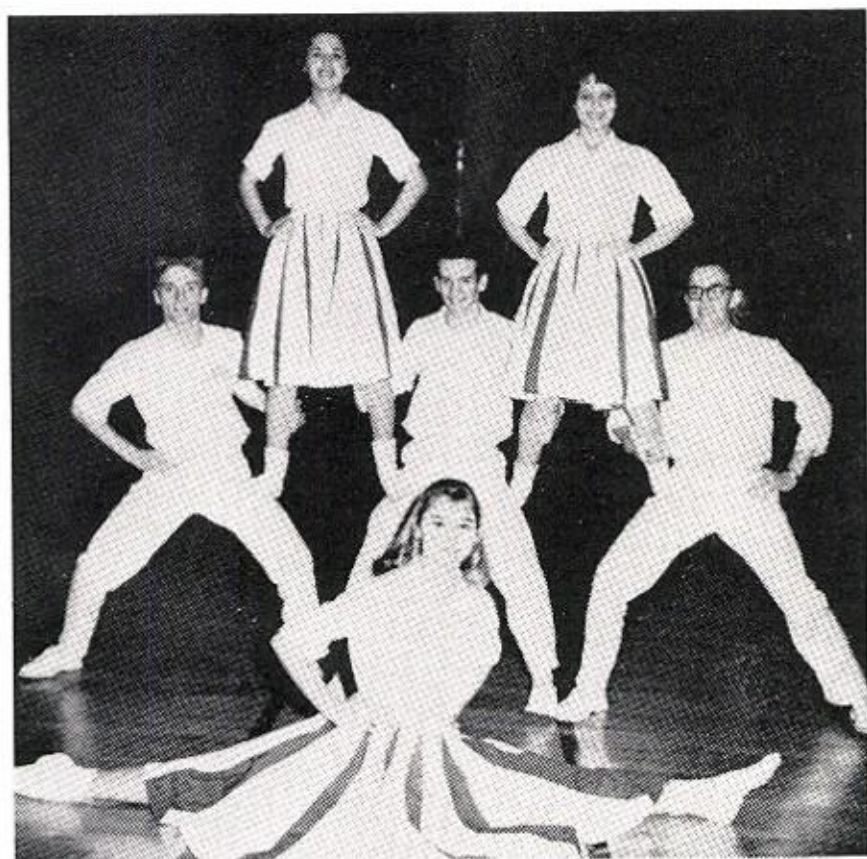

As business managers, Joy Christensen and Dianne Burkhalter aid Mrs. Sara Fickertt, the Eaglette sponsor. Mrs. Fickertt sees that all routines are perfected before each game, and is always available when an Eaglette needs advice.

The Eaglettes finish their famous routine with the shout of cha-cha-cha.

The cheerleaders show their gymnastic abilities.

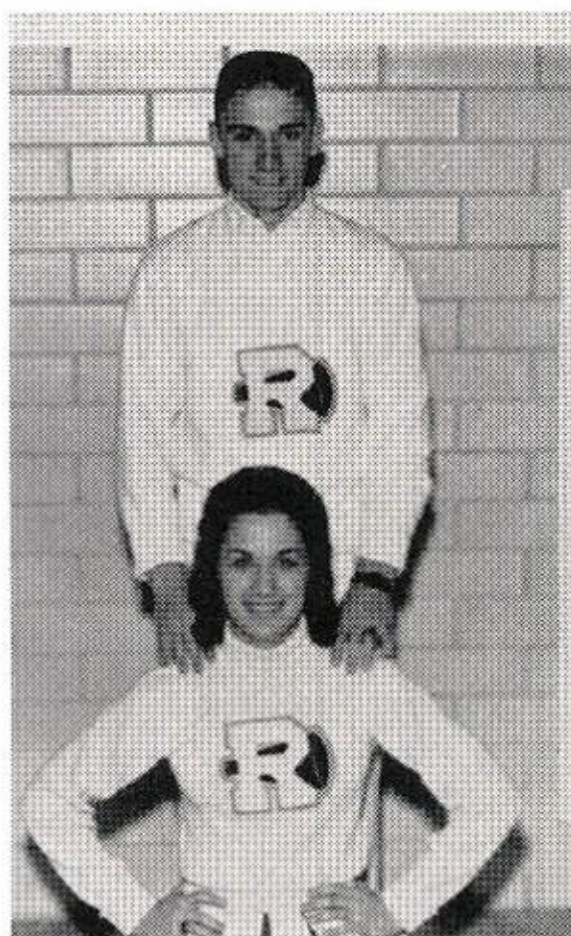

"We've got the spirit on our team, it's gr-eat!" Richardson's six cheerleaders strive to make this true. Chosen each spring for the coming year, the three boys and three girl cheerleaders perfect cheers during the summer for use at games and pep rallies.

They boost spirit by making fitting speeches over the P.A. system and during pep rallies. They have livened up pep rallies and games this year with the use of tumbling and original cheers.

These hard working students have given much to support their school and teams.

EAGLE SPIRIT CONTINUES

The Eaglettes display spirit in the stands as they go through a stand routine at homecoming.

Eddie Russell tries to tell the stars that the Eagles are best!

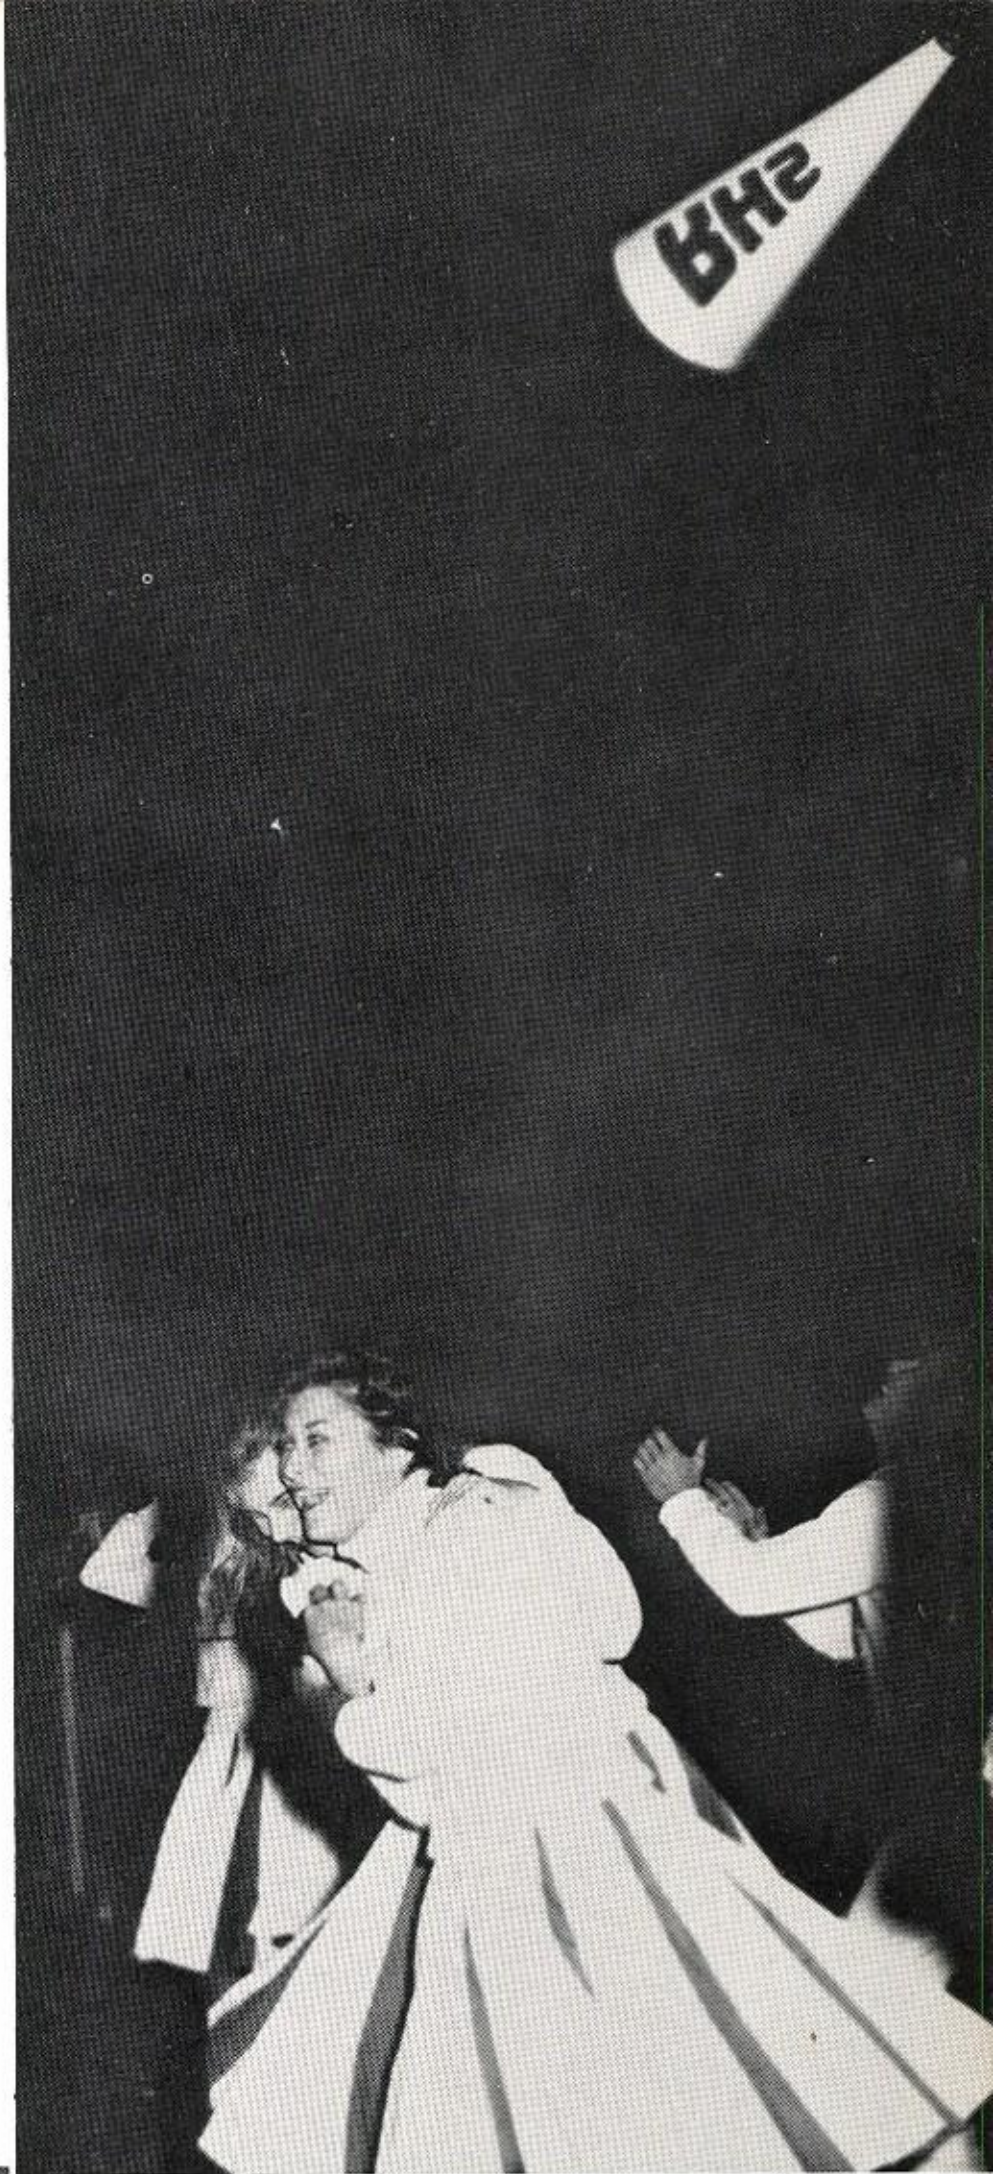

The Cheerleaders hope the team can hear as they yell "Go, fight, win!"

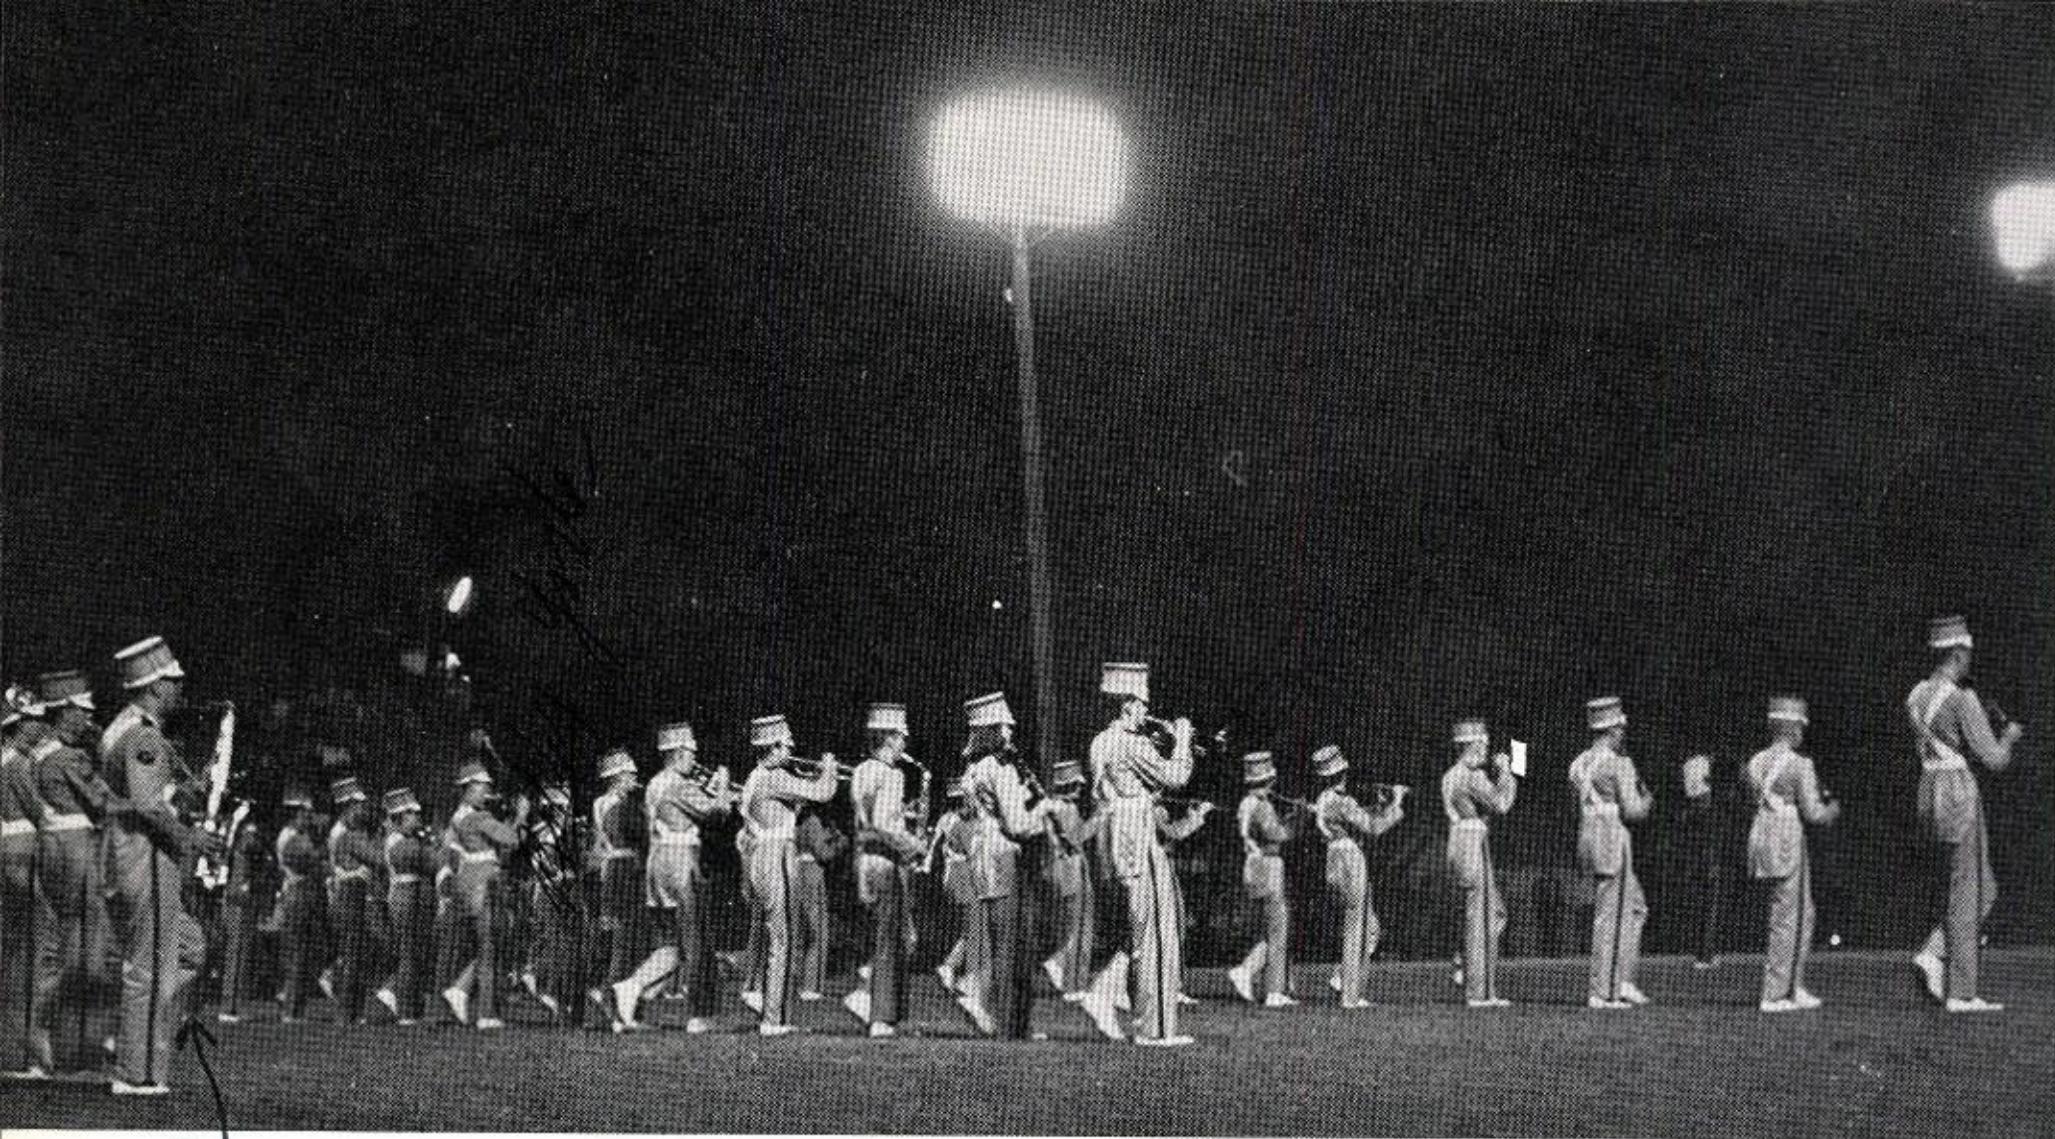

THROUGHOUT THE YEAR

The cheerleaders go wild when the Eagles make a touchdown.

The Eaglettes want to be the first to congratulate their victorious Eagles.

Under the blazing lights of the football field diligent practice bears its fruit.

THE GOLDEN EAGLE BAND PUTS R.H.S SPIRIT TO MUSIC

Another successful performance ended, the Golden Eagle Band members smile as they march off the field.

Band members practice diligently to extract precision out of chaos.

THROUGH DILIGENT PRACTICE

Spirit is put to music by the Golden Eagle Band. Present at pep rallies, football games and halftime performances, the band helps spread Eagle spirit.

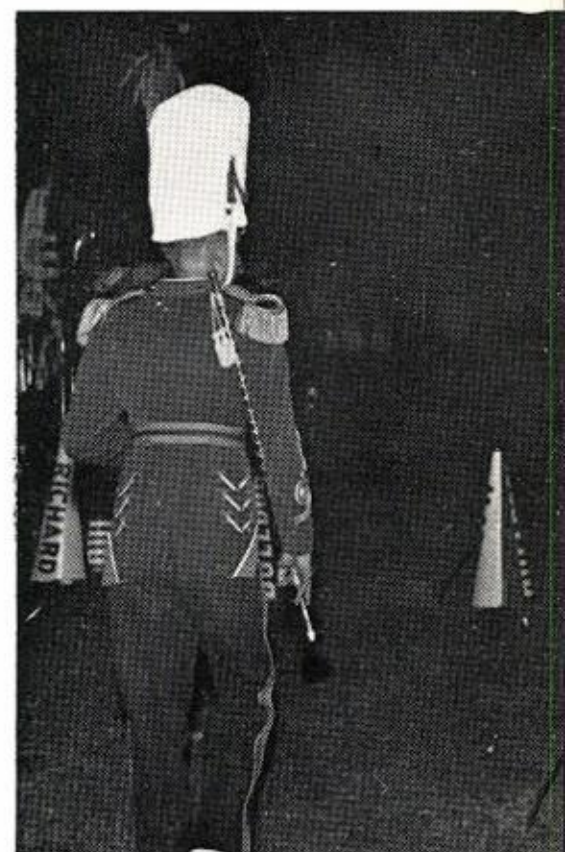

Each year the band attends marching contest at T.C.U. Many bands from North Texas participate in this event. The bands are judged on their marching and playing abilities by band directors from outstanding college and high school bands. As last year, the band received a first division, the highest award possible.

For the football game against the Plano Lion's Club and the Richardson Lions' Club, the band put on a clown show. Majorettes Norman Young, Mark Ellsberry, Bobby Rice and Kenneth Wincorn had their premier performances. Half of the profits went to the band.

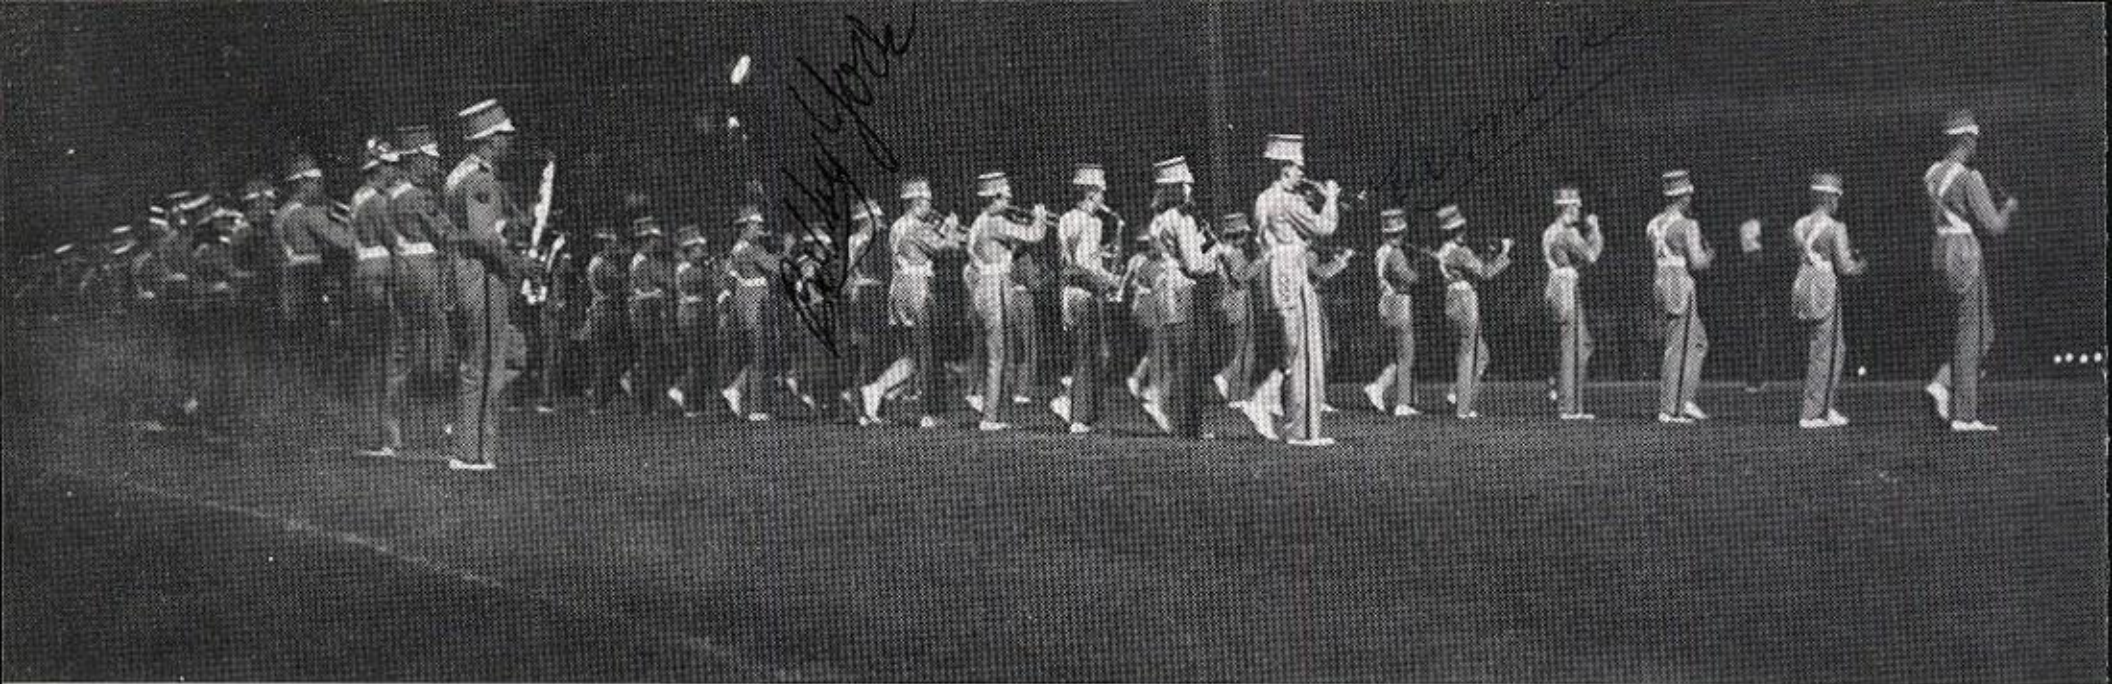

A stereoband was the spectacular show of the football season. The band was divided into equal parts to produce that stereo effect that thrilled many crowds.

New uniforms are the goal for this year. From the candy sales, the Turkey Dinner, the profits from the Kiwanis Pancake Supper and the spring concert, money is being made. Plans are being made to set up an organization governed entirely by band members.

Drum Major Bobby Floyd wanders aimlessly up and down the sideline in search of the band, mumbling, "I don't care anything about it."

As the big day arrives, everyone prepares to leave for Brewer, but Judy Handley jumps in the air, dances lightly about looking everywhere for her clarinet.

GOLDEN EAGLE BAND AND MAJORETTES

The Golden Eagle Band ends the performance as the Eaglettes wait for their cue.

After a successful marching season, the Golden Eagle Band begins their concert season. First on the list is Interscholastic League Playing contest. Different members prepare a solo and in some cases an ensemble to be played before a judge for a rating. After this is Festival Playing Contest. A member can then play his solo or ensemble again. Following this, the band attends Playing Contest. The Band prepares these numbers to be played before three judges. Then that same day, they go to sight reading contest. This spring the band will present a concert.

Mr. White sits back and relaxes after a tedious day of yelling at the band.

"How dare they copy our routine!" sulk Beverly Waggoner and Jean Lee.

Senior Bev Waggoner demonstrates her talents for football fans.

DISPLAY THEIR TALENTS ON THE FIELD AND ON THE STAGE

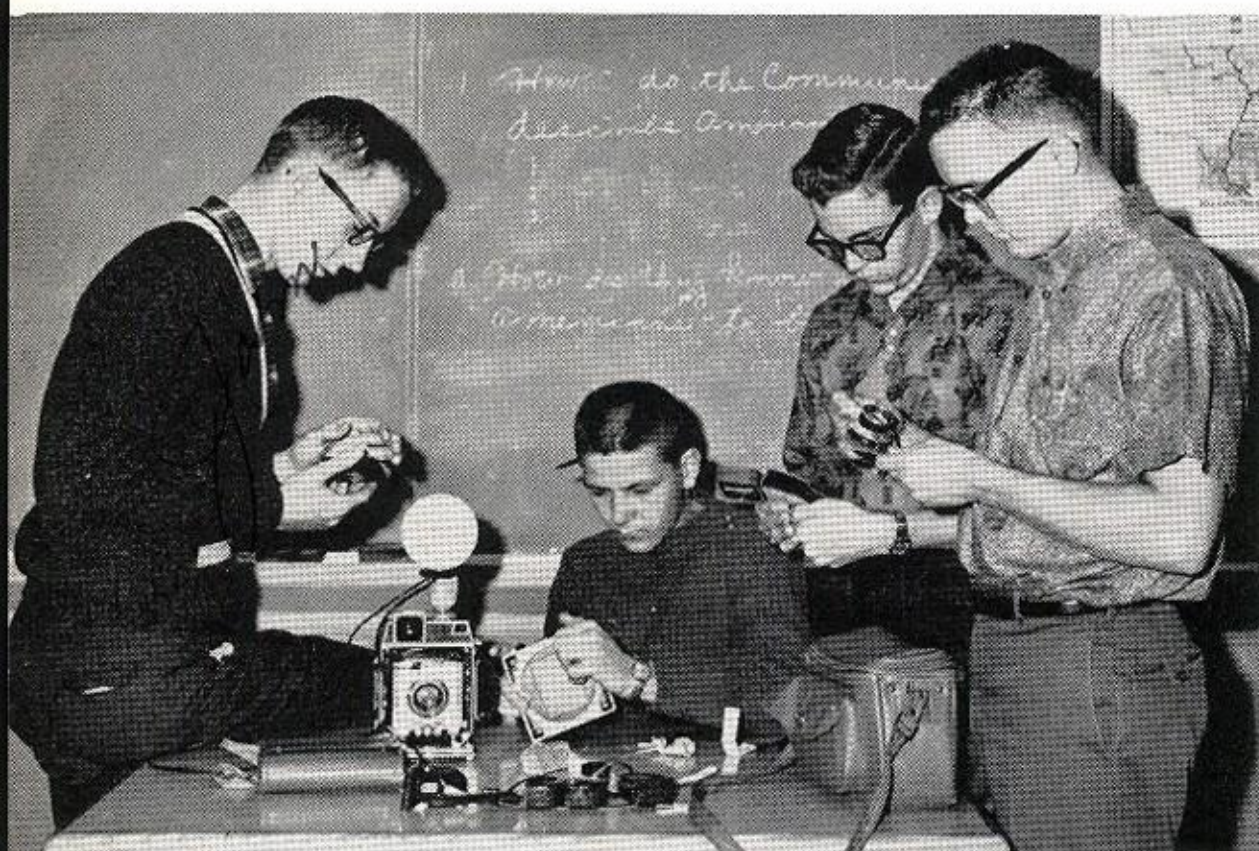

Alternates, Sheila Carrington, Judith Roberts and Carol Burke twirl before a judge at contest at T.C.U.

Photographers, John Tarvin, Larry Presley, Todd Morriss, and Don McKinney, examine their $800 toy.

Asst. editor, Debbie Deering watches frantically, hoping that asst. ed., Linda Waite and John Schoonbeck, editor, won't discover her mistake.

Bulbs flash, the whip cracks, and the triplicate sheets fly. The annual staff at R.H.S. has begun its work. This year's advisor, Miss Darnall, was aided by editor John Schoonbeck. He and his assistants, Debbie Deering and Linda Waite, have to check each page very carefully before Miss Darnall's final approval. To assure the best annual possible John appointed a qualified staff member to head each section. This year the annual boasts four photographers who can be seen snapping a picture almost anywhere. The annual's two-person business staff handles all money as well as keeping track of the file card of every student and faculty member. As soon as the annual goes to press, the staff begins their work on the supplement. The Eagle staff strives to give the Eaglelites the best possible picture story of their years at R.H.S.

EAGLE STAFF WORKS TO IMPROVE

Guy Echols consults Miss Darnall, the annual advisor, about his pages.

"Here I am," exclaims Kay Epperson to Johna Finnecannon. Janice Conoly and Norman Young seem to be absorbed in their own pages.

It's deadline day, and the haggard looks of Carol Finley, Betty Joe Talley, Sheila Helbing, June King, Felix Heimberg, and Dorothy Spitzfaden, prove it.

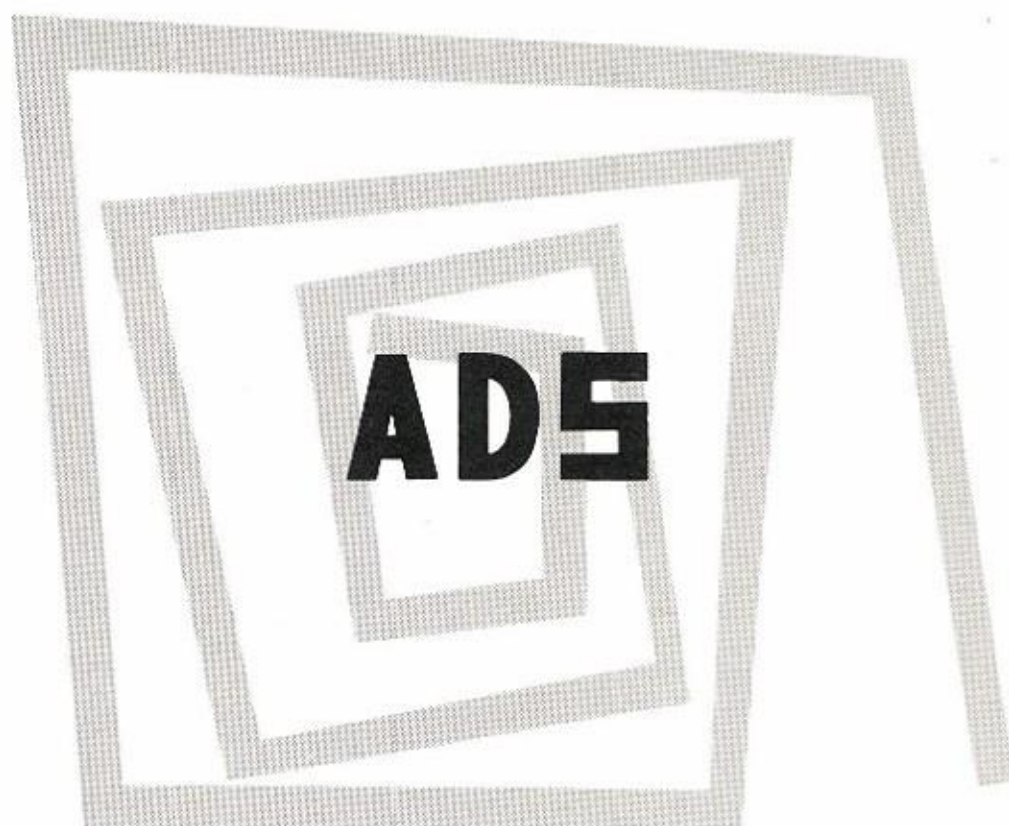

Terry Leever has acquired quite a fan club consisting of Joyce McClearin, Susan Smith, Kitty Hudnall, Linda Moore, and Amy Gepert.

Suzanne Bealle seems to be attracting quite a bit of attention as Susan Fickertt, Fred Blair, and Bill Bain volunteer their advice.

ANNUAL

Advertisement is an important part of the American way of life. It is also important to the success of the EAGLE. Merchants in and around Richardson were called upon by annual staff members and asked to place ads in the 1961 EAGLE. Those merchants who were generous enough to do so are being liberally rewarded by the patronage of R.H.S. students.

Richard -

Wow! I'll always remember our Freshmen English class - what a blast?? And our homeroom has really be wild? with Mrs. Cardwell - I hope we can have more fun in years to come - fuck always.

Richard
So a small guy
lots of luck.

Richard
You're really a real nice guy!
It sure was funny
how we found out
we were reading him!
Be good & write ap part! Best of luck!

Richard -
I've enjoyed being with you these few months. You've certainly made things lively when they were dull. Good luck to a really swell guy.
Doug Foster

Richard -
I sure have enjoyed sitting in front of you in English, even though I've gotten mad at you sometime. You are a cut and nice boy. Stay that way.
Love
Didna Chilton

Richard -
I've enjoyed knowing you
these past years and doing
"all kinds of things together".
Best wishes to a wonderful guy.

Richard -

The Band bus was a riot always. Thanks for putting up with Dick & me. Lots of luck
to a nice friend
Richard

Richard, has a regular blue in the old growth's room, learn to it. At least,
there's been you to relieve the monotony.
Best of luck always.
to a very cute guy.

Richard -
Give spring a big hug. I'm all these years
I hope you will always have all the good luck chance. Best wishes
